

EXTENSION OF SUFFRAGE TO WOMEN IS VITAL TO WINNING THE WAR, PRESIDENT TELLS SENATE

URGES THE IMMEDIATE PASSAGE OF MEASURE GIVING THEM THE VOTE

WOMAN'S HELP NEEDED NOW AND AFTER WAR

Verification of Our Professions of Democracy Necessary to Convince the World of Our Leadership. Appeals for "Spiritual" Help to Lighten the Burden of Executive Tasks Resting Upon Him.

The President, addressing the Senate at 1 o'clock this afternoon, said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE:

The unusual circumstances of a world war in which we stand and are judged in the view not only of our own people and our own consciences but also in the view of all nations and peoples will, I hope, justify in your thought, as it does in mine, the message I have come to bring you. I regard the concurrence of the Senate in the constitutional amendment proposing the extension of the suffrage to women as vitally essential to the successful prosecution of the great war of humanity in which we are engaged. I have come to urge upon you the considerations which have led me to that conclusion. It is not only my privilege, it is also my duty to apprise you of every circumstance and element involved in this momentous struggle which seems to me to affect its very processes and its outcome. It is my duty to win the war and to ask you to remove every obstacle that stands in the way of winning it.

I had assumed that the Senate would concur in the amendment because no disputable principle is in-

ROUT OF TURKS IN PALESTINE REPORTED BY U. S. DIPLOMAT

German Units Included in 50,000 Prisoners Taken by British in Seven Days.

The Department of State is in receipt of a telegram from the diplomatic agent at Cairo stating that 50,000 prisoners have been taken by Gen. Allenby in the last seven days. He has also blocked the last line of escape, annihilated west of the Jordan two Turkish armies, and captured over 300 guns. He has captured all of their food and medical supplies, rolling stock and baggage, ammunition, guns, horse and mechanical transport.

German Commander General Leman von Sanders narrowly escaped capture. Several German units and battalions were taken. As there is no rolling stock available, the Turkish Army east of the Jordan is in full retreat, following the line of the Hadjez Railway in order to reach Damascus. Communication has been cut off with Medina by the Arab forces holding the railway between Maan and Jordan and the New Zealand Cavalry holding the same railway at Amman. On September 25 Tibiras and Samakh were taken.

The British losses are quite small, the wounded being received at Cairo. The Moslem population of Egypt is now losing faith in Germany and Turkey by this victory. Because of the new territory taken and the new refugees, there will probably be great demands in Palestine on the American relief funds, American Zionist medical unit, and American Red Cross.

U. S. BATTLESHIP HITS MINE.

Minnesota in Dry Dock After Injuries off Delaware Breakwater.

Secretary Daniels authorizes the following:

The Navy Department is informed that the battleship Minnesota, which struck a mine off the Delaware Breakwater, arrived in port Sunday night at 7.45 and is now in dry dock for repairs. The Minnesota struck the mine on her starboard bow. The explosion tore a big hole, beginning at a point about 45 feet from the ram and extending aft about 40 feet. The width of the hole is from the bottom of the arm or belt practically to the keel, the bulge extending inward to the center of the ship.

No one was injured.

PRESIDENT DRAWS FIRST NUMBER, 322, IN LOTTERY TO FIX LIABILITY TO WAR SERVICE OF 18-45 CLASSES

VICE PRESIDENT SECOND

Drawing of 17,000 Numbers Begins in Senate Office Building with High Officials Participating—Probably will Take 26 Hours to Complete Task.

President Wilson opened to-day the drawing to determine the order of liability to military service of the approximately 13,000,000 men between the ages of 18 and 20 inclusive and 32 and 45 inclusive, who registered September 12, 1918.

In the majority caucus room in the Senate office building in the presence of a crowd that packed the room, the President drew the first number in the great lottery. It was No. 322. Because of the lowness of the number it is certain to apply to a man in every one of the 4,557 local boards.

Others in the Drawing.

Mrs. Wilson was also present. Others who followed the President in the drawing of the first 17 numbers, with the numbers they drew, were:

The Vice President of the United States, Hon. Thomas R. Marshall, No. 7277.

The President pro tempore of the Senate, Hon. Willard Saulsbury, of Delaware, No. 6708.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Hon. Champ Clark, No. 1027.

The Secretary of the Navy, Hon. Joseph Daniels, No. 16169.

Col. J. H. Wigmore, Provost Marshal General's Office, No. 1523.

17,000 Numbers to Be Drawn.

The first number was drawn by the President at noon. A total of 17,000 numbers are to be drawn, and it is estimated that approximately 26 hours will be consumed in the undertaking. Three shifts of officers and enlisted men are handling the operation. The serial numbers were contained in sealed gelatin capsules.

Although the drawing will give an order number to each of the 13,000,000 who registered, registrants will be called in accordance with their order numbers with their respective classes, as shown by the classification list, and within the ages from time to time prescribed by the President as immediately liable to be called for classification and for military service.

Regulations Sent Out.

Printed copies of the regulations governing the drawing, prepared by Col. Charles B. Warren, senior officer in the office of the Provost Marshal General, have been sent out to all local boards. These regulations include rules to be followed by the local boards in using the "master list" to determine the order numbers of the registrants within their respective jurisdictions who registered September 12, 1918, and also in assigning order numbers to those who shall have registered subsequently.

Facts concerning the previous drawings are presented as follows:

LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN OPENS; ALASKA FIRST TO FILL QUOTA

The Treasury Department issues the following:

Patriotic Americans are buckling down to work on the $3,000,000,000 Fourth Liberty Loan campaign. The drive opened officially Saturday, but the opening day, with its attendant half holiday in many cities, and the festivities that open every loan, was not a sales day in the fullest meaning of the term. But to-day the biggest army of salesmen that ever participated in any loan—upward of a million, it is estimated—are going out filled with a determination to begin turning a golden stream into Uncle Sam's Treasury that will set a new record for volume and speed of receipt.

Average of $315,000,000 a Day.

Everywhere it is recognized that the task of making the Fourth Liberty loan a success is much greater than it has been in any previous loan, because its size is 50 per cent larger than any ever sought before, and also that the canvassing time has been cut one-third. Briefly, the problem that faces the country is obtaining an average of slightly more than $315,000,000, in subscriptions during every one of the 19 working days of the campaign.

Only one district committee, New York, has attempted unofficially to estimate its sales for Saturday. It is believed in New York, and the belief is backed by actual pledges, that $200,000,000 worth of bonds, or one-ninth of that district's quota was sold.

Alaska First to Fill Quota.

To the Territory of Alaska goes the first honors of having its total quota subscribed. Shortly after the opening of the loan the Alaska Packers' Association of San Francisco announced that it had subscribed the entire loan allotment for every town, village, and fishing camp in the Territory, for a total of $1,370,000.

President Urges Senate to Pass Suffrage Amendment; No Party Issue Involved; Measure Necessary to Win War

involved but only a question of the method by which the suffrage is to be extended to women. There is and can be no party issue involved in it. Both of our great national parties are pledged, explicitly pledged, to equality of suffrage for the women of the country. Neither party, therefore, it seems to me, can justify hesitation as to the method of obtaining it, can rightfully hesitate to substitute federal initiative for state initiative, if the early adoption of this measure is necessary to the successful prosecution of the war and if the method of state action proposed in the party platforms of 1916 is impracticable within any reasonable length of time, if practicable at all. And its adoption is, in my judgment, clearly necessary to the successful prosecution of the war and the successful realization of the objects for which the war is being fought.

Professions Not Sufficient.

That judgment I take the liberty of urging upon you with solemn earnestness for reasons which I shall state very frankly and which I shall hope will seem as conclusive to you as they seem to me.

This is a peoples' war and the peoples' thinking constitutes its atmosphere and morale, not the predilections of the drawing room or the political considerations of the caucus. If we be indeed democrats and wish to lead the world to democracy, we can ask other peoples to accept in proof of our sincerity and our ability to lead them whither they wish to be led nothing less persuasive and convincing than our actions. Our professions will not suffice. Verification must be forthcoming when verification is asked for. And in this case verification is asked for,—asked for in this particular matter. You ask by whom? Not through diplomatic channels; not by Foreign Ministers. Not by the intimation of parliaments. It is asked for by the anxious, expectant, suffering peoples with whom we are dealing and who are willing to put their destinies in some measure in our hands, if they are sure that we wish the same things that they do. I do not speak by conjecture.

It is not alone the voices of statesmen and of newspapers that reach me, and the voices of foolish and intemperate agitators do not reach me at all. Through many, many channels I have been made aware what the plain, struggling, workaday folk are thinking upon whom the chief terror and suffering of this tragic war falls. They are looking to the great, powerful, famous Democracy of the West to lead them to the new day for which they have so long waited; and they think, in their logical simplicity, that democracy means that women shall play their part in affairs alongside men and upon an equal footing with them. If we reject measures like this, in ignorance or defiance of what a new age has brought forth, of what they have seen but we have not, they will cease to believe in us; they will cease to follow or to trust us. They have seen their own governments accept this interpretation of democracy—seen old governments like that of Great Britain, which did not profess to be democratic, promise readily and as of course this justice to women, though they had before refused it, the strange revelations of this war having made many things new and plain, to governments as well as to peoples.

Women Partners in the War.

Are we alone to refuse to learn the lesson? Are we alone to ask and take the utmost that our women can give,—service and sacrifice of every kind,—and still say we do not see what title that gives them to stand by our sides in the guidance of the affairs of their Nation and ours? We have made partners of the women in this war; shall we admit them only to a partnership of suffering and sacrifice and toil and not to a partnership of privilege and right? This war could not have been fought, either by the other nations engaged or by America, if it had not been for the services of the women,—services rendered in every sphere,—not merely in the fields of effort in which we have been accustomed to see them work, but wherever men have worked and upon the very skirts and edges of the battle itself. We shall not only be distrusted but shall deserve to be distrusted if we do not enfranchise them with the fullest possible enfranchisement, as it is now certain that the other great free nations will enfranchise them. We can not isolate our thought and action in such a matter from the thought of the rest of the world. We must either conform or deliberately reject what they propose and resign the leadership of liberal minds to others.

Will Not Be "Slackers."

The women of America are too noble and too intelligent and too devoted to be slackers whether you give or withhold this thing that is mere justice; but I know the magic it will work in their thoughts and spirits if you give it them. I propose it as I would propose to admit soldiers to the suffrage, the men fighting in the field for our liberties and the liberties of the world, were they excluded. The tasks of the women lie at the very heart of the war, and I know how much stronger that heart will beat if you do this just thing and show our women that you trust them as much as you in fact and of necessity depend upon them.

"Vital to the Winning of the War."

Have I said that the passage of this amendment is a vitally necessary war measure, and do you need further proof? Do you stand in need of the trust of other peoples and of the trust of our own women? Is that trust an asset or is it not? I tell you plainly, as the Commander in Chief of our armies and of the gallant men in our fleets, as the present spokesman of this people in our dealings with the men and women throughout the world who are now our partners, as the responsible head of a great Government which stands and is questioned day by day as to its purposes, its principles, its hopes, whether they be serviceable to men everywhere or only to itself, and who must himself answer these questionings or be shamed, as the guide and director of forces caught in the grip of war and by the same token in need of every material and spiritual resource this great Nation possesses—I tell you plainly that this measure which I urge upon you is vital to the winning of the war and to the energies alike of preparation and of battle.

Needed After the War.

And not to the winning of the war only. It is vital to the right solution of the great problems which we must settle, and settle immediately, when

SUSPENSION OF AUTOMOBILE AND MOTOR RACES REQUESTED

A request that all automobile, motorcycle, and motor-boat racing and speed contests be suspended for the period of the war is made by United States Fuel Administrator Garfield.

The request comes as a result of the growing need for the conservation of gasoline and because of the demand for skilled automobile drivers and mechanics for war service. A strict compliance with the request is earnestly desired.

Auto Association Cooperating.

The American Automobile Association is cooperating in the movement and has assured the Fuel Administration that it is prepared to observe the request. Chairman Richard Kennerdell, of the Association's Contest Board, reports that he has practically suspended operations and will issue no more sanctions for race meets or speed contests.

Sanctions have been previously given, however, for races to be held at Trenton, N. J., Danbury, Conn., Tucson and Phoenix, Ariz., and at Los Angeles, Cal., within the next 2 months, but it is expected that the promoters of these contests will call the events off in order to comply with the wishes of the Fuel Administration.

Saving of Gasoline.

Besides the saving of gasoline the cessation of race meets will serve to supply expert operators and mechanics for service in the Army Transport and Aeronautic branches of the Army.

American Official Communique No. 136.

HEADQUARTERS, AMERICAN
EXPEDITIONARY FORCES,
September 27.

Section A.—Northwest of Verdun the first army continued its attack begun yesterday. The towns of Charpenry, Very, Epinenville, and Ivoir were taken. Repeated hostile counterattacks on Maj. Gen. Cameron's corps were thrown back by troops from Ohio, New Jersey, Maryland, and Virginia, and from Oregon, Washington, Colorado, Wyoming, and Montana. The captured material includes over 100 guns, of which 12 are of heavy caliber, many trench mortars, and hundreds of machine guns. The number of prisoners has risen to over 8,000, including 125 officers.

Section B.—The commander in chief has awarded the distinguished service cross posthumously to the following officers and men of the A. E. F., killed in action, for the acts of gallantry set forth after their names:

Sergt. JOHN S. SIMPSON, Infantry, Emergency address, Sergt. J. S. Simpson, 54th Infantry; Marion E. Simpson, Manchester, Kans.; Sergt. J. S. Simpson, 9th Infantry; Mrs. Mary Simpson, mother, Ready, Ky. "For extraordinary heroism in action in the Soissons sector, France, July 18, 1918. During the assault near Soissons, Sergt. Simpson, although severely wounded, continued in action for several hours, leading a group of men beyond and back of an enemy machine-gun emplacement, in order to flank it and make the infantry advance at this point possible. He succeeded, but while engaged in this courageous duty he was killed."

Maj. ARTHUR B. BOULFON, Infantry, Emergency address, no record. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Soissons, France, July 18, 1918. His exhibition of dash and courage in leading an assaulting line against enemy machine-gun nests under terrific artillery fire, and the successful protection of his left flank, which became exposed when his own was broken, aided materially the success of the whole attack. He was killed by shell fire while leading his battalion in the assault."

First Lieut. Isaac V. Goitra, Infantry, Mrs. H. D. Willett, sister, Blue Mound, Ill. "For extraordinary heroism in action in the Chateau-Thierry section, France, June 6 and 7, 1918. Lieut. Goitra exhibited exceptional self-sacrifice and courage in the face of heavy machine-gun fire, promptly taking command of his platoon when its leader was killed and fearlessly leading its advance. The second day of the attack he was killed while directing his platoon through a heavy German barrage."

Pvt. (first class) EMERY MAHAFFEY, Medical Department, Infantry (James Mahafey, brother, 216 McDonough Road, Atlanta, Ga.). On May 28 and 29, 1918, at Cantigny, France, he did more than his duty under violent fire in the open to relieve sufferings of the wounded. On his way to a machine-gun emplacement to succor men who had been injured there, he stopped to give first aid to Pvt. Jay Ler Antes, who lay mortally wounded and exposed to machine-gun fire, and while performing this heroic act was killed.

First Lieut. JUDSON P. GALLOWAY, Infantry (Mrs. J. P. Galloway, wife, 153 Grand Street, Newburgh, N. Y.). For extraordinary heroism in action in the Chateau-Thierry sector, France, June 6, 1918. Lieut. Galloway exhibited exceptional courage and leadership when, after being mortally wounded, he continued to direct the steady advance of his platoon in the face of heavy machine-gun fire until struck a second time and killed.

Second Lieut. FRED H. BECKER, United States Marine Corps (no address given). For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierzy, France, July 18, 1918. Lieut. Becker went forward in advance of his platoon and destroyed a machine-gun nest, thereby preventing the death or injury of many men of his command. His self-sacrificing courage permitted his platoon to advance, but as he completed the performance of this noble work he himself was killed.

Second Lieut. LOWELL H. RILEY, Infantry (Mrs. A. M. Riley, mother, 36 William Street, Orange, N. Y.). For extraordinary heroism in action at Villa Savoie, northeast of Chateau-Thierry, France, August 7, 1918. Lieut. Riley maintained an observing station for his battalion commander for two days, although subjected during the whole of this time to intense artillery bombardment. He obtained valuable information as to the movements of the enemy, which was used in directing artillery fire. While engaged in this very important and hazardous work he was killed by shell fire.

Corpl. ROBERT E. CRAIDGE, Infantry, Eleanor Craidge, 611 Polk Street, Bay City Mich. "For extraordinary heroism in action at Hill 212 near Cierges, northeast of Chateau-Thierry, France, July 31, 1918. Corpl. Craidge was in charge of an advanced Chauchat rifle position while his company was exposed to severe machine-gun fire from the front and right flank. After three of his men had been killed and the other totally blinded by shell fire, Corpl. Craidge remained at his post and kept his gun in operation until he was killed. This brave act inspired the members of his organization who were eyewitnesses."

Pvt. EDWARD C. COXE, Infantry, Mrs. M. J. Cox, 156 West Eleventh Street, New York City, N. Y. "For extraordinary heroism in action at Ferme de Meurcy, near Villers-Sur-Fere, France, July 26, 1918. He continued to care for the wounded under heavy shell, machine-gun and artillery fire after he himself was severely injured. He has since died as a result of the wounds received in action."

Pvt. CHAS. R. BURKS, Infantry, J. H. Burks, father, Malvern, Iowa. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Sergy, northeast of Chateau-Thierry, France, July 30, 1918. During the mid-day attack on Sergy, after all the runners had been exhausted and many men had been killed or wounded, Pvt. Burks volunteered to take a message to a neighboring unit through violent bombardment and machine-gun fire. He was killed by a machine-gun bullet while on his way with the message."

Pvt. HARRY OLLRICH, Infantry, Henry Ollrich, father, Mount Clemens, Mich. "For extraordinary heroism in action during the advance across the river Ourcq and from Cierges to Fismes, France, July 31 to August 4, 1918. Many times daily during this advance, Pvt. Ollrich displayed an entire disregard of personal danger in the carrying of messages through enemy barrages. Later, in the fighting near Fismes, when it became necessary to send an important message to the commanding officer of the battalion, although Pvt. Ollrich had been on constant duty night and day for four days, he attempted to deliver the message, but was killed while crossing a shell-swept zone."

Pvt. GEORGE MCFARLING, Infantry, Ada Lane McFarling, mother, 824 Leif Street, Flint, Mich. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Cierges, northeast of Chateau-Thierry, France, July 31, 1918. Although he was himself severely wounded, Pvt. McFarling crawled over to an exposed and dangerous place to render first aid to a seriously wounded comrade, and while doing so received a fatal wound."

WORK OF CONGRESS BRIEFLY TOLD

SENATE.

Practically without discussion the Senate late Saturday afternoon passed the resolution already adopted in the House appropriating $1,000,000 for the Public Health Service to be used in fighting Spanish influenza, which has become epidemic in many camps and in a number of sections of the country.

The woman suffrage constitutional amendment resolution was again under consideration all of Saturday and went over until to-day without action. The friends of the measure admitted they had not the votes at present to put the resolution through. Conferences were held Saturday afternoon and again this morning with a view to reaching a conclusion of what had best be done under the circumstances. Two Senators who had been expected to support the resolution announced their purpose of voting against it on the ground that each State should be permitted to determine for itself who should vote therein.

Senate conferees on the food emergency agricultural appropriation bill reached a partial agreement Saturday afternoon but are still far apart on many of the important amendments. The Senate amendment designed to prevent rent profiteering was discussed but action thereon was postponed until the next session. War-time prohibition, which is an amendment to this measure, is not in dispute, as the House by a vote adopted the Senate's amendment to the original House proposal. A partial agreement was reached under which the Senate tentatively agreed to recede from an amendment giving the Secretary of the Interior the right to lease for the government mineral lands located on Indian lands. The House managers objected to the Senate amendment changing the War Finance corporation act so as to increase authority for loaning money to farmers, but Senate conferees stood out for acceptance of this amendment.

The annual agricultural appropriation bill carrying a total of $28,000,000 was re-passed late Saturday afternoon. This is the bill vetoed by the President because it contained a provision increasing the guaranteed price of wheat for the 1918 crop. As re-passed the objectionable item was eliminated.

Appearing before the Agricultural committee, Elliott H. Goodwin, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, explained the financial assistance given to the chamber by the meat packers. He said that since the organization of the chamber in 1912 the meat packers had contributed a total of only $9,000. Chairman William Colver, of the Federal Trade Commission, charged that the packers in their national advertising campaign had so distorted the statement of the Federal Trade Commission relative to the industry that the public had derived a wrong impression concerning that fact.

Saturday afternoon the Senate adopted the conference report on the mineral control bill, which provides for Government stimulation of production and distribution of certain minerals needed in war work. The report has been adopted by the House, the war is over. We shall need then in our vision of affairs, as we have never needed them before, the sympathy and insight and clear moral instinct of the women of the world. The problems of that time will strike to the roots of many things that we have not hitherto questioned, and I for one believe that our safety in those questioning days, as well as our comprehension of matters that touch society to the quick, will depend upon the direct and authoritative participation of women in our counsels. We shall need their moral sense to preserve what is right and fine and worthy in our system of life, as well as to discover just what it is that ought to be purified and reformed. Without their counsellings we shall be only half wise.

Spiritual Help Needed.

That is my case. This is my appeal. Many may deny its validity, if they choose, but no one can brush aside or answer the arguments upon which it is based. The executive tasks of this war rest upon me. I ask that you lighten them and place in my hands instruments, spiritual instruments, which I do not now possess, which I sorely need, and which I have daily to apologize for not being able to employ.

and the measure now goes to the President. It provides for a revolving fund of $50,000,000, and the Executive is given authority to create one or more corporations to develop or aid in mining and distribution.

When the nomination of Victor Murdock, of Kansas, to be a member of the Federal Trade Commission was reached in the Executive calendar Saturday afternoon, Senators Smoot, of Utah, and Sherman, of Illinois, both Republicans, asked that the question of confirmation go over temporarily, stating that they desired to discuss it. The nomination of Mark Storen, of Indianapolis, to be United States Marshal for the district of Indiana was confirmed.

HOUSE.

Debate continued throughout all of Saturday afternoon on the emergency power bill, with no time determined upon for the final vote. Chairman Sims hopes to finally pass the measure by to-morrow.

The bill authorizing the creation of a two-platoon system in the Fire Department of the District of Columbia was sent to conference. By an act previously passed, the funds for the payment of the additional firemen made necessary by this system have been appropriated.

INSTRUCTIONS TO NAVY'S BEEF INSPECTOR REGARDING WEIGHTS

Admiral Benson, Acting Secretary of the Navy, authorizes the following:

The following telegraphic instructions were issued September 25, 1918, by Admiral McGowan, Paymaster General of the Navy, and sent to the Navy inspector of beef at Chicago:

"Maj. Roy has received instructions to make all Navy allotment promptly upon his return to Chicago Friday morning.

"Navy has not lowered and will not lower its minimum weight specifications of 575 pounds per carcass of beef, but has agreed with the Army and allies that after the Food Administration has pre-empted for and allotted to the fighting forces of America and the allies all beef possibly obtainable which weighs 575 pounds up to 850 pounds if there then be a deficiency of this weight beef the deficiency may be filled by accepting specification quality beef lighter than but as near as possible to 575 pounds minimum, this lighter beef to be divided pro rata on the basis of total demands of Army and Navy and allied fighting forces, no beef weighing 575 pounds to 850 pounds to be diverted to the civilian population either here or abroad. The Navy's consent to accepting any beef weighing less than 575 pounds was only a temporary expedient as last resort in case of actual emergency and for time being only.

"Act in conjunction with Army and allies and Maj. Roy and inspect beef on this basis. Instruct allottees regarding stock upkeep at branch houses. Advise supply officers regarding allotment at earliest possible moment and Sanda of number and weight of any carcasses accepted weighing less than 575 pounds and percentage this number bears to total accepted. Full instructions follow."

LEGAL ADVISERS READY TO AID FOREIGN-BORN REGISTRANTS

Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder authorizes the following statement:

The attention of all foreign-born registrants is called to the fact that in every community legal advisory boards, appointed by the President on recommendation of the Governors of the various States under regulations of this office, stand ready to aid the individual registrant in filling out his questionnaire and in acquainting him with his duties and his rights under the selective service law.

Should Answer Questions Fully.

In order that the local and district boards, in classifying registrants, may act fairly and intelligently on all claims which the registrant feels he is entitled to make, it is essential that the registrant shall answer promptly and fully all the questions contained in the questionnaire, and shall be prepared to file with his questionnaire all the necessary affidavits and supplemental information. It is to enable him to do this that the legal advisory boards have been created.

These boards have at their command the services of most of the lawyers in their respective communities, including those able to speak the various languages

RESTRICTIONS ANNOUNCED ON SOLID RUBBER TIRE STYLES

B. M. Baruch, chairman of the War Industries Board, authorizes the following:

The War Industries Board has issued instructions to manufacturers of solid automobile tires to restrict at once their production of such tires to 40 sizes and types. There are now more than 100 such sizes and types. There will be a further elimination of 4 of these 40 sizes and types on November 1, and a gradual reduction during the next 2 years to 14 sizes and types. The use of caustic soda by the manufacturers of rubber of all types is to be discontinued at once.

Conservation of Rubber.

The Conservation Division of the War Industries Board, which prepared the solid automobile tire schedule with the cooperation of representatives of the industry, points out that the conservation of rubber is very necessary to aid in carrying on the war program. It believes this can be brought about through the standardization of sizes and types because such standardization enables the maximum quantity of finished products to be made with the minimum amount of labor and materials. It likewise reduces capital and material represented in excess manufacturers' and dealers' stocks.

The Standardization Program.

Following is the standardization program:
Class A.—Hard base, pressed on, and all removable types of tires: 32 by 3, 32 by 3½, 32 by 4, 36 by 4, 36 by 5, 40 by 5, 36 by 6, 40 by 6, 36 by 7, 36 by 8, 36 by 10, 40 by 10, 40 by 12, 40 by 14. The manufacture of the types and sizes of tires included in Class A to be continued.

Class B.—Hard base, pressed on, and all removable types of tires: 34 by 3, 34 by 3½, 36 by 3½, 34 by 4, 34 by 5, 40 by 5, 36 by 6. The manufacture of the types and sizes of tires included in Class B to be discontinued not later than November 1, 1920.

Class C.—Hard base, pressed on, and all removable types of tires: 32 by 2½, 36 by 3, 38 by 4, 38 by 5, 34 by 6, 38 by 6. Cushion tires to fit standard clincher rims: 30 by 3, 34 by 4, 32 by 4, 34 by 4½, 36 by 4. Side wire, for International Harvester Co. trucks: 38 by 2½, 42 by 2½. Clincher flange type for International Harvester Co. trucks: 38 by 2½, 38 by 3. The manufacture of the types and sizes of tires included in Class C to be discontinued not later than November 1, 1919.

Class D.—Hard base, pressed on, and all removable types of tires: 42 x 5, 42 x 6. Cushion tires to fit standard clincher rims: 34 by 3½, 38 x 4½. The manufacture of the types and sizes of tires included in Class D to be discontinued not later than November 1, 1918.

Class E.—All other types and sizes. The manufacture of the types and sizes of tires included in Class E to be discontinued at once.

of the foreign-born citizens of the country.

Advice Available to All.

Their advice and assistance is available to all registrants free of cost. Also affidavits may be sworn to before them without payment of any fees. They can not forecast the decisions of local or district boards upon individual cases. They can merely advise generally and aid the registrant in preparing his papers in a conscientious effort to put all the facts before the local or district board in an intelligent way, so that a proper decision may be reached.

One Member Always Present.

There is at least one member of the legal advisory board in attendance where

LABOR POLICIES BOARD'S VIEWS AS TO PRICES AND PRODUCTION OF THE NECESSARIES OF LIFE

Chairman Felix Frankfurter of the War Labor Policies Board authorizes the following statement:

Various branches of the Government are vigorously bending their efforts toward a just control of the prices of the necessities of life. Labor is especially concerned in the maintenance of a fair level of prices. The subject, therefore, naturally forced itself upon the attention of the War Labor Policies Board representing as it does the industrial agencies of the war administration.

Realizes Great Difficulties.

The Policies Board in common with all who have considered the problem appreciates fully the great public benefits which have already resulted from the activities of the War Industries Board, the Fuel Administration, the Food Administration, and the Department of Agriculture. Above all it realizes the tremendous difficulties inherent in undertaking price control, but, like other great problems presented by the war, this undertaking must be pursued because the successful enforcement of labor policies is inextricably bound up with all those conditions, usually called the cost of living.

The Policies Board, therefore, felt impelled to place at the disposal of the price-controlling agencies the needs of the situation as seen by the agencies responsible for dealing with labor matters.

Resolutions.

Whereas the War Labor Policies Board in its task of formulating labor policies during the war recognizes the intimate relation of the cost of the necessities of life to the success of a labor policy, and the influence of a belief that profits in these commodities are excessive in causing industrial unrest,

Whereas the successful formulation of a practical labor policy depends upon large production of the necessities of life, price stabilization, and the elimination of inequitable profits; therefore be it

Resolved, That the War Industries Board, the Food Administration, the Department of Agriculture, and the Fuel Administration be requested to proceed as rapidly as possible with the formulation and enforcement of plans for the increase in production of the necessities of life for the stabilization of the prices of food, textiles, clothing, and other necessities, and for the equitable limitation of profits.

a local board is sitting during the time that the questionnaires are required to be filled out and filed.

You are urged to consult them freely and with confidence that their aid is entirely disinterested.

LABOR-SAVING DEVICES IN MINES.

A committee has been formed consisting of Grant Hamilton, representing the Department of Labor; George J. Salmov, Bureau of Mines; and S. A. Taylor, representing the Fuel Administration, to investigate mechanical labor-saving devices relating to mining.

Orders the Manufacture Discontinued
Of Certain Electric Heating Apparatus

B. M. Baruch, chairman of the War Industries Board, authorizes the following:

The conservation division of the War Industries Board, applying its program of eliminations to conserve essential materials and labor to free capital tied up unnecessarily in manufacturers' and merchants' stocks and to simplify factory production, has issued a schedule for manufacturers of electrical heating appliances which calls for discontinuance of the manufacture of the following electrical utensils and appliances:

List to Be Discontinued.

American Consuls Instructed.

American consuls in the countries affected by this new general import license have been instructed to certify invoices for all shipments included within the terms of this general license without further official instructions or official notification of individual import license numbers. The consuls will, however, indorse on all such invoices covered by this general license "P. B. F. No. 27," in the same manner as is now done in the case of commodities covered by other general licenses.

The list of commodities above enumerated is a tentative one. A detailed list, classified according to the tariff paragraphs, is being prepared and will be announced shortly.

This new general license purposes to include commodities whose importation from Europe has been entirely unrestricted and whose distribution in this country has not been controlled; also, with certain exceptions, those commodities whose importation has heretofore been allowed under the back-haul privilege from convenient European and Mediterranean African ports.

Commodities covered by this new general license will not, therefore, require an individual import license, and it will not be necessary for the War Trade Board to cable officially regarding such shipments.

SAYS NAVY OFFICERS DO NOT ASK INCOME TAX EXEMPTION

Secretary Daniels has sent the following letter to Senator Simmons, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, under date of September 26, 1918:

MY DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN:

I notice that a suggestion has been made, or an amendment offered, to the pending revenue measure, under which those naval officers serving abroad would be exempted from the income tax. I am writing to express the view of the department and of the officers of the Navy, protesting against such discrimination. The naval officers under the law must render the service to which they are assigned, and the exigencies of the service require a transfer from shore to sea service and from service in this country to Europe. Constant interchange of orders would make it very difficult to determine who should be exempted under the proposed exemption if it should be incorporated in the bill. Most officers who go abroad do not remain a year, and their places are taken by other officers who have been doing important shore duty. If the bill should name a particular date when the officers should be exempted from the payment of the income tax, the officer who secured such exemption would not be entitled to it nearly so much as the officers who have been abroad for 10 months and who have been ordered home to America on that particular date.

Asks No Discrimination.

If it shall be the policy of Congress to exempt naval officers from the income tax I shall urge that the exemption include all without discrimination, for those officers remaining in America are not doing so by choice, but are anxious to be sent for service abroad.

The last session of Congress departed from the policy that has heretofore prevailed and gave commutation of quarters to officers on foreign duty, which added quite a sum to the incomes of these officers, and, as you know, all officers on foreign duty got the advantage of an additional 10 per cent on their pay. To exempt them from the income tax would give them an advantage over their brother officers which I do not think they should have. I venture to suggest that in the framing of the new revenue measure, in so far as it affects the Navy, no exemptions whatever be given. Most naval officers regard it as a privilege in this emergency to pay their income tax, and I would not like to see a precedent established of exempting from this tax the men who are rendering this high service.

Not Asked by Officers.

Congress has enacted legislation which has resulted in the promotion of most officers of the Navy, and, of course, this promotion has carried an addition in salary and an addition in commutation of quarters. Further promotions will come with the increase of the Navy, and there is no sound reason for exemption from the income tax. Naval officers have not asked it; the department does not ask it; and I feel it my duty to communicate this information to your committee.

If I may be permitted to express an opinion upon the matter, it is my judgment that the income tax should be paid alike by everyone—those in the naval service and all other military service, as well as those in civilian walks of life.

Sincerely, yours,

JOSEPHUS DANIELS.

DISTRICT DRAFT BOARDS ASKED TO EXPEDITE CLASSIFICATION

The War Department authorizes the following from the office of the Provost Marshal General:

Provost Marshal General has sent the following to members of district boards: A heavy task faces the district boards in connection with the classification of the men who registered on September 12.

It is with a full responsibility of this burden and responsibility that I rely upon you to assist us in the work of expediting the classification to the fullest possible extent consistent with the great importance of the task.

Jurisdiction Extended.

As you are aware, the district boards in dependency cases are, generally speaking, the courts of last resort. In occupational cases the original responsibility is yours. In the latter field your jurisdiction has been extended by the recent act of Congress, extending the age limits of the Selective Service, to cover deferment of persons engaged in all occupations or employments as well as in industries, including agriculture, which you may find to be necessary to the maintenance of the Military Establishment, or the effective operation of the military forces, or the maintenance of the national interest in the emergency. Thus, at a time when the exigencies of the military situation make it imperative to speed up the entire machinery of the Selective Service, the number of cases which you will be called upon to handle is likely to be largely increased.

Necessity for Prompt Handling.

These cases you must handle under the double obligation of satisfying the vital man-power needs of the Army but not impairing the economic structure of the country, the efficiency of whose functions, in many instances, is vital to the support of the Army. As to your ability to solve this problem to the best interests of the Nation and the cause for which it fights, I have not the slightest doubt. It is to the necessity for the prompt handling of all cases as they come before you that I desire particularly to direct your attention.

Until the classification of the new registrants has been completed, there will, of course, exist considerable and widespread uncertainty and unrest among the registrants, which, in the case of those employed in necessary occupations, will tend to retard production. Thus the national interest demands that there be no unnecessary delays in determining the status of these individuals.

Program Requires Haste.

On the other hand, the military program requires that Class I men under the new registration be made available for military training within 90 days—some almost immediately.

It is upon my faith in your ability to meet the situation that I have built my pledge to have the men ready when called for.

Copies of letters to governors and to local boards generally are inclosed herewith.

(Signed) E. H. CROWDER,
Provost Marshal General.

KEROSENE OIL PRODUCERS URGED TO INCREASE OUTPUT

Refiners Are Warned by Fuel Administration of Impending Shortage This Winter.

As a precautionary measure to forestall an impending shortage of kerosene during the coming winter, the Oil Division of the United States Fuel Administration has issued the following letter to all refineries throughout the country:

Should Increase Production.

"I am convinced it is absolutely necessary that the kerosene production of the country should be materially increased. Statistically, kerosene is in a more unsatisfactory position than gasoline or fuel oil. We have not heretofore felt the acuteness of this situation because of the summer season through which we have just passed. Now, however, we are approaching the season of maximum kerosene consumption and unless steps are taken immediately to provide increased supply we shall undoubtedly this winter face a shortage much more acute than we have as yet experienced in any of the petroleum products.

Decrease in Output.

The statistics now in the hands of your subcommittee show clearly the decrease in the percentage output of kerosene by practically all refineries. The situation as a whole shows decrease in barrels produced and a very large increase in domestic consumption which fortunately has been offset by decrease in exports due to lack of tonnage for overseas movement. This export movement is now increasing, and the winter will soon be upon us. I request, therefore, that you communicate with each refinery, forwarding them a copy of this letter, and urge upon them the absolute necessity of increasing their kerosene production to the fullest extent possible, at least to a percentage amount equal to that of last year.

Detailed Reports Asked.

Will you please act upon this promptly, and forward me a detailed report as to the replies you receive?

Yours, very truly,

M. L. REQUA,
General Director, Oil Division,
United States Fuel Administration.

NO "NOV. 1 COAL ORDER" ISSUED BY THE FUEL ADMINISTRATION

United States Fuel Administrator Garfield said:

"Neither the United States Fuel Administrator nor the Federal fuel administrator for New York has issued any order that coal be not used for domestic heating before November 1. We are advised that a letter has been sent out over the name of the National Retail Coal Merchants' Association asking consumers to refrain from using coal in furnaces or stoves at least until November 1.

Asks Nothing Unreasonable.

"It is recognized that during the coming winter every reasonable effort must

ATTITUDE OF LABOR POLICIES BOARD TOWARD EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN IN WAR INDUSTRY

Chairman Felix Frankfurter, of the War Labor Policies Board, authorizes the following statement concerning the board's attitude toward the employment of children in war industry:

"The imperative need for a maximum production of the materials of war requires that all available reservoirs of labor be drawn upon. The exigencies of the national situation are such that recurrent suggestions that child labor be utilized have been heard. In view of this fact and in view of the probable increasing demands that children be included in the industrial mobilization for war, the policy of the war production agencies of the government should be clearly kept in mind.

Anti-child-Labor Regulations.

"The War Labor Policies Board, which is the voice of all the industrial agencies of the Government, has in part defined this policy by anti-child-labor regulations contained in the contracts made by the war administration.

"1. No child under 14 years of age shall be employed on war work.

"2. No child between 14 and 16 years of age shall be employed more than 8 hours a day, nor before 6 a. m., nor after 7 p. m., nor more than 6 days a week on war materials.

"The prohibition of the employment of children below certain ages does not mean that the employment of children above those ages is favored. To recruit children of 14 or 16 years of age for industry is ignoring their future value as trained workers. Neither the patriotic desire to serve immediately, nor the attraction of high wages should draw children from school to work.

Sacrifice Not Yet Necessary.

"Children above the minimum ages of permitted employment must still be considered as potential citizens, and not merely as present producers. The sacrifice involved in the premature labor of children is not yet necessary. The curtailment of nonessential industry, and the employment of men and women not now productively engaged, will undoubtedly prove sufficient to care for the requirements of the conduct of the war.

"In order to satisfy the claims of the future, the maintenance of present educational and child-labor standards is indispensable. The formative years of youth should be safeguarded by purposeful training of developed usefulness in the Nation. The time is not yet in sight when the defense of the Nation must be assumed by children. The men and women of America are competent to the task."

be made to conserve fuel if the available supply is to meet the necessary needs. While the Fuel Administration strongly urges conservation and bespeaks the co-operation of the public, it does not insist upon unreasonable requirements or that its request for conservation be complied with when compliance would be unreasonable or would result in sickness or injury to health."

AMERICAN OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE

Mich. "For extraordinary heroism in action north of Jaul Gonne, near Serzy, France, July 31, 1918. Although exposed to artillery and machine-gun and rifle fire, Comdr. Stuart attempted to carry a wounded man from within 100 feet of the German line. He was killed while crawling toward his own lines with his wounded comrade on his back."

Sergt. CARL E. PAYSON, Infantry, Mrs. Garrett Timberman, mother, Monroe, Mich. "For extraordinary heroism in action at Clerges, northeast of Chateau-Thierry, France, August, 1918. During the attack made by the company on the village of Clerges, Sergt. Payson was mortally wounded in the head by a machine-gun bullet. He succeeded in keeping on his feet, however, and with the attacking wave, encouraging his men, and by his strong will power he instilled in them all the spirit of fearlessness."

Pvt. MARCUS ARMIGO, Infantry, Mrs. Maria Salasa Armigo, wife, 905 South Virginia Street, El Paso, Tex. "For extraordinary heroism in action north of Mont. St. Martin, south of the Vesle River bar Pismes, France, August 5, 1918. While his company was under a heavy barrage fire, Pvt. Armigo was hit by a shell and both his legs blown off. Pvt. Armigo lifted himself upon his elbow and rolled and smoked cigarettes. By this display of nerve Pvt. Armigo conveyed to his comrades an unconquerable spirit of fearless pluck and will power."

American Official Communique No. 137.

HEADQUARTERS AMERICAN
EXPEDITIONARY FORCES,
September 28, 1918.

Section A.—The attack begun on September 26 continues to develop successfully. To-day our troops, advancing in the face of heavy infantry, artillery, and machine-gun fire, have reached the outskirts of Briettes and Exermont. More than 20 towns and enormous quantities of material have fallen into our hands. The number of prisoners continues to increase. American aviators have kept command of the air. They have brought down 12 balloons and more than 60 enemy planes, while less than a third of that number of our planes are missing. In conjunction with French and British aviators they have, notwithstanding unfavorable weather, rendered valuable service and successfully executed many missions.

Section B.—The following extract is from a German soldier's letter found in the Woivre September 22: "Americans are in front of us. To the right of us Indians of the Sioux tribe were identified in one of the last attacks. After the war Karl May can write another book about his war experiences with his dear Indians."

American Official Communique No. 138.

HEADQUARTERS, AMERICAN
EXPEDITIONARY FORCES,
September 29, 1918.

Section A.—Our troops have continued to meet with determined resistance on the part of the enemy, who has been forced hastily to bring up and engage divisions from other parts of the front. Between Clerges and the Valley of the Aire we have met and repulsed heavy counter-attacks.

The War Department authorizes the following part of Communique No. 135.

The commander in chief of the American Expeditionary Forces has awarded the Distinguished Service Cross to the following-named officers and men in the Marine Corps of the American Expeditionary Forces for the acts of gallantry set forth after their names:

Pvt. ALBERT A. TAUBERT, United States Marine Corps. Carl Taubert, father, 535 West Mifflin Street, Madison, Wis. "For extraordinary heroism in the Villers Cotterets Forest, south of Soissons, France, July 18, 1918. Pvt. Taubert went out in advance of the line of his company into the fire of a machine gun that was shooting at him and captured the gun and its crew."

Pvt. FRANK J. BARCZYKOWSKI, United States Marine Corps. Frank Barczykowski, father, 18 Klaus Street, Buffalo, N. Y. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierz, France, July 19, 1918. He displayed exceptional bravery in charging three machine guns with the aid of a small detachment of his comrades, killing the crews and capturing the guns which were immediately turned on the Germans, thereby opening the line for the advance of his company, which had been held up by the enemy's fire."

Pvt. ALBERT H. BARROWS, United States Marine Corps. Mrs. Mary A. Barrows, mother, 714 Summer Street, Lynn, Mass. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierz, France, July 19, 1918. He displayed exceptional bravery in charging three machine guns with the aid of a small detachment of his comrades, killing the crews and capturing the guns, which were immediately turned on the Germans, thereby opening the line for the advance of his company, which had been held up by the enemy's fire."

Pvt. PAUL T. HURLBY, United States Marine Corps. Joseph D. Hurley, father, 21 Cricket Street, Ardmore, Pa. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierz, France, July 19, 1918. He displayed exceptional bravery in charging three machine guns with the aid of a small detachment of his comrades, killing the crews and capturing the guns, which were immediately turned on the Germans, thereby opening the line for the advance of his company, which had been held up by the enemy's fire."

Second Lieut. JOSEPH B. CARHART, United States Marine Corps. George Carhart, brother, 152 West Fifteenth Street, New York City. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierz, France, July 19, 1918. He displayed exceptional bravery in charging three machine guns with a small detachment of his men, killing the crews and capturing the guns, which were immediately turned on the Germans, thereby opening the line for the advance of his company, which had been held up by the enemy's fire."

Sergt. LOUIS CUKELA, United States Marine Corps. Sam Cukela, father, box 24, Joyce, Washington. "For extraordinary heroism in action in the forest De Retz, near Villers Commetres, France, July 18, 1918. Sergt. Cukela advanced alone against an enemy strong point that was holding up his line, worked his way to its rear and by use of German hand grenades attacked and captured two machine guns and four men."

Gunnery Sergt. JNO. NAGAZYNA, United States Marine Corps. Stephen Nagazyna, father, Babylon, L. I., N. Y. "For extraordinary heroism in the attack on Tigney, France, July 19, 1918. During a critical time in the assault against Tigney, when his company had suffered heavy losses, Sergt. Nagazyna set such an example of personal bravery and determination as to inspire his men to success. At a time when it seemed impossible to advance any farther, his fearlessness in moving up and down his line to steady his men, encouraged them to go forward against heavy odds and take and hold their objective."

Pvt. ROYAL H. C. SHEPHERD, United States Marine Corps. John S. Shepherd, father, Route No. 1, box 1533, Houston, Tex. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Tigney, France, July 19, 1918. Shepherd entered the action with a badly burned foot, which fact he concealed from his officers. Shot through the shoulder early in the advance, and unable to hold his position in the firing line, he carried wounded men to shelter for six hours, all the time under heavy fire of the enemy, and yielded to treatment himself only when he had become exhausted from the effects of his injury."

Corpl. WILLIAM H. FAGA, Mary Faga, mother, 1134 North Franklin Street, Chicago, Ill. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierz, France, July 19, 1918. He attacked and captured a machine gun that was inflicting losses on the American lines. In addition, he volunteered and successfully delivered messages of great importance to his battalion commander through a machine-gun and artillery barrage."

Pvt. WALTER E. FURR, United States Marine Corps. Mr. M. F. Furr, father, Concord, N. C. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierz, France, July 19, 1918. Unaided, Pvt. Furr crept forward in advance of his line, searched an underground tunnel, captured five Germans and brought them safely back through heavy machine-gun and shell fire."

Corpl. HUGH C. VAN AMBURGH, United States Marine Corps. Roxie Thurmond, mother, R. F. D. No. 2, box 209, Milwaukee, Oreg. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierz, France, July 19, 1918. As a motorcycle-dispatch rider, Corpl. Van Amburgh made repeated trips along shell-swept roads and in a gassed area before and during the capture of Vierz. When Vierz was still in German hands, he dismounted from his motorcycle in front of the town, and with great coolness and disregard of personal safety, crawled into it and brought back information of great value to his brigade commander."

Corpl. JOSEPH L. HOPTA, United States Marine Corps. John Hopta, father, 491 Mulberry Street, Newark, N. J. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Vierz, France, July 18, 1918. Corpl. Hopta captured an enemy machine gun and its crew single handed under a heavily concentrated machine-gun fire."

Corpl. BERNARD W. MONTAG, United States Marine Corps. Bernard C. Montag, father, 1825 Simpson Street, Oshkosh, Wis.

Pvt. W. M. MCINTYRE, United States Marine Corps. (Not identified).

McIntyre, Messinger, and Wood, captured a machine gun which was holding up the company of Marines, killing the entire crew. To accomplish this hazardous and daring work it was necessary for them to expose themselves to the fire of this gun. Even though Corpl. Montag and Pvts. McIntyre and Messinger were wounded during the advance, the party continued forward and succeeded."
