According to a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 305), shipments of Christmas parcels to members of the American Expeditionary Forces may be made under special license RAC-43 (described in W. T. B. These regulations provide that one parcel will be accepted through the Red Cross by the War Department for each soldier overseas.

Each soldier will be provided with one Christmas label. This label will be forwarded by him to the person in the United States from whom he wishes to receive his package. ANOTHER LIBERTY LOAN COMING, SAYS SECRETARY OF TREASURY.

"Will Have to Finance Peace as We Did War," Mr. McAdoo Announces.

The Treasury Department has made public the following:

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has announced that, no matter what the results of the pending overtures for peace may be, there will be another Liberty loan. To use his expression, "We are going to have to finance peace for a while just as we have had to finance war."

There are over 2,000,000 United States soldiers abroad. If we transport these men back to the United States at the rate of 300,000 a month, it will be over half a year before they are all returned. Our Army, therefore, must be maintained, victualled, and clothed for many months after peace is an actuality.

The American people, therefore, having supported the Liberty loan with a patriotism that future historians will love to extol, will have an opportunity to show the same patriotism in financing the just and conclusive victorious peace whenever it comes.

Not for a moment, however, is the Treasury acting on any assumption that peace is to come soon. Until peace is actually assured the attitude of the Treasury and the attitude of the whole United States Government is for the most vigorous prosecution of the war, and the motto of force against Germany without stint or limit will be acted up to until peace is an absolute accomplished fact.

One more Liberty loan, at least, is certain. The fourth loan was popularly called the "fighting loan"; the next loan may be a fighting loan, too, or it may be a peace loan. Whatever the conditions, the loan must be prepared for and its success rendered certain and absolute. Begin now to prepare to support it.

TERMS OF ARMISTICE IMPOSED UPON AUSTRIA-HUNGARY

as exists in the territories to be evacuated by the Austro-Hungarian forces.

THREE.—Evacuation of all territories invaded by Austro-Hungary since the beginning of war. Withdrawal within such periods as shall be determined by the commander in chief of the allied forces on each front of the Austro-Hungarian armies behind a line fixed as follows: From Pic Umbrail to the north of the Stelvio it will follow the crest of the Rhetian Alps up to the sources of the Adige and the Eisach, passing thence by Mounts Reschen and Brenner and the heights of Oetz and Zoaller. The line thence turns south, crossing Mount Toblach and meeting the present frontier Carnic Alps. It follows this frontier up to Mount Tarvis, and after Mount Tarvis the watershed of the Julian Alps by the Col of Predil, Mount Mangart, the Tricornio (Terglou), and the watershed of the Cols di Podberdo, Podlaniscam and Idria. From this point the line turns southeast toward the Schneeberg, excludes the whole basin of the Save and its tributaries. From Schneeberg it goes down toward the coast in such a way as to include Castua, Maffugglia, and Volosca, in the evacuated territories.

It will also follow the administrative limits of the present Province of Dalmatia, including to the north Lisarica and Trivania and, to the south, territory limited by a line from the (Semigrand?) of Cape Planca to the summits of the watershed eastward, so as to include in the evacuated area all the valleys and water-courses flowing toward Sebenico, such as the Cicola, Kerka, Butisnica, and their tributaries. It will also include all the islands in the north and west of Dalmatia from Premuda, Selve, Uibo, Scherda, Maon, Pago, and Puntadura in the north up to Meleda in the south, embracing Santandrea, Busi, Lisa, Lesina, Tercola, Curzola, Cazza, and Lagosta, as well as the neighboring rocks and islets and passages, only excepting the islands of Great and Small Zirona, Bua, Solta, and Brazza. All territory thus evacuated (shall be occupied by the forces?) of the allies and of the United States of America.

All military and railway equipment of all kinds, including coal belonging to or within those territories, (to be?) left in situ and surrendered to the allies according to special orders given by the commander in chief of the forces of the associated powers on the different fronts. No new destruction, pillage or requisition to be done by enemy troops in the territories to be evacuated by them and occupied by the forces of the associated powers.

FOUR.—The allies shall have the right of free movement over all road and rail and waterways in Austro-Hungarian territory and of the use of the necessary Austrian and Hungarian means of transportation. The armies of the associated powers shall occupy such strategic points in Austria-Hungary at times as they may deem necessary to enable them to conduct military operations or to maintain order.

They shall have the right of requisition on payment for the troops of the associated powers (wherever?) they may be.

FIVE.—Complete evacuation of all German troops within fifteen days not only from the Italian and Balkan fronts but from all Austro-Hungarian territory.

Internment of all German troops which have not left Austria-Hungary within the date.

SIX.—The administration of the evacuated territories of Austria-Hungary will be entrusted to the local authorities under the control of the allied and associated armies of occupation.

SEVEN.—The immediate repatriation without reciprocity of all allied prisoners of war and interned subjects and of civil populations evacuated from their homes on conditions to be laid down by the commander in chief of the forces of the associated powers on the various fronts. Sick and wounded who can not be removed from evacuated territory will be cared for by Austria-Hungary personnel, who will be left on the spot with the medical material required.

NAVAL CONDITIONS.

ONE.—Immediate cessation of all hostilities at sea and definite information to be given as to the location and movements of all Austro-Hungarian ships.

Notification to be made to neutrals that freedom of navigation in all territorial waters is given to the naval and mercantile marine of the allied and associated powers, all questions of neutrality being waived.

TWO.—Surrender to allies and the United States of 15 Austro-Hungarian submarines completed between the years 1910 and 1918, and of all German submarines which are in or may hereafter enter Austro-Hungarian territorial waters. All other Austro-Hungarian submarines to be paid off and completely disarmed and to remain under the supervision of the allies and United States.

THREE.—Surrender to allies and United States with their complete armament and equipment of 3 battleships, 3 light cruisers, 9 destroyers, 12 torpedo boats, 1 mine layer, 6 Danube monitors to be designated by the allies and United States of America. All other surface warships, including river craft, are to be concentrated in Austro-Hungarian naval bases to be designated by the allies and United States of America, and are to be paid off and completely disarmed and placed under the supervision of allies and United States of America.

FOUR.—Freedom of navigation to all warships and merchant ships of allied and associated powers to be given in the Adriatic and up the River Danube and its tributaries in the territorial waters and territory of Austria-Hungary.

The allies and associated powers shall have the right to sweep up all mine fields and obstructions and the positions of these are to be indicated.

In order to insure the freedom of navigation on the Danube the allies and the United States of America shall be empowered to occupy or to dismantle all fortifications or defense works.

Exportation May Now Be Made Under Special License Issued to the Post Office Department—In- dorsement on Parcel by Shipper.

The War Trade Board announces in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 304), that special license No. RAC-43 described in W. T. B. R. 65 and the rules governing exports by private individuals to American soldiers and others announced in form No. 2194 have been amended. This license has now been reissued to the Post Office Department and the Customs Service authorizing the exportation without individual license of such shipments as may be made—

(a) Individuals serving abroad in (1) the United States Army, (2) the United States Navy, (3) the United States Marine Corps,

It should be noted that it is not necessary to apply to the War Trade Board or to any of its branches for permission to ship under special license No. RAC-43, and no individual licensing document from the War Trade Board is necessary for such shipments. In making shipments under this license through a post office or other carrier it is necessary for the addresser only to note on the wrapper of the package to be forwarded, the following:—

tained in War Department Bulletin No. 57, issued through the office of The Adjutant General on October 31, 1918, which provides in effect that no shipment to a member of the American Expeditionary Forces, a member of the forces of the allies abroad, or to individuals serving abroad in the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, or other organizations of a similar character operating with the American Expeditionary Forces or with the forces of the allies, may be accepted for transportation by a post office or other carrier unless the parcel contains a written request for the articles to be shipped, such request having been signed by the addressee and approved by a regimental or higher commanding officer, or, in the case of individuals serving with the Red Cross and similar organizations, by an executive officer of the organization with which the addressee is connected.

It is provided that the sender shall place on the wrapper of the parcel under his name and address the following statement:

"This parcel contains only articles sent at approved request of addressee, which is inclosed."

The approved written request must be inclosed in the parcel.

Further information regarding these regulations of the War Department may be obtained from any post office.

The restrictions of War Department Bulletin No. 57 do not apply to packages sent to individuals on board United States naval vessels or attached to naval bases when such parcels are addressed

ORDERS FOR ARMY CLOTHING PLACED WITH BRITISH FIRMS

The War Department authorizes the following:

Brig. Gen. R. E. Wood, Acting Quartermaster General and director of purchase and storage, announces that the orders that have been placed with the British Government for the manufacture of uniforms for the American Expeditionary Forces consist of one for 1,800,000 pairs of trousers and another for 1,440,000 uniform coats. These orders were placed with contractors at Bradford, England, and not Glasgow.

There has also been placed with the British Government an order for 1,000,000 yards of cloth for the manufacture of officers' uniforms. Statements that contracts for the American forces overseas have resulted in curtailing manufacture of cloth for civilian use are incorrect. The policy of the British Government has been for some time past that because of the large quantities of wool required in filling orders for their own forces and those of the allied countries, the output of cloth and underwear for the civilian population would be under governmental control.

Importation from France Of Roquefort Cheese

The restriction upon the importation of Roquefort cheese (Item 113 of List of Restricted Imports No. 2, W. T. B. R. 98) has been modified by the War Trade Board in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 302) effective November 4, 1918, to permit the importation of Roquefort cheese from France when coming as a return cargo from France when shipped from convenient ports and when loading can be done without delay.

in care of the postmaster at New York City, and not to the American Expeditionary Forces in France.

Due to Limited Space.

The War Trade Board understands that the regulations of the War Department described above were made necessary by the limited amount of available shipping space. On account of the shortage in shipping, it is necessary to limit shipments to the Expeditionary Forces of the United States and of the allies to articles which are absolutely essential for their fighting efficiency. Early in 1918, when the number of United States troops in France was still comparatively small, and before the regulations had been made effective, the shipments of parcels to individual officers and soldiers assumed enormous proportions, averaging 250 tons a week. Now that there are some 2,000,000 United States troops in France, if a parcel weighing 5 pounds were sent each month to each one of them, the transportation of the packages would require over 4,000 tons of shipping space. It should therefore be realized that each package accepted for shipment to France makes impossible the forwarding of an equivalent amount of necessary war supplies for the Army of the United States and the armies of the allies in the field.

CLASSIFYING OF REGISTRANTS EMPLOYED OUTSIDE OF THE U. S.

The following instructions have been issued to the draft executives of all States by the Provost Marshal General:

1. In view of the great importance to the maintenance of the national interest that our foreign commercial interests shall be maintained and continued, the attention of all local and district boards should be particularly called to note 3, section 89, of the second edition of the Selective-Service Regulations, relating to the deferred classification of registrants engaged in industries, occupations, and employments, including agriculture, in places beyond the territorial limits of the United States, and also to the third paragraph of section 99, relating to the extension of time for the return of questionnaires of registrants whose last-known address shows them to be abroad.

2. The boards should also be advised that in classifying registrants who are foreign representatives of American commercial interests, the fact should not be overlooked that such representatives are frequently highly trained men, who have devoted years to the study of foreign languages and to the acquisition of a thorough knowledge of foreign customs, and who are for that reason particularly difficult to replace.

E. H. CROWDER,
Provost Marshal General.

American Official Communiques on Operations of U. S. Forces

American Official Communiqué No. 178.

HEADQUARTERS AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES, November 1—Evening.

The First American Army continued its attack on the west bank of the Meuse in conjunction with the Fourth French Army on its left.

The perfect cooperation of all arms—Infantry, Artillery, Airplanes, and Tanks—succeeded in overcoming and disorganizing the enemy's determined resistance and breaking up his counterattacks. Enemy divisions, rapidly brought up, were intermingled with units already in line in a vain attempt to stop our advance.

Our victorious troops have already taken and passed beyond St. Georges, Landers et St. Georges, Imecourt, Landreville, Chennery, Bayonville, Remonville, and Estanne [probably Andevanne] and Clery-Le-Grand.

Up to the present 3,002 prisoners have been counted, of whom 151 are officers.

American Official Communiqué No. 179.

HEADQUARTERS AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES, November 2—Morning.

The First Army continued its attack west of the Meuse this morning. The operation is progressing favorably.

American Official Communiqué No. 180.

HEADQUARTERS AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES, November 2—Evening.

Section A.—A series of raids skillfully carried out by troops of the second army in the Woevre resulted in the capture of 2 officers and 63

mén. The first army to-day continued its successful advance, overcoming all resistance. Among the most important towns taken are Champigneulle, Beffu-le-Morthomme, Verpel, Sivry-Les-Buancy, Thenorgues, Briquonay, Buzancy, Villers-devant-Dun, and Clery-le-Petit. In spite of bad weather conditions our aviators flying at extremely low altitudes carried out important missions over the Meuse Valley and along the whole front of attack.

The number of prisoners has risen to more than 4,000 men and 192 officers, among whom are 4 battalion commanders with their staffs.

The enemy was forced to abandon large quantities of material of all kinds. An official count shows that 63 guns of medium and light calibers and hundreds of machine guns have been captured. A Bavarian battalion of artillery was taken with its personnel, horses, and materiel complete.

In the course of the operations of the past two days south of the River Lys our troops acting under the command of the King of the Belgians advanced nearly 10 miles, reaching the western bank of the Scheldt and capturing several hundred prisoners.

Section B.—There is nothing to report in this section.

American Official Communiqué No. 181.

HEADQUARTERS AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES, November 3—Morning.

This morning the first army continued its attack west of the Meuse. The operation is developing satisfactorily.

5,000,000 TRENCH RATIONS FOR OUR SOLDIERS IN FRANCE

The War Department authorizes the following:

The Subsistence Division is packing 5,000,000 trench rations for American fighters in France. These rations are packed in air-tight containers and then crated in heavy wood boxes. In each of these containers is sufficient food for 24 men for one day.

This ration is made to protect the soldier from hardships in the trenches or at sea. An illustration of the care with which the food products of this ration are packed is in the selection of the canned meats. The tinned-meat packing situation of the United States has been carefully studied by meat experts, so that only the best products of the packers will be used. In addition to meats the ration contains cigarettes sufficient for a day's smoke for 24 men, salmon, soluble coffee, salt, pepper, and hard bread. Practically all of these are packed separately in air-tight containers made to resist a gas attack.

United States of the proposed recipient, and that the applicant, in the calendar year 1918 has not made or will not make any other Christmas shipment to the above-named consignee."

May Jointly Send Parcels.

If there are two relatives equally closely connected with the recipient either one, but not both, may send a parcel, but two or more of them may jointly send a parcel.

After presentation and proper approval of an application the Red Cross will mark the application "approved" and will give to the holder thereof a box 3 by 4 by 9 inches in size, together with which will be given complete instructions as in the case of parcels destined to members of the American Expeditionary Forces.

Together with the box, the Red Cross will return to the applicant the application marked "approved."

When packed the box should be taken, unsealed and unwrapped, to the nearest collection station designated by the Red Cross, ready for inspection. Together therewith the approved application should be presented. Red Cross representatives are authorized to remove objectionable articles from parcels.

After inspection, the Red Cross will affix their label to the parcels showing that the Red Cross has inspected and passed the same. Shippers will then affix sufficient postage to carry the parcel to its ultimate destination. The parcels are to remain in the custody of the Red Cross until delivered to the postal authorities.

None Accepted After November 20.

No Christmas package will be accepted by the Red Cross for shipment after November 20, 1918.

If the American Red Cross has approved the forwarding of a package under special license RAC-43, and the inspection label of the Red Cross is affixed thereto, it is unnecessary to apply to the War Trade Board for further permission to ship under this license.

Plenty of Prunes Assured For U. S. Soldiers Oversea

The War Department authorizes the following:

The failure of the French prune crop will not affect the supply of the American Expeditionary Forces in France. The Subsistence Division depends upon the prunes grown in the United States for its steady supply. At the present time about 50,000,000 pounds of prunes have been purchased for our fighting forces at home and overseas for the coming year. This is more than twice the quantity of prunes purchased from the 1917 pack. The soldiers of our Army will never have cause to complain of not having enough prunes.

The number of cans of sardines used by the Army for one year is approximately 600,000 at a cost of over $300,000. Sardines are not issued to the troops, but are sold to officers and men at the exact price paid by the Government.

The close of receipt of applications for assistant market milk specialist on November 8 is also announced.

Purchase 175,000,000 Trench Candles for Army

The War Department authorizes the following:

Light in trenches and dugouts in France is furnished by candles. Since April, 1918, 175,000,000 candles have been purchased for the Army by the Subsistence Division. The candles purchased aggregate in weight 15,000 tons and cost over $4,500,000.

The Subsistence Division has just provided enough cigarettes for the Army for the balance of the year. The orders placed aggregate 3,000,000,000 cigarettes. This quantity is large enough to supply approximately two cigarettes for every human being in the world.

PERSHING TELLS OF SALVAGE WORK BEING DONE BY ARMY

Cable to Secretary McAdoo Describes Plants in Operation on and Near Battlefields.

Secretary McAdoo has received the following cablegram from Gen. Pershing:
W. G. McAdoo,

Secretary of the Treasury.

The soldiers of the American Expeditionary Forces are deeply interested in the campaign for economy and avoidance of waste carried on in the United States. You and those serving under you will doubtless be interested in the similar work being done on the battlefields of France and the areas back of the battle line

Salvage Plants Operating.

The salvage service, something entirely new in our Army, was started last January. There are already several salvage plants in operation and more are being organized. The activities of the salvage corps operating them extend from the front lines back through the training camps and lines of communication to every base port. All worn or damaged articles of whatever nature are collected and converted into useful supplies or used in the repair of other articles. Even empty tin cans are collected and the tin and solder salvaged.

Big Saving to Government.

The salvage service is effecting a saving to the Government considerably in excess of $100,000 each day. But the saving in money while of great importance is not the vital part of the work. We are saving material imperatively needed at the front, material that no expenditure of money can immediately replace. We are directly saving ocean tonnage which is seriously needed, every week indirectly releasing labor for service in the shipyards, on the railroads, and in other essential industries in the United States.

Gratitude to Those at Home.

The American Expeditionary Forces express their gratitude to the millions of men, women, and children in America, who are doing without things in order that the war may be more efficiently prosecuted. We consider that those who save are a part of our Army and we want you to know that we, too, are saving. May we not claim the high privilege of becoming a part of your army of savers?

PERSHING.

Secretary McAdoo's Reply.

The Secretary has replied:

Deeply appreciate your cable informing me of the excellent work the Army is doing, under your direction, in preventing waste of materials and in salvaging old materials. This intelligent service is a great contribution to the economic situation and a great aid to the Treasury in its war savings and the thrift campaign. Your example is heartening the American people in the work of saving and economy at home and will produce results of the highest value in every direction.

Make every day a thrift day and help your Government end the war days.

Value of U. S. Public Health Service As a Reserve Organization Indicated By Activities in Influenza Epidemic

The United States Public Health Service authorizes the following statement:

Better than volumes of reasoned arguments, the present epidemic of "Spanish influenza" has shown in concrete form how important it is to have attached to the United States Public Health Service a reserve organization which can be mobilized in times of emergency.

With the widespread occurrence of influenza in the vicinity of Boston, and the unmistakable signs of its beginning elsewhere, urgent calls were addressed to the United States Public Health Service to furnish medical and nursing relief to stricken communities. All available regular officers were detailed to the stricken communities, but the number available for such detail was insignificant compared to the urgent need occasioned by the epidemic. Moreover, the bureau had no nurses available for service in epidemic.

Other Agencies Enlisted.

In this emergency the Surgeon General called upon the Volunteer Medical Service Corps, the Red Cross, the medical and nursing professions as a whole, and on the general public for personnel to help combat the epidemic. At the same time Congress was appealed to for a special appropriation to meet the expenditure required by the emergency. The necessary funds were promptly voted.

In response to the request for physicians available for duty in the Public Health Service, the Volunteer Medical Service Corps compiled a list of over 1,000 names classified by States. Appointments were offered by telegraph to these physicians by the Public Health Service, and within 48 hours groups of physicians were on their way to some of the stricken communities in New England, where the epidemic at that time raged most severely. Soon after, similar medical units were sent to New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, and to Phoenix, Ariz.

Problem of Supplying Nurses.

The problem of supplying nurses was much more difficult, for it was found almost impossible to discover nurses or trained attendants who were not already extremely busy on urgent medical work. Nevertheless, a limited number of nurses and trained attendants was secured by the American Red Cross and mobilized for emergency service in the communities most severely affected. In addition to this the attention of local communities was called to the valuable nursing work which could be rendered by intelligent volunteer workers, such as school teachers, especially when they are directed by trained graduate nurses. In many communities the organization of this group of nursing personnel has done much to relieve the serious emergency caused by the lack of trained nurses.

Aided State Authorities.

It was made clear from the outset that the United States Public Health Service desired to aid and not supplant State and local health authorities in their work. Accordingly, instructions were issued that all requests for medical, nursing, or other emergency aid in dealing with the epidemic should come to the United States Public Health Service only through the State health officer. Moreover, as soon as possible all this epidemic work was organized on State lines with a representative of the United States Public Health Service detailed to each State to secure the best possible organization and coordination of health activities of the service, in others the executive of the State board of health has been given appointment in the United States Public Health Service as field director.

While the activities of the doctors and nurses working under the Public Health Service are generally limited to those ordinarily regarded as preventive health measures, emergency conditions in some communities have been such that much medical relief work has had to be undertaken. This was the case, for example, in several communities where the few physicians were themselves stricken where the people were in urgent need of medical attention.

While the epidemic is subsiding along the Atlantic seaboard, it appears to be increasing in prevalence in the Central States. Physicians and nurses are, therefore, still needed. The latter should apply to their local Red Cross chapter, which will attend to their enrollment and assignment to duty. Physicians who are ready to undertake service in the United States Public Health Service should communicate directly with the bureau representative in their respective States. Address: United States Public Health Officer in charge, care of State board of health, State of -----

Congressman Pou's Son Dies in Seaplane Wreck

Secretary Daniels authorizes the following:

Ensign Edward S. Pou, United States Naval Reserve Force, was killed in a seaplane accident off the coast of France on October 28, according to a cablegram received by the Navy Department from Admiral Sims.

Ensign Pou was the son of Representative Edward W. Pou, of North Carolina, chairman of the Committee on Rules of the House.

The seaplane of which Ensign Pou was first pilot was badly wrecked in collision with a spar buoy when making a landing. The pilot was killed; John Richard Banks, machinist's mate, second class, United States Navy, was injured; and James H. Young, machinist's mate, second class, United States Navy, escaped unhurt. The wreckage took fire, but Young succeeded in putting it out. The condition of the injured seaman is reported as favorable.

LETTER OF PRESIDENT COVERING POWERS AND DUTIES OF FIELD DIVISION, COUNCIL OF DEFENSE

The Field Division of the Council of National Defense authorizes the release of the following letter from the President to Secretary Lane, covering the powers and duties of the new division:

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: I am very glad to hear of the creation of the Field Division of the Council of National Defense, which, by amalgamating the executive functions of the State councils section and the woman's committee of the council, has become the single connecting link between the council and the other Federal departments and administrations on the one hand and the State councils of defense and State divisions of the woman's committee on the other. I have already had occasion more than once to express my warm appreciation of the accomplishments of the State councils and the national organization of the woman's committee. It seems to me that the action which you have now taken, recognizing as it does a policy of joint action and common effort on the part of men and women, is sound in principle and serves the interest of efficiency. It is gratifying to know that this policy has already been followed in a large number of States, and I am sure that you will agree with me that it is worthy of adoption generally throughout the country.

Suggestion to Department Heads.

The existence of the council of defense system, available at all times to the various departments and administrations of the Federal Government for the execution of their war work in the States, makes, of course, for economy of effort and renders unnecessary the creation of much local Federal machinery which otherwise would have to be set up at great expense for the performance of specific tasks. Unquestionably this system should be utilized as far as possible. Will you not, therefore, communicate to the heads of such departments and administrations in Washington my wish that when they are considering extensions of their organizations into a State, or new work to be done in the States, they determine carefully whether they can not make use of the council of defense system, and that they transmit all requests for action by this system through the Field Division of the Council of National Defense?

County and Community Units.

It is likewise apparent that the county and community units of the council of defense system are similarly of great present value and still greater potential value to the State representatives of these Federal departments and administrations. Would it not be advisable also to ask the department heads at Washington to recommend to their State representatives that each of them, in consultation with the State council of defense, should take the fullest advantage of this unique machinery for making contact with the people of the State, both men and women? I should be glad to have you say that such request has my very sincere indorsement and support. The organization of the country for war can attain its maximum

CANNED MILK EXPORT TO CUBA AND THE WEST INDIAN ISLANDS

The War Trade Board announces in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 298) that applications will now be considered for licenses to export evaporated and other unsweetened canned milk to Cuba and the British and French West Indies when submitted in accordance with the following procedure, which is made necessary because of the limited quantity of such commodity available for export:

1. Applications for licenses to export to the British and French West Indian colonies will be considered only when accompanied by import licenses issued by the food control committee of the colony of destination. The food control committees of these colonies have been notified of the quantity of evaporated and other unsweetened canned milk which may be exported each month to these destinations, and will accordingly issue import licenses only up to these quantities.

Export of Canned Milk.

2. Applications for licenses to export canned milk to Cuba will be considered only when submitted by exporters who made shipments of this commodity to the Cuban market in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917. The War Trade Board already possess a full record of such shipments.

The above regulations do not apply to shipments directly consigned for the maintenance of the employees of sugar and mining companies. Applications for such shipments must be accompanied as heretofore by formal recommendation issued by the War Trade Board's representative in Habana.

Whenever practicable, exporters to Cuba will be informed, in advance of filing their applications, of the quantity for which they may receive export licenses. This will enable them to apportion their allotment among their various customers, and care should be taken that the immediate requirements of customers are not exceeded.

Shipments in November.

Applications for shipments to Cuba which are to be made in November may be submitted at once, but hereafter applications should be filed with the War Trade Board on or before the 20th of the month preceding that in which shipment is desired to be made.

If exporters file more than one application they should notify the War Trade Board, Bureau of Exports, reference 323-X, whether, in the event that only a portion of the quantity for which application is made can be licensed, they desire that all of their applications be reduced proportionately or whether any particular application should have preference. Applications from each exporter will otherwise be acted upon in the order of their receipt.

effectiveness only if we all of us utilize to the utmost the resources we have in common.

Cordially and sincerely, yours,

(Signed) WOODROW WILSON.

HON. FRANKLIN K. LANE,
Secretary of the Interior.

TYPES OF NONWAR CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS WHICH, IT SO HELD, CAN MOST EASILY BE POSTPONED

B. M. Baruch, chairman of the War Industries Board, authorizes the following:

The War Industries Board, through D. R. McLennan, chairman of the Nonwar Construction Division, has made public a list of 18 types of nonwar construction projects, which, in its opinion, can most easily be postponed for the period of the war.

At the same time a circular and letter was dispatched to each of the State councils of defense, which are charged with the duty of passing on all local applications for new construction, urging each to exercise the utmost care in not approving any but the most urgently needed projects.

No Slackening In War Industries.

It is imperative that there should be not the slightest slackening in the work of war industries. There is such a serious shortage in labor and iron and steel that great curtailment of new construction is necessary in order that the bare needs of our war requirements may be met. Regardless of the power the War Industries Board possesses through its control of materials, it feels that the patriotic voluntary cooperation of the public in this curtailment is assured.

Following, in the opinion of the board, are some of the projects which can not be regarded in the light of war requirements and should be deferred: Park improvements, sidewalks, moving-picture houses, theaters and other amusement places, public buildings, garages, gasoline stations, etc., bank buildings, commercial enterprises and store buildings, hotels, office buildings, nonwar factories, mills, etc., apartment buildings, churches, schools, sewerage systems, grain elevators, gas and electric light plants, water-works improvements.

All Plans Reviewed Here.

Under the plan in operation by the War Industries Board, all applications for new nonwar construction are made to the State councils of defense and, if recommended favorably, are sent to the nonwar construction section of the War Industries Board, Washington, for review.

Under a new ruling, reference to Washington will not be required in the case of new construction or extensions the cost of which is not over $500, when same are approved in writing by the State councils of defense.

New farm buildings to cost not exceeding $1,000 do not require a license.

In a circular letter to State councils the War Industries Board states that "so acute is the need of labor in war industries that even though the most pressing local requirement seem to demand further building we know the people will find some way to meet their present requirements and cheerfully postpone new projects for the present."

These necessary restrictions will be modified as soon as war conditions permit.

Keep Bulletin Posted In All U. S. Post Offices

Reports having been made that at some post offices THE OFFICIAL U. S. BULLETIN is not being posted regularly for public reading in accordance with Postmaster General Burleson's orders, postmasters are again reminded of this important duty. It should be remembered that THE BULLETIN is the only publication available to all sections of the country that prints daily the complete and correct casualty lists from our armies overseas exactly as they are issued by the War Department. Many newspapers print only the lists having local interest in their own territory. THE BULLETIN prints every name and address, thus making it a certain means of informing friends and relatives, wherever they may be, of the fate of a soldier or sailor, no matter where his home town or city.

Postmasters are urged, aside from their duty as officials, to make it their patriotic and personal duty to see that the public has the fullest benefit of this privilege.

The Postmaster General's order follows:

All postmasters are directed to post THE OFFICIAL U. S. BULLETIN daily in a conspicuous place in the lobby or other portion of their respective post-office buildings where the public can read it; and, without expense to the Government, each and every postmaster is earnestly urged to see that this BULLETIN is made available to as many people as possible in the manner suggested.

The United States Railroad Administration issues the following:

OCTOBER 28, 1918.

SUPPLEMENT No. 6-A TO GENERAL ORDER No. 27.

Supplement No. 6 to General Order No. 27 is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

Where differences of opinion arise necessitating a formal interpretation of any wage order issued by the Director General and where the question involved is of general application and covers a large number of railroads, application for such interpretation may be made either by a regional director or by the chief executive of the railroad organization representing the class of employees involved or the chairman of any railway board of adjustment or the director of the division of labor. Such application shall be sent to the office of the director of labor and he will record and transmit it to the board of railroad wages and working conditions, which will promptly investigate and make recommendation to the director general. Upon the receipt of interpretation from the Director General the director of labor will send such interpretation to the railway boards of adjustment for their information and guidance.

Director General of Railroads.

COPIES OF PUBLICATIONS FREE FOR AMERICAN CONSULAR FILES

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
THIRD ASST. POSTMASTER GEN.,
Washington, October 10, 1918.
Division of Classification.
Hon. WILLIAM PHILLIPS,
Assistant Secretary of State,
Washington, D. C.

SIR: In answer to your letter of the 7th instant, which the Postmaster General has referred to me, File TA-164/324, submitting a copy of dispatch No. 1157, dated August 28, 1918, from the American consular agent at Sydney, Australia, I have to say that so far as this department is concerned, there is no objection to the publishers of publications admitted to the second class of mail matter furnishing a few copies of their publications free for the files of American consular officers, who use the copies in connection with their work.

In this connection, however, you are advised that the War Industries Board, to conserve paper, has suggested to the publishers of periodical publications that they eliminate, if possible, the following:

"Giving free copies—except for actual services rendered; except to camp libraries and huts of organizations recognized by the Government, such as the Y. M. C. A., K. of C., etc.; except to the Library of Congress and other libraries which will agree to bind for permanent keeping; except to Government departmental libraries which use said periodicals in their work, and except for similar reasons."

This ruling will be found in the issue of the OFFICIAL U. S. BULLETIN for August 27, 1918.

Yours very truly,
A. M. DOCKERY,
Third Assistant Postmaster General.

WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD,
Washington, October 24, 1918.

B. M. BARUCH, Chairman.
SECOND ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE,
Department of State,
Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR: Referring to your letter of October 21 (TA-023.134), will say that the regulations of this department were never intended to interfere with the receipt by American consular officers of free copies of any publications which they might desire.

We beg that you will make use of this statement in the case of any publication which should hesitate to send such free copies on the grounds that this board has discouraged such practice.

Yours very truly,
C. T. Root,
Chief, Periodical Section, Pulp and Paper Division.

NEW BUILDINGS AT COLUMBUS, GA.

Work will be begun at once by the construction division of the Army on the erection of buildings for the "Infantry School of Arms" at Columbus, Ga.

It has been decided to provide accommodations for 25,000 men. There will be the usual style of barracks, in addition to hospital facilities and general utility buildings.

30,000 NURSES ENROLLED BY RED CROSS; MORE NEEDED

In a report just issued the American Red Cross war council states that 30,000 nurses have been enrolled by the department of nursing of the Red Cross to October 1. More than 17,000 of these are serving soldiers and sailors, half of this number already being on duty overseas. About 16,000 of those in service with our forces here and abroad are with the Army. Seven hundred nurses, women, have been assigned to the Federal Public Health Bureau or to the Red Cross service in the United States, and the remaining 12,000 include those not available or eligible for active service, but who may be utilized for home defense work.

9,000 More Needed for Army Alone.

About 9,000 additional nurses will be needed by the Army alone before the first of the year, according to the report. Should the war continue on its present scale, it is estimated that the total number of nurses required in the military hospitals here and abroad by next July will be 50,000. These estimates, the report states, are based on an Army of 3,000,000 and a Navy of 350,000, or approximately 1 nurse to each 74 of the military and naval population.

To meet the nursing requirements of the coming year a campaign will soon be inaugurated in which each State will receive an allotment, a duplication of the plan by which thousands of nurses were enrolled during the past summer. The department of nursing of the Red Cross is the reserve for the Army and Navy Nurse Corps.

Nearly Million for Equipment.

The Red Cross has spent about $850,000 in equipping nurses assigned to duty abroad. Approximately $1,500,000 of an appropriation of $1,719,357 has been expended in equipping base hospital units. The organization has equipped 50 of these units and assisted the Army Nurse Corps in organizing two others for the Army since our entrance into the war.

For the Navy it has organized or is completing the organization of 8 base hospital and 17 naval station hospital units. Each base hospital unit has 500 beds and 60 nurses. Originally planned to cost about $35,000, they now cost about $50,000. In addition to its war service, the Red Cross department of nursing is continuing its regular health work in this country. It is supplying nurses at points where contagious diseases appear to be making headway, its most recent activity along this line being its effort to combat the spread of Spanish influenza.

ARMY HOSPITALS FOR 50,000 IN U. S. OUTSIDE OF CAMPS

The War Department authorizes the following statement from the office of the Surgeon General:

Hospital facilities to care for 19,200 men have been procured by the hospital division of the Medical Corps during the past month. This brings the hospital facilities, outside of camps and cantonments, up to 50,000, or about one-third of the estimated need of the Army for the coming 18 months.

The new hospitals were secured at a lower average cost per bed than had previously been obtained. This is the result of several gifts of splendid groups of buildings by patriotic communities and individuals.

New Policy of Department.

Under the new policy of the Medical Department efforts are made to secure existing buildings for hospitals, thereby increasing more rapidly the desired facilities and at the same time avoiding the erection of new buildings at a time when labor and materials are very scarce. To make the new buildings ready for Army hospital purposes alterations costing approximately $995,000 will have to be made.

Of the 12 new sites, 6 were offered to the Government free of all rent for the duration of the war and as long afterwards as necessary. The other 6 were rented at less than the normal figure for such properties.

The largest hospital secured during the past four weeks was in St. Louis, Mo. Through the joint efforts of the mayor, the welfare director, and the city council, the St. Louis Sanatorium was tendered to the Government. This is one of the finest buildings of its class in the country and will provide facilities for the caring of 3,000 patients.

In point of size and equipment the Ohio State Hospital for the Criminal Insane is the next largest secured. This institution is located at Lima and is regarded as among the finest types of State hospitals in America. It is of recent construction and practically no money will have to be spent to fit it up for Army hospital purposes. There are facilities for 2,500 patients. The use of the buildings is a gift to the Government from the State of Ohio. Three other hospitals, each of 1,000 or more beds, were secured in Ohio. They are located in Cleveland, Columbus, and Cincinnati.

The plans of the hospital division call for the securing of at least 5,000 new beds per month. Efforts will be made to secure these facilities without the erection of new buildings. Wherever possible hospitals and institutions will be secured for the Army hospital needs.

HOUSING CONTRACT LET.

The Department of Labor authorizes the following:

Contract for the erection of 11 convertible dormitories for women and alterations and changes to buildings to be used for recreation halls and canteen at Mars Hill, Indianapolis, Ind., project No. 1314, was on October 29, 1918, awarded to John A. Schumacker Co., Indianapolis, Ind. Contract was let on lump-sum basis.
