BELLS OF PEACE

A WORLD WAR I CENTENNIAL ARMISTICE REMEMBRANCE

Whereas, a tolling of bells is a traditional expression of honor and remembrance; and

Whereas, a century ago, 4.7 million American sons and daughters put on the uniform to serve our nation and the world in this global conflict; and

Whereas, men and women from our own fair City of O'Fallon community served selflessly and honorable in World War I; and

Whereas, there were 375,000 American casualties including 116,516 deaths; and

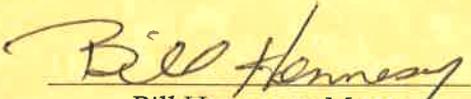

Whereas, on the 11th hour, of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918, an armistice to fighting was declared; and

Whereas, the U.S. World War One Centennial Commission has called upon all Americans across the nation and honor and remember those who served.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Hennessy, Mayor, and the City Council of the City of O'Fallon, Missouri, do hereby call upon the citizens and institutions of our community to toll the bells in remembrance of the Armistice at 11:00 a.m. local time on November 11, 2018.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed this 4th day of October, 2018.

Bill Hennessy, Mayor
