

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada is proud to honor all those who have selflessly served our nation, and the Silver State works daily to remember and recognize the long legacy of its citizen's courageous service during wartime that spans back to statehood; and

WHEREAS, on April 6, 1917 the United States entered into World War I, a conflict that became known as 'The Great War,' and on November 11, 1918 Germany signed an armistice agreement with the Allies ending 'The War to End All Wars;' and

WHEREAS, the United States Army's 91st 'Wild West' Division was comprised of a brave legion of shopkeepers, cowboys, farmers, miners, American Indians, immigrant railroad workers and many others who called the Silver State home; and

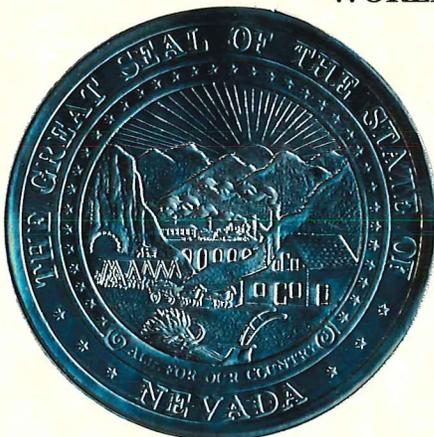

WHEREAS, nearly 1,500 Nevadans stepped up to fight when called upon, and we must never forget the 195 courageous men from Nevada who lived the creed 'Battle Born' and who made the ultimate sacrifice while serving during this war; and

WHEREAS, more than 41 million soldiers died in this conflict, which ranks among the deadliest in human history, and we must continue to share the stories of the soldiers who fought, and remember the lives that were changed and the communities that were impacted by the Great War; and

WHEREAS, Nevada honors, remembers and offers our most sincere thanks to those who fought for this country, and to their families we remain grateful for their sacrifices 100 years ago, and we recognize this date as a time to reflect on all veterans who have served for their dedication to protecting all citizens of the United States;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim November 11, 2018 as a day in honor of the centennial anniversary of

WORLD WAR I ARMISTICE DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 25th day of October, 2018.
