ORDER ISSUED BY PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL ANNULS DRAFT CALLS FOR ARMY; ENTRAINMENTS STOPPED

NAVY AND THE MARINE CORPS NOT AFFECTED

All Registrants whose Induction Orders Are Canceled Revert to Status Existing at the Time of Issuing Original Order—Liable for Immediate Call in Usual Manner at Any Time.

The War Department authorizes the following from the office of the Provost Marshal General:

Pending developments in the situation which arises because of the fact that Germany has signed an armistice providing for the cessation of hostilities, the President directs that all general and voluntary special calls now outstanding for the induction and mobilization of registrants of whatever color or physical qualifications for the Army, be, and the same are, hereby canceled. Pending further instructions, no more inductions shall be made into the Army, nor entrainment permitted or undertaken, under such calls. Local boards will immediately cancel and recall all induction orders—namely, Form 1028—which have been issued for induction into the Army under such calls, and shall cancel all entries made in column 24 of the classification list in connection with such calls by drawing a red-ink line through such entry except where the order issued or entry was made as to registrants already entrained, or who have become deserters when this order reaches the local board, as to all of whom the record shall remain as it stands; they shall make record of such cancellations by appropriate entry in column 29 of the classification list; they shall notify such cancellation and recall to every registrant to whom such order has been issued or opposite whose name in column 24 of the classification list has been entered the day and hour from and after which he shall be in the military service; and they shall give such notice to each such registrant by letter, telegram, or orally, or by two or all of such means, as circumstances require, that his induction order has been

ALL SUNDAY AND OVERTIME WORK IN WAR PLANTS ORDERED HALTED

The following is authorized by the Secretary of War:

At a meeting this morning, attended by the Secretary of the Navy, the chairman of the Shipping Board, and the Secretary of War, it was decided, in view of the signature of the armistice, to issue immediate directions to cut out all Sunday work and overtime in Government construction and in Government-owned or controlled plants and plants producing war supplies.

The readjustment of the labor and industry of the country which has been occupied in war work will be undertaken in conference with the Department of Labor and the War Industries Board, with a view to bringing about the readjustment with the least dislocation of labor and the greatest facility possible to be afforded for the reestablishment of industry. It is clear that there is work enough in the United States for all the labor in the country. Many Government activities, like the shipbuilding industry, will continue uninterrupted; others will be gradually readjusted. Meantime, those who are employed by the Government or working on the production of Government supplies should continue at their occupations.

DIRECTOR GENERAL M'ADOO URGES RAIL TELEGRAPHERS NOT TO GO OUT ON STRIKE

CONSIDERING WAGE QUESTION

Impossible to Reach a Decision by November 14, He Says, and Advises All Patriotic Men to Stick to Their Posts—Will Act Soon.

Director General of Railroads McAdoo has issued the following statement to the railroad telegraphers:

"I regret to learn that efforts are being made by some persons to induce telegraphers in the railroad service of the United States in certain sections of the country to strike on November 14, unless the Director General makes a decision before that date on the request of the telegraphers for increased wages.

"I can not believe that genuinely patriotic men will listen for a moment to advice from anyone to strike against the Government of the United States. All employees of the railroads are now in the service of the Government, and never in

PROVISIONS FOR CANCELING WAR CONTRACTS OUTLINED IN A MEMORANDUM ISSUED BY GENERAL G. W. GOETHALS

HOW CONTRACTORS WILL BE PROTECTED

*War Industries Board Calls Attention to the Arrangements Set Forth in Supply
Circulars—Worked Out with Considerable Care.
Termination of Contracts in the Public Interest.*

B. M. Baruch, chairman of the War Industries Board, authorizes the following:

The War Industries Board desires to call attention to the following memorandum issued by Maj. Gen. George W. Goethals, Assistant Chief of Staff and director of purchase, storage, and traffic, regarding arrangements that have been devised for the termination of war contracts in the public interest where such termination is found necessary:

1. Standard contracts provisions on "Cancellation and Termination before Completion."

After very careful consideration, the superior board of contract review approved, and the director of purchase, storage, and traffic issued, Supply Circular No. 88, dated September 7, 1918, containing standard contract provisions, including provisions on "cancellation and termination before completion."

These provisions cover cancellation for contractor's default, termination in the public interest, assignment of sub-contracts, and taking possession of contractor's plant.

Referring particularly to termination in the public interest, Supply Circular No. 88 establishes definitely the payments to be made by the United States in the event of such termination, for articles completely manufactured at the time, and for raw materials, articles in process of manufacture, and the contractor's outstanding obligations incurred in good faith in connection with the performance of the contract. Provision is also made for payment by the United States to the contractors of a fair amount on account of depreciation or amortization of plants, facilities, and equipment provided by the contractor for the performance of his contract.

In return, the United States is released from its obligation to take the remaining articles, not manufactured, specified in the contract and to pay anticipated profits to the contractor on the unfinished portions of the contract.

The contract provisions have been worked out with considerable care to meet the situations presented both by fixed-price contracts and cost-plus contracts. The provisions applicable to fixed-price contracts are found on pages 5 to 8, inclusive, of Supply Circular No. 88, and the provisions applicable to cost-plus contracts are found on pages 17 and 18 of this supply circular.

2. Contracts not providing for termination in public interest.

A large number of contracts now outstanding do not specifically provide for termination in the public interest. If it becomes necessary to terminate such contracts in the public interest, it is assumed that the parties will generally desire to adjust their rights on the basis of the equitable principles established by the contract provisions contained in Supply Circular No. 88 referred to above.

3. Contracts providing for continuing deliveries.

Supply Circular No. 97 sets forth contract provisions applicable to contracts providing for continuing deliveries, including provisions for termination of the contract in the public interest. These provisions apply directly to contracts executed under the provisions of Supply Circular No. 97, and it is assumed that the parties will desire to use them in connection with the termination of analogous contracts providing for continuing deliveries even though they do not contain specific provision on the subject of termination in the public interest.

4. Board of Contract Adjustment.

In order that questions arising under the contract may be promptly and fairly settled there has been created a board of contract adjustment.

Supply Circular No. 88 contains on page 12 provisions on "Adjustment of claims and disputes," providing, in effect, that any claims, doubts, or disputes which may arise under the contract and which are not disposed of by mutual agreement may be determined by petition of the contractor to the Secretary of War or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

In order to adjust such claims, doubts, or disputes as may be thus referred to the Secretary of War, and also other claims, doubts, or disputes which the contractor may desire to refer directly to the board, a general order has been issued creating the board of contract adjustments and defining its powers and duties. This board will consist of three members having the rank of lieutenant colonel, and will conduct hearings, appoint examiners, and reach decisions promptly and on principles of equity without the delays and technicalities which frequently attend litigation in the courts.

If a contractor is dissatisfied with the decision of this board, he may appeal to the Secretary of War.

It is assumed that in most instances contractors will be satisfied with the decisions thus rendered and will not find it necessary to avail themselves of their right to resort to the Court of Claims.

PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL ISSUES ORDER STOPPING CLASSIFICATION OF DRAFT MEN WHO ARE BETWEEN THE AGES OF 37 AND 46

The War Department authorizes the following from the office of the Provost Marshal General:

Congratulating them personally upon their "truly great achievements" of the past year and a half, and bespeaking of them "the same interest and tireless energy" which has characterized their work in the past, Provost Marshal General Crowder Monday afternoon transmitted to the members of the Selective Service System throughout the country an order from the Secretary of War directing discontinuance of all work connected with the classification of registrants of September 12, 1918, who had at that time attained their thirty-seventh birthday and had not attained their forty-sixth birthday. The order transmitted by Gen. Crowder to the local boards and others of the Selective Service System, which, under his direction, has raised the victorious American Army, further directed the continuation in as expeditious a manner as possible of classification of September 12 registrants between 19 and 36 inclusive, and issuance at the earliest appropriate moment of questionnaires to the registrants between 18 and 19 years of age. Classification of these youthful registrants was also directed to proceed.

The Order and Message.

The order and message to the members of the Selective Service System issued by General Crowder was as follows:

"The Secretary of War has today issued the following order to the Provost Marshal General:

"You will at once instruct State headquarters and local and district boards immediately to discontinue all work connected with the classification of men who on September 12, 1918, had attained their thirty-seventh and had not attained their forty-sixth birthday. You will further instruct said boards to continue to completion as expeditiously as possible the classification of all registrants who on September 12, 1918, had obtained their nineteenth and had not attained their thirty-seventh birthday. You will, finally, at the earliest appropriate moment, direct all local and district boards to issue questionnaires to all registrants who on September 12, 1918, had attained their eighteenth and had not attained their nineteenth birthday, and to proceed with and complete as early as possible the classification of such registrants."

Further Orders Later.

"Further orders will be issued later covering the matter of sending questionnaires to and classifying 18-year old registrants.

"In entering, pursuant to the foregoing instructions, upon what seems, in view of the mighty events of the day, to be the final work of this character to be done by the selective service system, I extend to the members of that system my personal congratulations upon their truly great achievements of the past year and a half—achievements that have taxed to the utmost the time, the ability, and the endurance of all those engaged in the work, and that have furnished the Army to which in large measure must be given the credit for saving to the world both civilization and government by the people. To you, members of that system, must come a sense of duty well done which a loyalty, patriotism, and devotion such as yours can bring. The country and the world knows that it owes to you a debt of thanks and gratitude which can not be measured by words but only by the affection, the respect, and the esteem, now yours, of those among whom you live and from whom you have taken that which was beyond price.

"In undertaking the completion of your work under the orders above given, I bespeak of you the same interest and tireless energy which has characterized your work in the past."

APPEALS TO TELEGRAPHERS.

the history of the United States have its employees struck against their Government. It is impossible for the Director General to render a decision on the telegraphers' claims on or before November 14. The case is under consideration and will be decided at the earliest possible moment. A grave mistake will be made if any body of employees should quit their posts. It is just as essential now to keep a continuous flow of supplies to our soldiers and sailors in France as it was while the war was actually raging.

Asks All to Stay at Posts.

"I earnestly request each patriotic employee to remember his duty to his Government and to remain at his post and await with confidence the action of the Extension of Licenses For the S. S. "Ysseldyk"

The War Trade Board announces, in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 316), that import licenses heretofore issued, covering importations from the Dutch East Indies on the Dutch steamship Ysseldyk, may be extended, notwithstanding the fact that such licenses cover commodities which have been restricted since the issuance of the licenses. No new licenses will be issued.

Director General, which will be taken at the earliest possible moment. In this hour of glorious triumph for world democracy, let us not fail to do our part by standing to our posts as our soldiers and sailors have so gallantly stood to theirs."

Food Administration to Continue Functions Under New Economic Era, Says Mr. Hoover, Reviewing the Past

STILL MUST HELP WORLD

No Decrease Probable in Volume of Commodities U. S. Must Furnish, But a Change in Articles Expected — Immediate Effect on Prices Is Difficult to Anticipate. Maintenance of Embargo to Prevent Depletion of U. S. Stocks.

The following statement was made to the newspaper men by Food Administrator Hoover at their regular weekly conference with him Monday afternoon, November 11:

With the war effectually over we enter a new economic era and its immediate effect on prices is difficult to anticipate. The maintenance of the embargo will prevent depletion of our stocks by hungry Europe to any point below our necessities and anyone who contemplates speculation in food against the needs of these people can well be warned of the prompt action of the Government. The prices of some food commodities may increase, but others will decrease because, with liberated shipping, accumulated stocks in the southern hemisphere and the Far East will be available. The demands upon the United States will change in character, but not in volume.

Course of Food Prices.

The course of food prices in the United States during the last 15 months is of interest. In general, for the first 12 months of the Food Administration the prices to the farmer increased, but decreased to the consumer by the elimination of profiteering and speculation. Due to increases in wages, transportation, etc., the prices have been increasing during the last 4 months.

The currents which affect food prices in the United States are much less controlled than in the other countries at war. The powers of the Food Administration in these matters extend:

First, to the control of profits by manufacturers, wholesalers, and dealers, and the control of speculation in foodstuffs. They do not extend to the control of the great majority of retailers, to public eating places or the farmer, except so far as this can be accomplished on a voluntary basis.

Controlled Buying for Allies.

Second, the controlled buying for the allied civil populations and armies, the neutrals, and the American Army and Navy, dominates the market in certain commodities at all times, and in other commodities part of the time. In these cases it is possible to effect in cooperation with producers and manufacturers, a certain amount of stability in price. I have never favored attempts to fix maximum prices by law; the universal history of these devices in Europe has been that they worked against the true interests of both producer and consumer.

The course of prices during the first year of the Food Administration—that is, practically the period ending July 1, 1918, is clearly shown by the price indexes of the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Labor. Taking 1913 prices as the basis, the average prices of farm produce for the three months ending July 1, 1917, were, according to the Department of Agriculture's price index, 115 per cent more than the average of 1913 prices, and, according to the Department of Labor index, it was 91 per cent over 1913 prices. The two departments use somewhat different bases of calculation.

Average of Farmers' Prices.

The average of farmers' prices one year later—that is, the three months ending July 1, 1918, was, according to the Department of Agriculture indexes, 127 per cent over the 1913 basis and, according to the Department of Labor index was 114 per cent over the 1913 average. Thus farm prices increased 12 per cent on the Department of Agriculture calculations and 23 per cent upon the Department of Labor basis.

An examination of wholesale prices—that is, of prepared foods—shows a different story.

The Department of Agriculture does not maintain an index of wholesale prices, but the Department of Labor does, and this index shows a decrease in wholesale prices from 87 per cent over 1913 basis to 79 per cent over the 1913 basis for the three months ending July 1, 1917, and July 1, 1918, respectively. The Food Administration price index of wholesale prices calculated upon still another basis shows a decrease of from 84 per cent to 80 per cent between these periods one year apart.

Thus all indexes show an increase in farmers' prices and a decrease in wholesale prices of food during the year ending July 1, 1918. In other words, a great reduction took place in middlemen's charges, amounting to between 15 and 30 per cent, depending upon the basis of calculation adopted. These decreases have come out of the elimination of speculation and profiteering.

Course of Retail Prices.

The course of retail prices corroborate these results also. Since October, 1917, the Food Administration has had the services of 2,500 weekly, voluntary retail-price reporters throughout the United States. These combined reports show that the combined prices per unit of 24 most important foodstuffs were $6.62 in October, 1917. The same quantities and commodities could be bought for $6.55 average for the spring quarter, 1918—that is, a small drop had taken place. During this same period of quarters ending July 1, 1917, to July 1, 1918, the prices of clothing rose from 74 to 136 per cent over 1913, or a rise of about 62 per cent, according to the Department of Labor indexes.

Since the spring quarter, ending July 1, 1918, there has been a rise in prices—the Department of Agriculture index for September showing that farm price averages were 138 per cent over the 1913 basis, and the Department of Labor index showing 136 per cent, or a rise from the average of the spring quarter this year of 11 and 22 per cent, respectively, to the farmer. The wholesale price index of the Department of Labor shows a rise from 79 per cent average of the spring quarter, 1918, to 99 per cent for September, or a rise of 20 per cent. The Food Administration wholesale index shows an increase from 80 to 100 per cent, or 20 per cent for the same period.

In October, 1918, the Food Administration retail price reports show that the retail cost of the same quantity of the 24 principal foodstuffs was $7.53, against an average of $6.55 for the spring quarter, 1918, or a rise of about 18 per cent.

It is obvious enough that prices have risen during the last three months both to the farmer and to the wholesaler and retailer. On the other hand, these rising prices, have only kept pace with the farmers' prices.

Adverse to the Consumer.

Since the 1st of July this year many economic forces have caused a situation adverse to the consumer. There has been a steady increase in wages, a steady increase in cost of the materials which go into food production and manufacture, and in containers and supplies of all kinds. There has been an increase of 25 per cent in freight rates. The rents of the country are increasing, and therefore costs of manufacturing, distribution, and transportation are steadily increasing and should inevitably affect prices. The public should distinguish between a rise in prices and profiteering, for with increasing prices to the farmer—who is himself paying higher wages and cost—and with higher wages and transport, prices simply must rise. An example of what this may come to can be shown in the matter of flour. The increased cost of transportation from the wheat-producing regions to New York City amounts to about 40 cents per barrel. The increased cost of cotton bags during the last 14 months amounts to 30 cents per barrel of flour. The increase in wholesalers' costs of drayage, rents, etc., amounts to 10 cents, or a total of 80 cents, without including the increased costs of the miller or retailer.

Not Classed as "Profiteering."

Such changes do not come under the category of profiteering. They are the necessary changes involved by the economic differences in the situation. We can not "have our cake and eat it." In other words we can not raise wages, railway rates, expand our credits and currency, and hope to maintain the same level of prices of foods. All that the Food Administration can do is to see, as far as is humanly possible, that these alterations take place without speculation or profiteering and that such readjustments are conducted in an orderly manner. Even though it were in the power of the Food Administration to repress prices, the effect of maintaining the same price level in the face of such increases in costs of manufacture, transportation, and distribution, would be to ultimately curtail production itself. We are in a period of inflation, and we can not avoid the results.

PRUSSIAN MILITARISM ENDED, DECLARES SECRETARY LANSING

Secretary of State Lansing yesterday issued the following:

The American people can rejoice that their patriotism, their loyalty, and their splendid spirit of service and sacrifice have been rewarded. Prussian militarism is ended; it no longer menaces liberty and justice. But before us lie new tasks and new burdens which we must assume with the same unity of purpose, the same devotion and zeal as have characterized the Republic during this great war. Let us, while we celebrate this day of victory, look forward to the future conscious of our supreme duty to humanity and confidence in the united will of the Nation.

ASK ENEMY PATENT LICENSES.

Two new applications for enemy patent licenses have been filed with the Federal Trade Commission.

The Rector Chemical Co., New York City, has applied for use of a patent granted in 1905 to a German assignor to the firm of E. Merck, of Darmstadt, Germany, on "C-C-Dialkyl-barbituric acid and processes for making same."

The Ault & Wiborg Co., Cincinnati, has asked for a license to use a patent granted in 1903 to German assignors to the firm of Actien-Gesellschaft Für Anilin Fabrikation, of Berlin, Germany, on "Red Azo Lake" (dyes).

The commission is investigating the merits of both applications.

ORDER TURNS BACK DRAFT MEN WHO WERE EN ROUTE TO CAMPS

Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder Supplements Instructions to Stop All Army Inductions.

The War Department authorizes the following from the office of the Provost Marshal General:

Supplementing his order of Monday morning canceling all the general and voluntary special calls outstanding for the induction and mobilization of registrants of whatever color or physical qualification, Provost Marshal General Crowder issued an order to include all individual inductions for the Army. It was specifically stated that the cancellation does not affect any inductions into the Navy or Marine Corps. These inductions and entrainments will proceed as ordered.

Entrained Men Turned Back.

The supplemental order of the Provost Marshal General announced that the United States Railroad Administration has been directed to stop en route all inducted men already entrained who have not been delivered to an Army mobilization camp under the calls included in his cancellation order of Monday morning. The men included in the original and supplemental order are to be at once returned to the point of entrainment, and will immediately upon arrival at the original point of entrainment be discharged from the Army. Issuance of formal papers of discharge will be determined later, at which time claims for adjustment of pay and allowances will be passed upon.

Return to Original Status.

Registrants whose induction orders are canceled or who are discharged by the supplemental order will revert to the status existing at the time the original induction order was issued, this to include resumption of their order and serial number.

It is specifically announced that nothing in the cancellation of the calls shall operate to relieve from the consequences of his acts any registrant who has heretofore become delinquent or deserter.

Special Entrance for Use Of Public to Navy Bureau Of Supplies and Accounts

A special entrance for the use of the public is maintained by the NAVY (Bureau of Supplies and Accounts) in the new building at 17th and B Streets, N.W. This entrance is located on 17th Street near the southern end of the first wing. All persons are free to go and come without passes, and every facility is afforded those seeking information.

CARGO SHIPMENTS TO FRANCE TO CONTINUE, SAYS MR. BAKER

Troops Now Loading for Europe Largely Medical Personnel—Work on War Plants.

Press interview by the Secretary of War, November 11, 1918.

"Cargo shipments will, of course, continue. Our Army being in France, it is of course necessary for us to maintain it, and cargo shipments will go on without cessation of any sort.

"Troops which are now loading to be sent to Europe are largely medical personnel and troops of that sort."

Work on War Plants.

With reference to the continuance of work on large plants producing war supplies, etc., Secretary Baker replied, in answer to a query:

"Some of the projects are for permanent use and some are only temporary; the permanent ones will go on, and the temporary ones will be gradually stopped."

The Secretary read a telegram received from the employees of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, as follows:

"The employees of the Philadelphia Navy Yard extend congratulations for the world-wide victory for democracy."

Status of Army After War.

In answer to a question as to the status of the Army after the war, the Secretary said:

"Undoubtedly comprehensive legislation will be necessary, in view of the fact that the legislation as it now stands terminates all terms of enlistment at a fixed period after the declaration of peace, and it will be necessary to have congressional legislation to determine the permanent Military Establishment. The department has at present, however, no intention to present its views on that subject."

URGES NO LET-UP IN SUPPLY OF NUT HUSKS FOR GAS MASKS

The Food Administration issues the following:

The Army says there must be no let-up in the collection of fruit pits and nut shells for conversion into carbon for gas masks. Regardless of the date that an armistice may be signed, according to information received from headquarters of the Chemical Warfare Service, United States Army, the need for this carbon will continue. A large number of masks must be manufactured regardless of when peace is signed, and orders have been received to collect large reserve stocks of carbon materials.

It is urged that all materials which have been collected be assembled and shipped at the earliest possible date, and officials urge that collections continue indefinitely. Collection centers have been notified of this fact.

According to present plans a Gas Mask Day will be observed in every State of the Union.

WORK OF CONGRESS BRIEFLY TOLD

The House adjourned immediately yesterday after the joint session with the Senate, at which the President read the armistice terms accepted by Germany, and notified the country that the war was at an end. The Senate reconvened and indulged in a brief discussion of the subject of economy in future appropriations, in which Senators Borah and Smoot participated. They urged the curtailment of the war program as far as possible in view of the events of the past week.

The Finance Committee resumed its consideration of the war revenue bill, and was advised by Treasury experts, to whom the previous action of the committee had been submitted for tabulation, that the contemplated $8,000,000,000 carried in the bill as it passed the House had been reduced to around $6,500,000,000 by the committee's amendments made thus far.

Later in the afternoon Senator Simmons, chairman of the committee, had a conference with Secretary McAdoo. The committee yesterday agreed tentatively to an amendment that will reduce the income from life-insurance taxes. The amendment increases the life insurance company deduction allowances from 3½ to 4 per cent of their legal reserves.

RESERVATION FOR A CABLE LINE FOR THE SIGNAL CORPS

EXECUTIVE ORDER.

By virtue of the power and authority vested in and conferred upon me by the laws of the United States in that behalf made and provided, it is hereby ordered that the tract of land hereinafter described be, and the same is hereby, withdrawn from settlement, location, sale, entry, or other disposition, and reserved and set aside for the use of the War Department as a Signal Corps cable line, subject to the proper use of said tract for street purposes within the limits of any town site:

A tract 150 feet wide on either side of the following described line for the first 400 feet from the point of beginning, and 25 feet on either side thereof for the remainder of the distance: Beginning at a point on Frederick Street, Mirkof Island, whence the Red Light Blinker, in latitude 56° 49' N. and longitude 132° 56' W., bears northwest 2,700 feet; extending thence S. 65° 21' W., 6,500 feet to the intersection of Seventh and E Streets, Petersburg town site; thence west, following the middle of E Street, 1,825 feet to the intersection of Main and E Streets on the shore of Wrangell Narrows.

METRIC SYSTEM USE ADVISED BY INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION

This statement has been issued from the Treasury Department:

More extensive use of the metric system in the trade and commerce of the United States is recommended in a resolution adopted by the United States section of the International High Commission, of which Secretary McAdoo is chairman.

The commission has regarded this subject as of particular importance in the United States. It is, of course, unnecessary for the United States section to recommend to the Latin-American sections of the commission anything in connection with the metric system, which is exclusively in use throughout Latin America. One of the main obstacles to documentary uniformity as between the United States and Latin America is to be found in the fact that the United States does not make the use of the metric system obligatory, and consequently its consular documents have to allow the use of that system merely as optional. Any uniform system of classifying merchandise, however, will require on the part of the United States thoroughgoing and complete adherence to the metric system.

Useful in Trade.

Of more importance than statistical and administrative questions is the use of the metric system in trade. Now that the United States is obviously being drawn into closer and more vital commercial relations by the rest of the world, and particularly with Latin America, our manufacturers and exporters will be obliged to meet the demands of their prospective customers in a somewhat more accommodating frame of mind than hitherto. Only the English-speaking nations still have to adopt the metric system of weights and measures, and among them the British Empire, or at least Great Britain, seems to be giving serious consideration to the necessity of making a change. Those who read the Commerce Reports of the United States Department of Commerce know how numerous are the opportunities necessarily allowed to pass by because of our inability to supply goods and machinery constructed in accordance with the metric system. The subject has now assumed a most practical character in the minds of those who are planning for post-war trade expansion.

Text of Resolution.

The resolution adopted by the commission is as follows:

"The United States section of the International High Commission, having in view the present efforts to bring about the exclusive use of the metric system of weights and measures within the jurisdiction of the United States, resolves:

"I. That in the opinion of the section the adoption of that system would be productive of great advantage in the commercial relations of the United States with the other American Republics.

"II. That the Secretary of the section be directed to communicate a copy of this resolution to the chairman of the proper committees of the Senate and the House of Representatives."

DRAFT CALLS ARE CANCELED

canceled. Proper proof of the issuing of such orders of cancellation and recall as to each registrant must be preserved by retention of copies thereof and by appropriate notations in column 29 of the classification list.

In respect of all registrants included under the aforesaid calls, the issuance of such order of cancellation and recall or the appropriate notation in column 29 of the classification list of the fact of such issuance shall render null and void all such orders, Form 1028, and also all entries in column 24 of the classification list in respect to such registrants, where the day and hour named in such order or said column have not yet arrived.

The President further directs that all registrants who are already inducted into the Army under these calls because of the fact that the day and hour specified in Form 1028 or entered in column 24 of the classification list have arrived but who have not been actually entrained for a mobilization camp, shall be and that they are hereby discharged from the Army. The local board shall so notify each such registrant either by letter or telegram, or orally, or by two or all of such means as circumstances require. Local boards shall retain a complete record of such action in all such cases, which record shall include copies of all written or telegraphed communications issued in connection therewith, and they shall particularly see that the fact and date of such notification of discharge is noted in each instance in column 29 of the classification list. The issue of formal papers of discharge will be considered and determined later, at which time claims for adjustment of pay and allowances for the men so inducted and discharged will be passed upon.

Navy and Marine Corps Calls.

Nothing in this telegram shall be construed as affecting any call or competent order for induction into the Navy or Marine Corps. All such inductions and entrainments will proceed as ordered.

All registrants whose induction orders are canceled, or who are discharged by this order, shall revert to the status existing at the time of the issuing of the original induction order, including a resumption of their order and serial number.

Nothing therein contained shall operate to relieve from the consequence of his acts any registrant affected by these orders who has heretofore become a delinquent or deserter. The purpose of this telegram is merely to cancel outstanding calls and stop the entrainment thereunder of men for the Army. All registrants released from induction under the provisions of this telegram are liable for immediate call in the usual manner at any time.

Coke Producers Supplying Men to Help Train Crews

Coke producers in and around Uniontown, Pa., are supplying men to help the train crews move cars at the Republic yards of the Monongahela Railroad, according to reports received by the United States Fuel Administration.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD'S WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT

Increases in the holdings of war paper, in Federal reserve note circulation and in member banks' reserve deposits, accompanied by somewhat smaller withdrawals of Government deposits are indicated by the Federal Reserve Board's weekly bank statement issued as at close of business on November 8, 1918.

Investments.—Holdings of war paper, i. e., discounted bills secured by Liberty bonds and Treasury certificates show an increase for the week of $64,100,000 and constitute at present 57.4 per cent of the reserve banks' total earning assets, as against 55.5 per cent the week before. Other discounts on hand fell off $12,800,000, New York and Minneapolis reporting considerable liquidation of this class of paper. Bills purchased in open market show a decrease of $2,500,000, while Government short-term securities on hand show a net gain of $3,200,000, three banks reporting the acquisition of 1-year Treasury certificates to secure Federal reserve bank note circulation. Total investments increased about $52,000,000.

Deposits.—Net withdrawals of 89.1 millions of Government funds account largely for the increase of 103.5 millions in members' reserve deposits, all the banks, except Dallas, showing substantial increases under the latter head. Net deposits show a slight decline of 1.9 millions.

Reserves.—Gold reserves declined 5.6 millions, while total cash reserves fell off 4.8 millions. The banks' reserve percentage because of the reduction in reserves and of the increase in note circulation shows a decline from 50.4 to 49.8 per cent.

Note circulation.—Federal reserve agents report the issue during the week of about 33 millions net of notes. The banks show an actual circulation of 2,558.2 millions of Federal reserve notes, an increase of 42.7 millions for the week, besides aggregate liabilities of 68.9 millions, as against 63.3 the week before, on Federal reserve bank notes in circulation.

Capital.—Payment for Federal reserve bank stock, following the admission of new members and the increase in capital stock of member banks, accounts for an increase of $464,000 in paid-in capital, New York alone reporting an increase under this head of $397,000.

Substantial liquidation of Liberty bonds and Treasury certificates offset in part by increases in loans supported by such securities are indicated by the weekly statement of conditions on November 1 of 750 member banks in leading cities.

Government deposits show an increase for the week of 518.6 millions, of which 303.7 millions represents the increase at the central reserve city banks. Inversely, net demand deposits show reductions of 184.6 millions at all reporting banks and of 129.6 millions at the banks in the three central reserve cities. Time deposits show a gain of 29.7 millions. Reserve balances with the Federal reserve banks declined 187.4 millions, both the banks in the central reserve and in the other reserve cities reporting large reductions in their balances with the Federal reserve banks. Cash in vault also shows a decrease of 10.4 millions.

JOB LOT OF COMMODITIES IS OFFERED AT PUBLIC SALE BY ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN

PEARLS, TEA, AND AUTOMOBILE OIL

Rare Assortment of Goods at Disposal of Highest Bidder, Within Certain Limitations Announced by Mr. Palmer, Chief Salesman:

Pearls, rubies, and emeralds, together with tea, leather, motorcycles, cylinder oil, and other commodities that were once German owned, will be sold at public auction to American citizens within the next two weeks by A. Mitchell Palmer, Alien Property Custodian. The approximate value of these commodities is $1,000,000.

Mr. Guffey, Salesman.

These sales will be under the supervision of Joseph F. Guffey, Director of Sales of the Alien Property Custodian's office, and will take place at the various warehouses or other places where the commodities are now stored. Only American citizens will be allowed to participate in these sales.

November 21 has been fixed as the tentative date for the sale of the pearls, rubies, and emeralds. This collection consists of 316 pearls, 3 rubies, and 2 emeralds, the approximate value of the whole being $225,000. A number of the pearls have been matched and strung; the greater part are separate. There is one ruby valued at $5,160, one drop emerald valued at $4,440, and one other valued at $3,840.

The leather to be sold consists of 1,036 bales of finished leather, consisting of 11,300 sides and 14,016 backs, with an aggregate weight of 414,811 pounds. The invoice value is $250,000. This sale will be held on November 15 at the New York Dock Stores, Brooklyn, at 10 o'clock. A smaller lot of leather, consisting of 45 bales of sole leather and 16 bundles of sole leather, of an approximate value of $17,000, will be sold on November 13 at 2 p. m. at the Albany Terminal Stores, Kneeland Street, Boston, Mass.

Time and Date Fixed.

The date for the sale of the once enemy owned tea has been tentatively fixed for 10 a. m., November 26, at the warehouses of Theodore Crowell, 20 South Street, New York City. There are 5,488 chests of tea in this lot, of which 2,963 chests are India Pekoe, 1,774 chests are Ceylon Pekoe, 336 chests Java Pekoe, and 415 chests Java Orange Pekoe. The invoice value of this tea is $207,183.

The oil to be sold consists of 9,216 barrels of cylinder oil, consisting of 2,600 barrels of filtered cylinder oil, 1,000 barrels of superheated steam cylinder oil, and 5,616 barrels of steam-refined cylinder oil. The approximate value is $125,000. The date for this sale has been tentatively fixed for 10 a. m., November 19, at the Beach Street stores of the Terminal Warehouses & Transfer Co., Beach Street, and Fairmont Avenue, Philadelphia.

November 22, at 10 a. m., has been tentatively set as the date for the sale

RULES FOR LICENSEE ACTING AS A COAL PURCHASING AGENT AT GREAT LAKES DOCKS

UNITED STATES FUEL ADMINISTRATION,
Washington, D. C.

ADDITIONAL RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE DISTRIBUTION OF COAL AND COKE BY PERSONS, FIRMS, CORPORATIONS, AND ASSOCIATIONS SUBJECT TO LICENSE AND REFERRED TO IN SUCH RULES AND REGULATIONS AS LICENSEES.

Rule 27. A licensee who acts as purchasing agent for and by authority of a retail dealer or consumer in the purchase of anthracite coal from any of the docks on the Great Lakes without becoming the owner thereof may, subject to rules 1 and 3, charge a purchasing agent's commission not exceeding the sum of 20 cents per ton of 2,240 pounds of anthracite coal when delivery of such coal is to be effected at or east of Buffalo, or the sum of 30 cents per ton of 2,240 pounds of anthracite coal when delivery of such coal is to be effected west of Buffalo; provided, however, that no such licensee shall ask, demand, or receive any commission, charge, or profit as broker or purchasing agent from any consumer or retail dealer for the purchase of any anthracite coal from a dock company controlled directly or indirectly by such licensee or by the controlling owners of such licensee or from a dock company whose owners or the stockholders, members, or partners who control such owner also control, directly or indirectly, such licensee; and provided further, that no licensee who owns or operates a dock on the Great Lakes shall charge any margin commission, or profit as purchasing agent for the purchase of anthracite coal for any consumer or retail dealer from any of the dock companies on the Great Lakes.

The above rule and regulation, promulgated this 2d day of November, 1918, to become effective 7 a. m. November 4, 1918.

H. A. GARFIELD,
United States Fuel Administrator.

UNITED STATES FUEL ADMINISTRATION,
Washington, D. C.

ADDITIONAL RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE DISTRIBUTION OF COAL AND COKE BY PERSONS, FIRMS, CORPORATIONS, AND ASSOCIATIONS SUBJECT TO LICENSE AND REFERRED TO IN SUCH RULES AND REGULATIONS AS LICENSEES.

Rule 28.—All coal requisitioned or diverted by a district representative at the request or on the order of a Federal fuel administrator for any State for consignment to some one other than such administrator shall, at the request of such Federal fuel administrator, be invoiced to a licensee named by the purchaser, unless the producer of the coal so requisitioned or diverted invoices the same directly to the purchaser. If such coal is invoiced to a licensee so named by the purchaser, such licensee may, subject to rules 1 and 3, charge the purchasing agent's commission provided in rule 2.

Rule 29.—All coal requisitioned or diverted by a district representative on the direct order of the distribution division of the United States Fuel Administration at Washington, except coal requisitioned for consignment to a Federal fuel administrator for any State or for the use of any department or agency of the United States Government, including railroads under control of the United States Railroad

PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING OCEAN SHIPPING PREFERENCE FOR SOUTH AMERICAN EXPORT

NEW RULING BY WAR TRADE BOARD

Form of Application for Licenses by Shippers to Brazil, Uruguay, Paraguay, and the Argentine, or For Ports Via Those Countries.

(1) The War Trade Board, after consultation with the shipping control committee of the United States Shipping Board, announces, in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 301), the adoption of the following procedure, effective November 18, 1918, for the obtaining of ocean shipping preference for shipments of any commodity, excepting coal, coke, and fuel oil, which are—

(A) Destined to the following countries on the eastern coast of South America, viz, Brazil, Uruguay, Paraguay, and the Argentine; or,

(B) Destined to any country or colony by way of Brazil, Uruguay, Paraguay, and the Argentine.

Applications for License.

(2) On and after November 18, 1918, applications for licenses to export any commodity, excepting coal, coke, and fuel oil, to the destinations and in the manner mentioned above in paragraphs (A) and (B) must include one of each of the following papers properly executed:

An application on Form X, to which should be attached—

Such information sheets as may be required by the regulations of the War Trade Board, as Form X-1, X-2, etc.

A supplemental information sheet, Form X-118.

(3) On Form X-118 the applicant is required to give certain information as to the purposes for which the export shipment is to be made.

Marked with Preference Number.

(4) If an export license is granted on such application, the War Trade Board will mark thereon a preference number indicating the order of ocean shipping preference which the shipment to be made under such licenses will receive. The ocean shipping preference on licenses will be honored in accordance with the preference number, No. 1 taking preference over No. 2, No. 2 over No. 3, and No. 3 over No. 4, subject only to the exigencies of prompt loading and satisfactory stowage and cargo.

Exporters making shipments under export licenses dated on and after the 1st day of December, 1918, must note on the bill of lading the serial number of the export license and the ocean shipping preference number, if any. Carriers in making their manifests must enter the export license number and ocean shipping preference number opposite each entry of goods covered by such export license. Carriers are required to file, immediately after the sailing of the vessel, an extra copy of the manifest with the shipping control committee, 45 Broadway, New York City.

(5) This procedure has been adopted because of the great shortage of shipping

Executive Order Setting Aside Lands In Oahu, Hawaii, for Military Purposes

EXECUTIVE ORDER.

ORDER OF WITHDRAWAL.

With the consent of the government of the Territory of Hawaii, it is hereby ordered that the following described tract of land, lying between the present seaward boundary of the military reservation of Fort DeRussy (situated in Kalia, Waikiki, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii), as defined in General Order No. 20, War Department, 1916, and the seaward face of the new sea wall, be, and the same is hereby, withdrawn and set aside for military purposes:

1. Beginning at monument No. 20, marked by a brass plate set in the center of the above-mentioned new sea wall, said sea wall being approximately 2 feet wide on top, said monument being a boundary monument of the above-mentioned military reservation as described in said general order: from said monument No. 20 (from this point to monument No. 31 hereinafter described, the traverse follows the center of the above-mentioned sea wall, while the boundary follows the seaward face of said sea wall).

119 50' 00"—405.46 feet to monument No. 21, marked by a brass plate; thence 123 11' 00"—100 feet to monument No. 22, marked by a brass plate; thence 129 46' 00"—100 feet to monument No. 23, marked by a brass plate; thence 136 46' 00"—100 feet to monument No. 24, marked by a brass plate; thence 143 48' 30"—100 feet to monument No. 25, marked by a brass plate; thence 145 45' 30"—505.55 feet to monument No. 26, marked by a brass plate; thence 141 02' 30"—100.03 feet to monument No. 27, marked by a brass plate; thence 135 57' 30"—99.99 feet to monument No. 28, marked by a brass plate; thence 130 50' tonnage to the east coast of South America. The purposes are to insure speedy delivery to such countries of commodities essential to the obtaining in such countries of materials urgently needed by the United States and the countries associated with it in the prosecution of the war, and also, in so far as tonnage available will permit, to supply those articles necessary for the vital economic needs of the countries on the eastern coast of South America.

(7) Exporters are warned that under present shipping conditions there will be considerable delay in obtaining space for commodities covered by licenses bearing the lower ocean shipping preferences. It is the purpose of the War Trade Board, however, to continue to issue licenses with the preference number so that, in the event that the shipping shall at any time improve, exportation may be made thereunder.

Should Refile Applications.

(8) Holders of licenses issued which have not stamped thereon the ocean shipping preference should refile their applications on Form X, attaching thereto Supplemental Information Sheets X-8 and X-118.

(9) On and after the 1st day of December, 1918, all licenses for export to Brazil, Uruguay, Paraguay, and the Argentine not bearing ocean shipping preference numbers will be considered in class No. 4.

30"—99.97 feet to monument No. 29, marked by a brass plate; thence 125 47' 30"—100.03 feet to monument No. 30, marked by a brass plate; thence 121 17' 30"—53.34 feet to monument No. 31, marked by a brass plate; and situated at a corner of the above-mentioned sea wall. From the seaward face of the above-mentioned corner of the sea wall the boundary extends in a straight line to monument No. 32, hereinafter described, direct azimuth and distance from monument No. 31, being 237 58' 00"—113.85 feet to standard concrete monument No. 32, situated on the south side of Dewey Avenue, said monument No. 32 being identical with a point on the boundary of the Fort De Russy Military Reservation as described in the above-mentioned general order: (from said monument No. 32 to monument No. 20, the point of beginning, the boundary follows the seaward side of the Fort De Russy Military Reservation as described in the above-mentioned general order) from said monument No. 32.

Southeasterly along the old mean highwater mark to a point, the direct azimuth and distance being 321 21' 01.7"—182.71 feet; thence

Southeasterly along the old mean highwater mark to a point, the direct azimuth and distance being 324 40' 00"—183.00 feet; thence

Southeasterly along the old mean highwater mark to a point, the direct azimuth and distance being 321 10' 00"—301.50 feet; thence

Southeasterly along the old mean highwater mark to a point, the direct azimuth and distance being 325 52' 00"—245.50 feet; thence

Southeasterly along the old mean highwater mark to a point, the direct azimuth and distance being 316 11' 00"—418.70 feet; thence

Southeasterly along the old mean highwater mark to a point, the direct azimuth and distance being 305 08' 40"—297.22 feet; thence Southeasterly along the old mean highwater mark to the point of beginning the direct azimuth and distance being, 300.57' 40"—101.50 feet.

The above described tract of land contains 1.657 acres, more or less. All azimuths are true and except where otherwise specified, the boundary extends in straight lines between monuments. The standard concrete monument is molded in the shape of a truncated pyramid having an upper base 8 inches square and a lower base 12 inches square. In the center of the upper base is set a brass plate 3 inches square.

Issue No Money Orders Drawn on Santo Domingo

OFFICE OF THIRD ASST. P. M. GEN.,
WASHINGTON, November 4, 1918.

At present no arrangement exists for an exchange of money orders between the United States and the Republic of Santo Domingo. Therefore postmasters must decline to issue orders for payment in the latter country.

Santo Domingo (the Dominican Republic) should not be confused with Dominica, one of the Leeward Islands in the British West Indies, with which orders are exchanged on the domestic basis. (See Table No. 4, p. 84, Postal Guide for July, 1918.)

PLENTY OF SMALL HARD COAL
BUT LARGER SIZES SCARCE

The campaign among domestic users of anthracite coal in the East, recently inaugurated by the Fuel Administration, to induce them to supplement the supply of the larger sizes with No. 1 buckwheat, of which there is a plentiful supply, is meeting with marked success, according to information that comes from that section.

The Federal fuel administrator for Vermont reports active cooperation by both dealers and users. "We are satisfied that by using it both during the day and night, especially with the larger sizes of anthracite, a saving of at least 25 per cent of the larger sizes can be made in using buckwheat," says the Vermont report.

Coal dealers are cooperating with local and State fuel officials in advocating the combined use of the larger sizes and buckwheat, laying in supplies and instructing users as to the proper methods of using. While there is plentiful supply of buckwheat available in that section, the larger sizes are scarce and there is a pressing need for the adoption of measures that will conserve the former.

Information on the combined use of buckwheat and the larger sizes will be supplied consumers by local coal dealers and the State and local fuel officials, and the public is requested to ask for the information and to follow the suggestions.

PARITIES ON COTTON GOODS ANNOUNCED

EXECUTIVE ORDER.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by "an act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, and for other purposes," approved July 1, 1918, I hereby direct that the sum of $10,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and it hereby is, allotted out of the appropriation "for the national security and defense" to be expended under the direction of the Postmaster General in the administration of the control and operation of the telegraph and telephone wire systems now being exercised in pursuance of my proclamation of July 22, 1918.

WOODROW WILSON.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
October 8, 1918.

COKE DIRECTOR ON COMMITTEE.

W. S. Blauvelt, director of the Bureau of Coke, United States Fuel Administration, has been appointed a member of the production committee working under James B. Neale, director of production. Mr. Blauvelt's special duties will be in the line of increasing and maintaining the production of coke.

Special emphasis has been laid on the necessity for a large and steady coke output by the production committee. Coke production has been running about 30,000 tons weekly below the minimum required for the Government program, and both operators and coke workers have been asked to cooperate toward overcoming the deficit.

GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES FOR SETTLING LABOR DISPUTES

The functions of the regularly constituted Government agencies for the settlement of labor disputes are explained in a leaflet issued by the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation through the industrial relations group.

In this statement is detailed the aims and scope of each Government agency. The first one taken up is the Shipbuilding Labor Adjustment Board or more commonly known as the Macy Board.

This board deals exclusively with adjustments of wages, hours, and conditions of labor (a) in the construction or repair of those shipbuilding plants for which funds are being provided by the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation or the Navy, and (b) in the construction or repair of ships which is carried on under a contract with the Emergency Fleet Corporation or the Navy, exclusive of work being done in the navy yards. The board has its own examiners in all districts where shipbuilding is carried on. In yards that do not deal directly with the union shop, committees are provided to consider grievances.

The War Labor Board.

The National War Labor Board, or more commonly known as the Taft-Walsh Board, was formed by presidential proclamation to settle industrial disputes that threaten delay of war material production. It will not act in cases that are within the jurisdiction of regularly constituted Government boards of arbitration and conciliation operating in special fields, and reserves the right to decide what cases are of sufficient importance to demand attention. The assistance of the War Labor Board should be requested only after every other means of arbitration shall have been invoked.

The Bureau of Conciliation and Mediation was organized to supply mediators in industrial disputes. If a mediator is unable to bring disputants together, he may report the facts and recommend action by the War Labor Board.

National Adjustment Commission.

The national adjustment commission handles longshoremen's disputes; the railway board of adjustment No. 1 takes care of cases arising in engine, train, and yard service; railway board of adjustment No. 2 handles cases arising in railway shop matters.

The cantonment adjustment commission functions in cantonments and other Army construction work; the harness and saddlery commission adjust labor disputes arising in the manufacture of harness and leather goods for the Army, while the anthracite conciliation board handles labor disputes arising in the mining of anthracite coal.

Industrial Relations Group.

L. C. Marshall, director of the industrial relations group, will assist employees and workers in referring disputes to the proper Government agencies for mediation or arbitration. Briefly the functions of the industrial relations group are as follows:

Offers counsel and advice along the lines of scientific employment and administers draft deferments, transfers, and

MARKET FOR FARM TRACTORS IN FRENCH VINEYARD DISTRICT

Consul Paul H. Cram, at Cette, France, reports:

Owing to the shortage of labor and horses, there exists in this district, as in all parts of France, an excellent market for farm tractors. However, it should be noted that wine growing is by far the chief branch of agriculture carried on in this region. Therefore tractors designed for sale in southern France should be constructed for use in the vineyards.

In a communication to the "Academie d'Agriculture," dated December 12, 1917, Mr. Ringelmann, director of the "Station d'Essais de Machines de Paris," explained the importance of the market similar matters relating to the handling of the personnel in shipyards.

The group offers expert assistance in all matters affecting the health and physical welfare of the workers in the shipyards. The safety engineering section gives close attention to the matter of the safety of the workmen engaged in building ships and ship material. It is the function of the education and training section to inaugurate training centers throughout the country where men may be trained for shipyard work, and men already in the shipyards may be given more advanced training.

Labor Administration Section.

The labor administration section is a department for advice and counsel in the proper handling of disputes between employer and worker. While not organized for the purpose of arbitration, this section is often able to counsel those interested in such a manner as to avoid loss of time through strikes or lockouts.

Copies of this leaflet may be had by addressing the director of industrial relations group, United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, 140 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

which French, Algerian, and Tunisian vineyards offered to farm tractors. The extent of the vineyards which may be cultivated mechanically is estimated at 1,581,468 acres.

The labor to be performed in the vineyards consist of plowing to a depth of 10 to 15 centimeters (3.93 to 5.90 inches) and scarifying to a depth of 5 centimeters (1.96 inches). According to Mr. Ringelmann, the maximum width of a tractor should not exceed 1 meter (39.36 inches). The tractor, together with the plow or cultivator, should be able to turn around within a distance of 3 meters (9.84 feet) at a maximum. The weight should not exceed 1,100 kilos (2,424 pounds). Furthermore the tractors should be so constructed that they may be utilized for the application of sulphate and sulphur to the vineyards. In order to make use of these tractors for hoeing and weeding purposes, it would be necessary to install an appliance which would permit a modification of the distance between the wheels in order to correspond with the space between the lines of vines. The outer side of the tires of the wheels should pass at about 20 centimeters (7.87 inches) from the axis of the line of vines to be weeded.

The name of a dealer in agricultural implements who has expressed a desire to represent an American firm is transmitted and can be obtained from the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce or its district or cooperative offices by referring to file No. 106776.—Commerce Reports.

CHANGE IN NAME ANNOUNCED.

The United States Railroad Administration issues the following:

CIRCULAR No. 54-A.

The name of the Insurance and Fire Protection Section, established by Circular No. 54, dated September 3, 1918, is hereby changed to The Fire Loss and Protection Section.

Director General of Railroads.

CANADA REQUISITIONS BUTTER OUTPUT OF FIVE PROVINCES

Consul Felix S. S. Johnson, at Kingston, Ontario, reports:

The output of all creameries in the Provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec for the next 30 days has been commandeered by the Canadian Government. The text of the order-in-council is as follows:

1. Manufacturers of creamery butter shall deliver all such butter made in the Provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec between September 30 and November 10, 1918, both days inclusive, to a cold-storage warehouse at Montreal designated by the Dairy Produce Commission at the following prices per pound: Grade No. 1, 46½ cents; grade No. 2, 46 cents; grade No. 3, 45 cents; delivered at warehouse, Montreal, freight and cartage paid.

2. No person shall sell to the Dairy Produce Commission any creamery butter manufactured before the 30th of September, 1918, at a price in excess of the following: Grade No. 1, 43½ cents per pound; grade No. 2, 43 cents per pound, delivered at the warehouse, Montreal, freight and cartage paid.

3. Every manufacturer of creamery butter in the Provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec shall make weekly returns to the Canada food board, showing the quantity of butter manufactured by them, the names of persons to whom sold, the quantities and prices of each sale during the week, and the quantity on hand at the end of the week.

4. No person shall sell to any person, except to a dealer licensed by the Canada food board to deal in, more creamery butter than is sufficient for his ordinary requirements for a period not exceeding 30 days.—Commerce Reports.

THE LATIN-AMERICAN DEMAND FOR U. S. STRUCTURAL STEEL

The Department of Commerce, Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, issues the following:

Latin-American concerns wishing to specify American structural steel for building and railway purposes can now do so without difficulty by referring to pamphlets in Spanish and English just issued by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce. These pamphlets are intended to facilitate sales of such materials in Latin countries and are published in response to numerous requests from those countries.

The text defines with scientific accuracy the generally accepted American standards as adopted by the American Society for Testing Materials, and the publication of the series has been made possible by the cooperation of the American Society of Civil Engineers and the Bureau of Standards and Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the Department of Commerce.

The five pamphlets announced are Standard Specifications for Structural Steel for Buildings, Industrial Standards No. 8; Standard Specifications for Structural Steel for Locomotives, Indus-

ITALIAN DECREES ARE ISSUED RELATING TO STANDARD SHOES

Consul Winship, at Milan, reports:

It now appears from the local press that the Italian Government will shortly initiate the sale of "national shoes" in Milan.

The sale of these shoes is restricted to certain classes of the population—mutilated and invalid soldiers and their families, members of families having a man in the Army and receiving "relative" allowance from the Government, members of families receiving support from charitable organizations, and employees (both private and governmental) receiving the high-cost-of-living indemnity. Owing to the fact that the quantities of these shoes on hand at present are very limited and that it is impossible at the moment to increase stocks, the Government will use its discretion to establish exceptions, even in the case of the classes named.

Each person may have but one pair of shoes.

Inspectors to Maintain Quality.

Consul Wilbur, at Genoa, reports:

A recent ministerial decree provides for the inspection of the "national" boots and shoes by experts, this inspection to take place at the authorized retail shops, district warehouses, or at the factory itself.

Shoes not conforming to the standard will be marked "refused," and the factory making them must furnish an equal number of pairs of approved shoes at its own expense. The rejected footwear will remain at the disposal of the Ministry of Industry, Commerce, and Labor, which may distribute them among charitable institutions upon the payment of their appraised value. The money so received, less the expenses of packing, shipping, inspection, etc., may be credited to the shoe factory after the substitution of other approved footwear has been made.

The decree also empowers the minister to order shoe factories to turn out specified quantities and types of "war" shoes, to be put on sale in free commerce at prices established by the ministry.—Commerce Reports.

trial Standards No. 9; Standard Specifications for Carbon Steel Bars for Railway Springs, Industrial Standards No. 10; Standard Specifications for Quenched and Tempered Carbon-Steel Axles, Shafts, and Other Forgings for Locomotives and Cars, Industrial Standards No. 12; and Standard Specifications for Carbon Steel Forgings for Locomotives, Industrial Standards No. 13. These can be purchased at 5 cents a copy from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., or from any of the district or cooperative offices of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. Other numbers of the series will follow.

Licenses Are Restricted On Imports of Chrome Ore

The War Trade Board announces in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. No. 314), that

COLLEGE WOMEN'S UNIT LANDS IN FRANCE FOR Y. M. C. A. WORK

The national war work council, Y. M. C. A., authorizes the following:

The first college women's unit to do Y. M. C. A. work for American soldiers overseas has just landed in France. Eight graduates of Smith College, with two more to follow within a few days, form the unit. They will work wherever stationed in France. They pledge themselves to remain a year, and are subject to all Army and Y. M. C. A. regulations. Their expenses will be met by their college or by the graduates themselves.

Especially Fitted for the Work.

The courage under shell fire and the readiness to meet emergencies which American college women in France have already shown make the Y. M. C. A. particularly glad to welcome the new unit. Mrs. F. Louis Slade, chairman of the women's over-seas committee of the Y. M. C. A., said yesterday that college women are especially able to meet the requirements of the over-seas work.

Personnel of the Unit.

Mrs. Edna Schell Witherbee, 1908, who was in charge of the hostess house at Plattsburg, is the director of the Smith College canteen unit; Miss Mildred McCluney, 1904, of St. Louis, the vice director. The other women of the unit who have already gone to France are Miss Helen Durkee, 1902, of New York, an artist whose portraits have appeared at the academy; Miss Elizabeth Seeber, 1908, a teacher in the Flushing High School; Miss Agnes Bowman, 1911, librarian and designer, of Elkhart, Ind.; Miss Stella Tuttle, 1907, Chicago, assistant principal; and Miss Pauline Fullerton, 1905, librarian in the New York Public Library.

"The idea is that they are to do canteen service as a group in any one of the big American camps in France," said Mrs. Alice Lord Parsons, former president of the Smith alumnae, yesterday. "But they are entirely at the disposal of the Y. M. C. A., and stand ready to be stationed anywhere in France."

Expenses of the Unit.

It costs $2,000 a year to maintain one canteen worker in France, or $20,000 for the unit of 10. If sufficient funds are contributed another canteen unit may be organized. Mrs. Frederick H. Cone, of 170 West Fifty-ninth Street, is the chairman of the Smith College canteen unit. Contributions may be sent to her or directly to the Bankers' Trust Co., 16 Wall Street, New York, which will acknowledge each contribution.

This is only the first of a number of college canteen units which will go overseas shortly to engage in Y. M. C. A. work.

all outstanding licenses for the importation of chrome ore, except those covering shipments from Cuba, Canada, and Brazil, are revoked as to shipments from abroad after November 11, 1918.

Hereafter, no licenses will be issued for the importation of chrome ore, except licenses covering shipments from Cuba, Canada, and Brazil.

German Hold on Hawaii Sugar Industry Broken by Alien Property Custodian Reorganizing the H. Hackfeld Company

The Alien Property Custodian's office issues the following:

The powerful German hold on the sugar industry of the Hawaiian Islands has been crushed. The control of Hawaii's most important industry has been restored to its people. This is the effect of the announcement of A. Mitchell Palmer, Alien Property Custodian, that he had completed the Americanization of the H. Hackfeld Co., the great German-owned corporation which for years has played so important a part in the sugar situation of the Hawaiian Islands. In 1917 plantations controlled by this German company produced 140,000 tons of cane sugar.

Organized New Company.

Mr. Palmer Americanized this German concern by organizing a new company, known as the American Factors (Ltd.), and selling the entire assets and business of the German Hackfeld Co. to the American company, whose stockholders are all loyal American citizens, most of them residents of the Hawaiian Islands. As a result 640 American residents of Hawaii have become stockholders in the new corporation, which has a capitalization of $7,500,000, because the assets of the H. Hackfeld Co. were valued at that amount.

The Americanization of the H. Hackfeld Co. is one of the most important and most interesting of the steps taken by the Alien Property Custodian to crush, for all time, the German control of America's most important industries. This concern was one of the important links in this control, and was the center of pro-German propaganda in the Pacific.

Capitalized at $4,000,000.

The H. Hackfeld Co. was capitalized at $4,000,000. It had undivided profits and reserves amounting to $3,924,933. In 1917 the net earnings of the corporation were $1,661,624. Some of the companies which it controlled were: Oahu Sugar Co. (Ltd.), Pioneer Mill Co. (Ltd.), Lihue Plantation Co. (Ltd.), Kakaha Sugar Co. (Ltd.), Makee Sugar Co., Koloa Sugar Co., Grove Farm Plantation, Wai-mea Sugar Mill Co., The Kipahulu Sugar Co., and Pacific Guano & Fertilizer Co. (Ltd.).

The American Factors (Ltd.), has a capital of 50,000 shares at a par value of $150, or $7,500,000 capital. In comparison with the old capital stock of $4,000,000, this would make the new shares as of a value of about 187½; in other words, the stockholders of the H. Hackfeld Co. are securing for themselves 7½ per cent more than was stated by the company when under German management to be their true worth or value.

Offered to the Public.

The shares in the American Factors (Ltd.) were offered to the public, and no one individual was allowed to buy more than 500 shares. Corporations or groups of persons, including families, of not less than five, were permitted to subscribe for a maximum amount of 2,500 shares; the amounts of these subscriptions were subject to a reduction, the smallest subscribers receiving preference in every case.

The subscribers received stock trust certificates, which when surrendered, on the expiration of three years after the date of the termination of the war between the United States and Germany, entitle the holder to receive the certificate of stock mentioned in the stock trust certificate, and until then to receive the payments equal to the dividends, if any have been collected by the trustees. All of the shares of stock will be transferred to seven trustees under trust agreement to continue during the war with Germany, and thereafter for three additional years. All subscribers were obliged to satisfy the Alien Property Custodian as to their loyalty.

The trustees selected to manage the American Factors (Ltd.) are: George Sherman, R. A. Cooke, F. C. Atherton, C. R. Heinenway, Richard H. Trent, A. W. T. Bottomley, and G. T. Wilcox, all of Honolulu.

The H. Hackfeld Co. was controlled by J. F. Hackfeld, a subject and resident of Germany, through J. F. Hackfeld, (Ltd.), which was organized for the purpose of naturalizing himself, as far as possible without having to take the oath of allegiance to the United States. He went to the Hawaiian Islands many years ago and built up a business which, with the assistance given him under the kartel system, amounted to many millions of dollars, when the United States entered the European war.

Only Three Officers.

According to the by-laws of the H. Hackfeld Co., there were only three officers, and in case of the death or disability of any officer, the officer of the next rank automatically filled the position. The by-laws also provided that any one officer had the authority, in case of the absence of the rest of the officers, to perform any act deemed necessary, the same as if all were present. The three officers of the company were J. F. Hackfeld, George Rodiak, and J. F. C. Hagens.

In January of this year J. F. Hackfeld was in Germany, and George Rodiak, the next ranking officer of the corporation, was in San Francisco, having been convicted of violating the neutrality laws of the United States. Hagens remained in Honolulu, and on January 10 he called a meeting of J. F. Hackfeld (Ltd.), and sold six American citizens 11,000 shares in the Hackfeld Co. These 11,000 shares, together with the holdings of Hagens and German naturalized Americans, and one American family, made the control of H. Hackfeld Co. Mr. Palmer persuaded the Americans who purchased this stock to rescind the sale.

The H. Hackfeld Co., through its subsidiary companies, has been practically the deciding factor in the sugar industry in the Hawaiian Islands. They

THE REMITTANCE OF MONEYS BY FEDERAL RAILROAD AGENTS

The United States Railroad Administration, Division of Finance and Purchases, issues the following:

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 15, 1918.

CIRCULAR No. 1.

It has been brought to my attention that a few carriers have permitted funds collected by agents and conductors to be remitted direct to the Federal treasurer. Effective at once, this practice must be discontinued.

Remittances of agents and conductors must be made direct to banks, as instructed by the Federal treasurer of each carrier of all funds charged to them in station account with the exception of the following, which may, if more convenient, be remitted direct to Federal treasurers:

Special collections for miscellaneous items, including rents, etc.

Company paper, such as vouchers, pay checks, etc.

Nonbankable paper, including discharge certificates and other evidences of disbursements made by agents under direction of Federal treasurer.

Federal treasurers shall issue, on receipt of this circular, suitable instructions where their agents and conductors have not heretofore been so instructed.

JOHN SKELTON WILLIAMS,
Director, Division of Finance.

have ordinarily produced from 20 to 30 per cent of the sugar of the Hawaiian Islands. The company is one of many ramifications. They own or control the Pacific Guano & Fertilizer Co. (Ltd.), which furnishes phosphates to the Hawaiian sugar growers; they have in the past brought this phosphate from South America in their own boats to the Hawaiian Islands.

Conducted General Store.

H. Hackfeld Co. also conducted a general merchandise business, wholesale as well as retail, and owned the B. F. Ehlers Co., of Honolulu, which is the largest department store west of San Francisco. The company has branches in New York and San Francisco. This is now known as the Liberty Store.

George Rodiak, one of their former officers, pleaded guilty in the courts of the United States, in San Francisco to having violated the neutrality laws of the United States, in that he fitted out certain ships in order that these ships might assist the German raiders in the Pacific Ocean. At the outbreak of the European war in 1914 ships flying the German flag which entered the port of Honolulu for harbor were taken care of by H. Hackfeld Co. The Pommern was one of these vessels which came from Australia with cargo of British merchandise on board. It is said that H. Hackfeld Co. assisted the German raiders on the Pacific Ocean in replenishing their supplies, especially with coal.

All enemy-owned property in the Hawaiian Islands, Philippines, Porto Rico, Panama, the Virgin Islands, and the other insular possessions has been administered by the Alien Property Custodian through the Division of Insular Possessions, of which Walter D. Denegre is chief.

Tells How German "Industrial Autocracy" Has Been Blocked In Designs Upon America

Far Reaching Plans to Control Manufacture and Commerce Thwarted by "Americanization" of Alien Property, Says Custodian Palmer, Addressing Philadelphia Society. Blow Already Felt as Indicated by Berlin's "Cringing Protest."

In an address, on November 7, before the University Extension Society of Philadelphia, on "The Functions and Policies of the Alien Property Custodian," A. Mitchell Palmer, the custodian, said in part:

The office of Alien Property Custodian was created by an act of Congress, known as the trading-with-the-enemy act, approved October 6, 1917. Under this law it became the duty of all persons in this country having the custody or control of any property of whatsoever nature belonging to, held for, or owing to an enemy person, to make report thereof to the Alien Property Custodian, to whom the President delegated the power to demand and receive such property, and by whom it was to be administered with all the powers of a common law trustee. The act in defining enemy persons is declaratory of the common law. It makes residence and not nationality the sole test of enemy character.

German Hostility Revealed.

When the original trading-with-the-enemy act was passed a full realization of German industrial menace had not dawned upon the law-making body. The design of Germany in planting an industrial and commercial army upon American soil was only vaguely felt, and Congress followed the custom of other war-time legislation in making provision for the conservation and safekeeping of enemy-owned property in this country, without any attempt to employ the power of the Government as a war weapon to destroy the German hold upon American industry and commerce. The Alien Property Custodian was given the powers of a common-law trustee to manage and operate the property within his control and to dispose of the same only if and when necessary to prevent waste and protect the property. But after a large bulk of this enemy property had come under one hand and we were able to piece together the picture of Germany's industrial aggression during the last 40 years, there came not only a fuller realization of the hostile nature of Germany's industrial investment in America, but also of the powerful weapon against the foe which lay ready at our hands.

The Americanization Plan.

The Congress then adopted the Americanization idea. On March 23, 1918, an amendment to the Trading with the Enemy Act was passed, giving to the Alien Property Custodian the general power of sale, providing only that enemy property should be sold at public auction to American citizens, except in cases where the public interest would best be served by private sale, to be determined by the President. Under this amendment it has been possible for the Alien Property Custodian to make a big start in the work of permanently divorcing German capital from American industry.

Serious Obstacles Encountered.

When I came to carry out my selling program, however, I met with two very serious obstacles. I found that some of the most important of the German-owned industries in this country were operating under patents issued by the United States Government to German subjects, which patents were being used and enjoyed by the American corporations owned by the enemy, and which had never been formally assigned and were still the property of the German subject. The Trading with the Enemy Act did not permit me to demand and take over those enemy-owned patents, and, consequently, I faced the possibility of being required to sell American corporations to American citizens divested of their chief assets. The other obstacle was the difficulty in making title to American purchasers of stock because the certificates representing the enemy ownership were outside of our reach, being in the strong boxes of the owners in the enemy countries. By further amendment to the Trading with the Enemy Act just approved, both these obstacles have been removed.

Further Powers Extended.

The Alien Property Custodian is now empowered to demand and take over an enemy-owned patent, and is further empowered to require corporations to issue to him a new certificate of stock in lieu of certificates which can not be reduced for transfer by reason of their being in the enemy country. We shall now proceed to sell at public auction to American citizens all of the interests of enemy persons in American industrial and commercial businesses where that interest is large enough to either influence or control the business. No greater favor could be shown to Germany than by carefully managing and conserving these enemy properties as against the time when at the conclusion of the war, upon accounting for the properties in kind, the former German owners could take up the invasion of American industry and commerce on the very salient which they had erected before the war. And by the same token, a blow of no mean force will be directed upon the enemy when we shall have thoroughly Americanized these industries and made it necessary for German capital at least to start all over again in its effort to get a foothold upon American industry and commerce.

Force of Blow Felt by Germany.

Germany has already felt and cringed under the force of this blow. She has bitterly protested against the plans of the Alien Property Custodian as "designed to destroy Germany's economic existence upon this continent." She has been made to realize that when America goes to war she strikes the enemy wherever he raises his head, and the industrial and commercial army built by the enemy on American soil is suffering from the same kind of destructive assaults which have staggered the Prussian Guards on the front line. Whatever accounting is to be made when the war is over for enemy property taken here during the war, so far as that accounting affects investment in American industry, will be for the money value thereof, and not for the thing itself. Without attempting to prophesy what may be done with the proceeds, for this must remain to be settled by the treaty of peace, it is safe to say that the businesses which the Germans built up in America will be forever lost to them.

No Other Course Compatible.

No other course would be compatible with the safety of American institutions. No other course would make the American field of industry and commerce "safe for democracy," for the German autocracy is quite as apparent in its economic exploitation of the world as in its governmental and military domination of Central Europe. While we have been concerned with plans to prevent monopoly from gaining too great a hold upon American industry, Germany has been going in the other direction. It has deliberately destroyed individual opportunity, fostered combinations and monopolies, and by subsidizing its closely controlled industries has sent them out to the world with the powerful backing of the German Empire. The development of the cartel system in Germany, by which all of the establishments in one line of industry come under a central control, even to the point of retail distribution, has made it plain that the German plan was to bring into competition with the American producer not the individual German producer, but the German Empire itself. The old-time fear of the American manufacturer for the German producer, whose goods "made in Germany" had begun to be sold everywhere, was based upon no lack of confidence in American genius and productive ability, but upon the knowledge that the German plan of State-controlled industry made the competition grossly unequal. If perpetual peace is to follow the end of this war it must be grounded upon something different than the German Government's plan to make all industry and commerce redound to the power and aggrandizement of the German State.

Germany must be made to understand that her plan has failed in the industrial field as in the military. Industrial disarmament must come along with military disarmament. Autocracy in industry must fall with the fall of the Hohenzollern dynasty.

Saccharin Is Not a Food, Food Administration Says

In response to inquiries concerning reports that it has urged the use of saccharin in place of sugar, the United States Food Administration announces that it always has taken the position that saccharin is not a food in any sense.

The use or sale of saccharin as a sugar substitute in foods is illegal for all interstate purposes under the rulings of the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture and under the laws of some of the States, it was further stated.

LOSS AND DAMAGE FREIGHT AND PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS

U. S. RAILROAD ADMINISTRATION,
DIVISION OF LAW,
Washington, September 12, 1918.

CIRCULAR No. 3.

To Regional Directors, Federal Managers
and General Solicitors:

RE: CIRCULAR NO. 49.

In view of the economic conditions of the country generally and particularly the operation of the railroads, your attention is drawn to the enormous amount of money (running well into the millions) expended annually for loss and damage freight and personal injury claims. Money paid out in this connection has no economic value, a situation that must be corrected by taking such remedial steps as are necessary toward the prevention as well as the settlement of claims.

There has heretofore been no uniformity as to the jurisdiction of loss and damage freight and personal injury claims, therefore, it has been considered wise to place the responsibility of handling such claims directly upon the Legal Department. The General Solicitor will be held responsible for the results and is requested to take such steps as will bring the claim organization to the highest efficiency.

The Claims and Property Protection Section was established to coordinate under one head the entire subject, and to exercise supervisory jurisdiction, aiding to the fullest extent those coming in direct contact with the subject.

From time to time orders through the office of the Director General will be issued with reference to the uniform and economical settlement of both loss and damage freight and personal injury claims.

The conservation of life and limb, as well as food products, clothing material, and other necessities, vital to the winning of the war, will be studied by this section with a view toward a nationwide campaign in the way of prevention of this loss.

Full and hearty cooperation with this work is expected from all officers and employees. Claim agents are expected to cooperate to the fullest extent in connection with the prevention of claims, as well as the settlement thereof.

JOHN BARTON PAYNE,
General Counsel.

Approved:
W. G. McAdoo,
Director General of Railroads.

WASHINGTON-NEW HAVEN SLEEPER.

The United States Railroad Administration issues the following:

To accommodate the large volume of travel between Washington, Baltimore, and Philadelphia and large New England manufacturing centers, for which New Haven, Conn., is the distributing point, a Washington-New Haven sleeping car has been placed on the Federal Express beginning November 4. Northbound car will be detached at New Haven and passengers allowed to remain in it until 7 a. m. and the southbound car will be opened for occupancy at New Haven at 10 p. m.

American-Made Airplane Cotton Fabric Now Produced for All U. S. Army Needs

The War Department authorizes the following:

The production of American cotton airplane fabric is now averaging about 1,200,000 yards monthly, sufficient for all requirements, and capable of being largely increased if necessary. No more linen fabric is being imported from abroad for this purpose, and after the imported stock now on hand is exhausted, cotton fabric will be used exclusively in covering American airplane wings.

At the outbreak of the war in 1914, linen was the only material which had proved entirely satisfactory for covering airplane wings, the essential physical properties required being lightness in weight, proper absorption of dope, and strength and resistance to tear.

Prewar Production.

The chief countries before the war producing flax for fine grades of linen were Belgium, Russia, and Ireland. The Belgian supply was cut off from the allies in 1914. The Russian flax was difficult to obtain and was later cut off entirely. In the meantime the consumption of linen for war purposes had increased enormously. By the spring of 1917, when the

New Poster is Expected To Help in War Work By Cutting Down Mails

A poster printed in appropriate typing and coloring has been prepared in response to numerous requests by Chambers of Commerce, Boards of Trade, libraries, and other public institutions. The purpose of the poster is self-evident. It reads as follows:

Copies of the poster will be sent to all applicants who are in a position to aid in this public service. It is hoped that its wide publicity will help to lessen the war burden put upon the mails and serve to minimize the work of all government departments at Washington.

United States entered the war, the linen situation was very serious, and it was obvious that some substitute would have to be found.

In developing a cotton airplane fabric which would have the necessary qualities of the linen, the United States Government received the greatest assistance from the various cotton mills.

Samples were made from cotton of many constructions and numbers of yarn, varying from No. 40 two-ply to No. 100 four-ply, the cloth having from 50 to 90 threads per inch. Yarns were in some cases mercerized under tension and various twists were tried. Several cotton mills cooperated in this work.

Testing of Samples.

When the new fabrics were secured, samples were put on airplanes, "doped" and varnished, according to regulation practice, and tested in actual use at Langley field and Pensacola. Flying tests were also made with several other varieties of fabric. The tests were for three months of service, averaging 10 hours per day. Members of the United States air service, members of the foreign flying corps, and other experts assisted in the experiments. They reported that the cotton fabrics developed in the United States appeared to serve most favorably. Other very favorable reports have recently been received from tests made in Great Britain on American cloth sent over there.

After many experiments had been made the first contracts for 10,000 yards each of cotton airplane fabric were placed in the middle of September, 1917. The results obtained with the first cotton fabric produced were satisfactory and it was decided to place further contracts for cotton airplane fabric.

Adopted Last November.

Two fabrics were adopted, the specifications calling for a strength of not less than 80 pounds per inch in both warp and filling. The cotton used in the manufacture of the cotton airplane fabric had to be of a very long staple, and in November, 1917, the air service purchased 15,000 bales of long-staple Sea Island cotton.

The first quantity orders for cotton airplane fabric were placed in October and November, 1917, and were for 1,280,000 yards of grade A and 200,000 yards of grade B cotton airplane fabric. Deliveries of cotton airplane fabric started in January with the production of 173,000 yards. Production has gradually increased until at the present time 1,200,000 yards are being produced monthly.

Subsequent Contracts Let.

Subsequent contracts have been let for cotton airplane fabric amounting to 11,513,084 yards. All of these later contracts, however, have been for grade A cotton fabric, as it now seems clear that this cloth is superior to the other.

While the cotton airplane fabric was at first only used for training planes, and the grade A standard linen fabric, which was imported from Great Britain, was used for combat planes, it was decided in April, 1918, that the grade A cotton fabric could be used for all types of planes.

SOLDIERS HONORED BY PERSHING FOR HEROISM

The commander in chief of the American Expeditionary Force in the name of the President has awarded the Distinguished Service Cross to the following officers and soldiers for the acts of extraordinary heroism described after their names:

Chaplain L. R. WEEDS, 16th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Soissons, France, July 19-22, 1918. Chaplain Weeds displayed exceptional bravery in passing through open fields under heavy fire to the front lines to render first aid and to cheer the wounded. Home address, Joseph F. Weeds, Athol, Kans.

First Lieut. FRED W. ADAMS, 16th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Soissons, France, July 22, 1918. During the violent fighting of July 22, 1918, Lieut. Adams distinguished himself by his courage, judgment, and efficient leadership. After the strength of the regiment had been seriously reduced by losses he took command of a large number of the remaining troops, disposed them in effective positions, walking up and down the lines under constant fire from the enemy, and by his example of coolness and bravery inspired his men to hold the positions they had gained. Home address, Mrs. Fred W. Adams, wife, care of J. E. Abell, Ivy Depot, Albemarle County, Va.

First Sergt. STALLARD THROWER, Company I, 16th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Soissons, France, July 21, 1918. After all of his officers had been killed or wounded he assumed command of the company, and with exceptional bravery and courage kept continually pressing on and engaging the enemy. Home address, Mrs. Mable Thrower, Parksville, Ky.

First Lieut. HARRY R. HOWE, 101st Engineers. For extraordinary heroism in action in the Bois de Lacroisette, France, July 14, 1918. After being badly burned on the left hand by the explosion of a mustard-gas shell, Lieut. Howe declined an opportunity to be relieved and worked for more than an hour under a heavy gas and high-explosive shell bombardment getting his men out of the area of concentrated gas. Unable to use his left hand, he remained on duty during the July offensive. Home address, Mrs. John H. Howe, mother, 56 Draver Avenue, Mansfield, Mass.

First Lieut. CHESTER R. HOWARD, 104th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action at Trunzy, France, July 22, 1918. Although Lieut. Howard had been twice wounded, he refused to be evacuated and continued on duty with his company during the attack and capture of Trunzy under heavy fire until he was incapacitated by a third wound. Home address, Mrs. C. C. Howard, mother, 600 Sixth Avenue, Mount Vernon, Iowa.

First Lieut. FRANK A. MACNAMÉS, Jr., 101st Field Artillery. For extraordinary heroism in action in the Belleau Woods, France, July 19, 1918. By his utter disregard of danger he inspired great confidence in his men during a critical period by three times going into a heavily shelled area to help rescue wounded. Home address, Mrs. Frank A. MacNames, mother, Albany, N. Y.

Wagoner CLIFFORD R. HASKINS, Company B, 101st Machine Gun Battalion. For extraordinary heroism in action near Trunzy, France, July 22, 1918. Wagoner Haskins was seriously wounded in the leg while placing injured soldiers in his ambulance. Nevertheless he insisted on driving the machine to the dressing station and continued the work of evacuating the wounded until exhausted from loss of blood. Home address, Mrs. M. L. Haskins, Elmwood, Conn.

Wagoner EDMUND R. HAMPSON, Company B, 101st Machine Gun Battalion. For extraordinary heroism in action near Trunzy, France, July 22, 1918. Although painfully wounded by machine-gun bullets, Wagoner Hampson courageously continued his duty of evacuating the wounded until exhausted from loss of blood. Home address, R. W. Hampson, father, Waterbury, Conn.

Pvt. ROBERT A. RHODES, Company M, 103d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France, July 20 and 22, 1918. East of Belleau Woods he continually carried messages under heavy machine-gun fire while acting as a runner. On July 22, near Epieds, he crossed an open gap swept by machine-gun fire in order to deliver an important message, and later was a voluntary member of a patrol which rescued wounded under fire from advanced positions. Home address, Mrs. Grace Cowan, 3117 Lafayette Avenue, St. Joseph, Mo.

Pvt. CHARLES G. BROWNVILLE, Medical Department, 103d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belleau, France, July 20 and 22, 1918. On July 20, 1918, and again on July 22, 1918, he was conspicuous for his untiring assistance to wounded under heavy fire of machine guns and his absolute fearlessness. Home address, Charles Gordon Brownville, 43 Main Street, Needham, Mass.

Pvt. DOUGLAS ROSS, Company K, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Vaux, France, July 16, 1918. Pvt. Ross killed two of the enemy who were attempting to establish a machine-gun position in a railroad station and captured their machine guns. Later, the same day, when snipers were working in a ravine near the American line, Pvt. Ross, with two other soldiers, went forward to drive them back. One of his comrades was killed, but Pvt. Ross, with great daring, attacked the Germans, killing one and wounding another. Home address, Hugh T. Ross, father, 66 Main Street, Ball, Mass.

Pvt. HENRY A. CHECNY, Company —, 103d Machine Gun Battalion. For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France, July 18-24, 1918. When his unit advanced on Belleau and Givry he was seriously wounded in the left arm, but continued to carry his heavy gun with his right arm through 1,200 meters of enemy fire and took up his position with his squad. When a shell struck his position, severely wounding a comrade and half burying him, the gun, and the remainder of the squad he extricated himself, assisted his companions to recover the gun, and remained at his post until ordered to a dressing station by his platoon commander. Home address, Edward Cheney, father, Hocksett, N. H.

Corpl. JOHN L. CASEY, Company I, 102d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France, July 23, 1918. After seeing three runners shot down while trying to cross an open field through violent machine gun fire to establish liaison with a regiment 500 yards away on his left, Corpl. Casey undertook the same mission and successfully accomplished it. Home address, M. D. Casey, father, R. F. D. 9, Fairfield, Conn.

First Lieut. ROBERT O. BLOOD, Medical Corps, 103d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Bouresches, France, July 20-23, 1918. Lieut. Blood remained with his battalion during the entire advance, working untiringly under heavy enemy fire at all times, superintending the evacuation of the wounded and caring for them in the most dangerous and exposed positions. On July 22 he established his dressing station in an advanced position that was constantly under shell fire, and many times left his station to go into the front lines to treat the wounded. Home address, Mrs. Robert R. Blood, Sharon, Mass.

Capt. THOMAS F. FOLEY, 101st Infantry, for repeated acts of extraordinary heroism in action near Vaux, France, July 15-22, 1918. Throughout the four days of the advance Capt. Foley commanded and led his battalion with exceptional bravery and judgment, thereby inspiring his men. When strong resistance was encountered he personally went forward and reconnoitered the terrain under heavy machine gun and sniper fire, and on July 15 and again on July 22 he personally led his battalion in successful attacks. Home address, Mrs. Thomas F. Foley, wife, 84 Lovell Street, Worcester, Mass.

First Lieut. HENRY A. RIACKE, 102d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Bouresches, France, July 20, 1918. When the advance of his company was temporarily held up by machine gun fire in front of Bouresches Lieut. Riackwent ahead alone and although hit three times by machine gun bullets, he continued to urge his men forward and by his example of fearlessness and grit inspired them to successful attack. Home address, Mrs. J. Berg, Meriden, Conn.

First Lieut. JOHN B. FEEGAL, 102d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Vaux, France, July 20, 1918. When his company was held up by a machine gun Lieut. Feegal went ahead, under fire, alone and killed the machine-gun operator with his pistol, thereby enabling his company to continue the advance. Home address, Mrs. Carrie Feegal, wife, 31 Park Street, Meriden, Conn.

First Lieut. W. J. BLYTHE, 104th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belleau, France, July 21, 1918. Lieut. Blythe, with two enlisted men, charged a machine-gun nest, captured two machine guns, and killed or captured 12 of the enemy. Home address, Mrs. William J. Blythe, wife, 152 Howe Street, Methen, Mass.

Second Lieut. JULIUS W. TOELKEN, 104th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Bouresches, France, July 20, 1918. When the advance of his platoon was checked by enemy machine-gun fire Lieut. Toelken crawled forward alone to a position from which he could fire, and killed three of the machine-gun crew, after which, with his platoon, he captured the gun and turned it on the foe. Home address, Julius Toelken, father, 145 Union Street, Springfield, Mass.

Second Lieut. HARRY M. NOEL, 103d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belleau Woods, France, July 20, 1918. Discovering a German machine-gun nest, which was inflicting severe damage upon his battalion, Lieut. Noel led 12 men to the right flank of the nest and charged it up a steep hill, under fire from other guns. He and his men wiped out this center of resistance and made possible the advance of his company. Although wounded himself, Lieut. Noel personally took command of large numbers of men of the company, after his captain and other platoon commanders had been killed or wounded, and advanced with them to the company's objective and held it. Home address, Mrs. Lena B. Noel, 4511 McPherson Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Sergt. CHARLES B. JOHNSON, Jr., Battery A, 101st Field Artillery. For extraordinary heroism in action north of Chateau Thierry, France, July 19, 1918. While his battery position was under shell fire and its ammunition dump had been hit and shells were exploding in it and the crew was ordered to leave, Sergt. Johnson remained, put out three fires in the dump, and afterwards, under heavy fire, searched for and brought wounded to shelter. Home address, Mrs. Louis K. Johnson, mother, Concord, Mass.

Corpl. ERNEST T. SEIBERT, 103d Ambulance Company, 101st Sanitary Train. For extraordinary heroism in action near Trunzy, France, July 23, 1918. Corpl. Seibert voluntarily rescued a wounded soldier who was lying on a shell-swept road by carrying him 500 yards on his back. Although wounded in the shoulder by a shell fragment, he courageously stuck to his task until it was successfully accomplished. His courageous act was an inspiration to his men. Home address, Mrs. Mary W. Seibert, mother, 802 Pangley Road, Newton, Mass.

Sergt. JOSEPH W. CASEY, Company F, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Epieds, France, July 23, 1918. Leading his platoon under a heavy machine gun barrage and through the fire of snipers from trees, he attacked two German machine gun nests, captured their guns and killed their crews. Sergt. Casey then saw three Germans crawling toward his men to open fire on them. He dashed forward, attached them single handed and killed them all. Home address, Mrs. Mary Casey, mother, 77 Exchange Street, Lawrence, Mass.

Sergt. JOHN L. CLABBY, Company F, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Epieds, France, July 23, 1918. During the advance by his platoon upon machine gun nests in Trunzy Woods, Sergt. Clabby observed a German machine gun on his right flank. He charged it single handed in the face of its fire, killed the gunners and destroyed the gun. Home address, Mrs. Helen T. Clabby, mother, 173 Valley Street, Providence, R. I.

Corpl. ODILON CUSTEAU, Company C, 103d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Belleau Woods, France, July 20, 1918. In the advance of the first wave, east from Belleau Woods, Corpl. Custeau cleaned out single handed a dugout of German machine guns. Home address, Miss Flora Primeau, 929 Lakeview Avenue, Lowell, Mass.

Sergt. HERBERT RATENBURG, Sanitary Detachment, 101st Machine Gun Battalion. For extraordinary heroism in action north of Chateau Thierry, France, July 22, 1918. Although wounded in three places by machine-gun bullets, he followed the attack and continued his duty, thereby inspiring his comrades. Home address, Mrs. Herbert Ratenburg, wife, 12 Webster Street, Rockville, Conn.

Sergt. S. L. NICKERSON, deceased, Company C, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Epieds, France, July 23, 1918. Sergt. Nickerson, Corpl. M. J. O'Connell, and Pvt. Thomas Ryan volunteered to cross an open field in front of their company in order to ascertain the location of enemy machine guns. While engaged in this courageous enterprise they were shot and killed. The heroic self-sacrifice of these three men saved the lives of many of their comrades, who would have been killed had the company attempted to make the advance as a whole. Next of kin, Mrs. H. F. Nickerson, grandmother, Warren Avenue, Middleboro, Mass.

Corpl. M. J. O'CONNELL, deceased, Company D, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Epieds, France, July 23, 1918. Corpl. O'Connell, Sergt. S. L. Nickerson, and Pvt. Thomas Ryan volunteered to cross an open field in front of their company in order to ascertain the location of enemy machine guns. While engaged in this courageous enterprise they were shot and killed. The heroic self-sacrifice of these three men saved the lives of many of their comrades, who would have been killed had the company attempted to make the advance as a whole. Next of kin, Martin O'Connell, brother, 79 Caroline Avenue, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Pvt. THOMAS RYAN, deceased, Company D, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Epieds, France, July 23, 1918. Pvt. Ryan, Sergt. S. L. Nickerson, and Corpl. M. J. O'Connell volunteered to cross an open field in front of their company in order to ascertain the location of enemy machine guns. While engaged in this courageous enterprise they were shot and killed. The heroic self-sacrifice of these three men saved the lives of many of their comrades, who would have been killed had the company attempted to make the advance as a whole. Next of kin, Mrs. Mary Ryan, mother, 36 East Dedham Street, Boston, Mass.

Sergt. EARL R. MCGUIRE, Company L, 104th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Belleau, France, July 18, 1918. After being severely wounded in the head, he struggled to his feet and led his platoon forward, instilling courage and confidence in his men. Home address, Mrs. James E. McGuire, mother, Lyonsville, Mass.

Sergt. JOHN E. DILLON, Company C, 102d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism near Chateau Thierry, France, July 22, 1918. After being wounded, he refused to go to the rear, but volunteered to act as a runner and repeatedly carried messages through the enemy barrage. Later same day he voluntarily joined a platoon and fought with it in a successful attack against the enemy's line. Home address, Mrs. Nora Dillon, mother, 56 Bright Street, New Haven, Conn.

Corpl. AUSTIN KELLEY, Company L, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Vaux, France, July 20, 1918. Corpl. Kelley and Pvts. Harold H. Rounds and John J. Grady penetrated the enemy's lines in the face of machine gun fire, captured a machine gun and its crew, and returned with valuable information concerning the enemy's positions. Home address, Mrs. Catherine Kelley, mother, 11 Vernon Street, Malden, Mass.

Pvt. HAROLD H. ROUNDS, Company L, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Vaux, France, July 20, 1918. Pvt. Rounds, Corpl. Austin J. Kelley, and Pvt. John J. Grady penetrated the enemy's lines in the face of machine gun fire, captured a machine gun and its crew, and returned with valuable information concerning the enemy's positions. Home address, Mrs. Ethel Rounds, mother, 247 Perry Street, Malden, Mass.

Pvt. JOHN J. GRADY, Company L, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Vaux, France, July 20, 1918. Pvt. Grady, Corpl. Austin J. Kelley, and Pvt. Harold E. Rounds penetrated the enemy's lines in the face of machine gun fire, captured a machine gun and its crew, and returned with valuable information concerning the enemy's positions. Home address, Mrs. Thomas Kelley, friend, 756 East Third Street, South Boston, Mass.

Mechanic JOSEPH A. THIBODEAU, Company L, 103d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Belleau Woods, France, July 18-23, 1918. During the early part of the action Mechanic Thibodeau assisted in the evacuation of wounded under severe artillery and machine gun fire. When a wound in the arm made it impossible for him to carry stretchers, he refused to be evacuated, but rejoined his company, went over the top with his comrades, and continued in action with them until wounded in the leg. Home address, Mrs. Harry Thibodeau, 30 Oxford Street, Lawrence, Mass.

Pvt. CHARLES E. RICHARDSON, Company L, 104th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belleau, France, July 21, 1918. Under the leadership of an officer Pvts. Richardson and Joseph R. Huntley charged a machine gun nest, captured two guns, and killed or captured 12 men. Home address, Mrs. P. J. Lee, foster mother, 242 Albion Street, Wakefield, Mass.

Pvt. JOSEPH R. HUNTLEY, Company T, 104th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belleau, France, July 21, 1918. Under the leadership of an officer Pvts. Huntley and Charles E. Richardson charged a machine-gun nest, captured two guns, and killed or captured 12 men. Home address, J. H. O'Sullivan, uncle, 101 Baldwin Street, Winchester, Mass.

Pvt. JOSEPH R. ROUSCH, 103d Ambulance Company, 101st Sanitary Train. For extraordinary heroism in action north of Chateau Thierry, France, July 18, 1918. While assisting a wounded infantry soldier under heavy shell fire, Pvt. Rousch was severely wounded in the face. Although his injury was more serious than that of the man whom he was attending, he carried the latter to an aid station, after which he voluntarily returned and assisted in first-aid work, inspiring his comrades by his example. Home address, Manis Rousch, father, Draper, S. Dak.

Pvt. ALBERT H. MCA RDLE, 103d Ambulance Company, 101st Sanitary Train. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belleau Woods, July 18, 1918. While giving first aid to a wounded soldier, who had fallen in a wheat field, in range of enemy fire, Pvt. McArdle received two machine-gun bullets through the thigh. In spite of his injury he continued at work until the soldier's wounds had been properly dressed and endeavored to carry him out of danger but fell exhausted from loss of blood. Home address, James McArdle, father, 20 Havre Street, East Boston, Mass.

Pvt. JAMES C. THOMPSON, Company C, 104th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Boursches, France, July 20, 1918. When wounded in the right arm he refused to be relieved from duty and continued the operation of his automatic rifle with his left hand. Later he volunteered to act as a runner and continued this duty until he fell exhausted. Home address, James Thompson, father, 4 Hollis Park, Cambridge, Mass.

Pvt. PHILLIP ROBERGE, Company D, 103d Machine-Gun Battalion. For extraordinary heroism in action near Belleau, France, July 18, 1918. Pvt. Roberge showed absolute disregard of personal danger while acting as litter bearer, bringing in wounded from his own and other companies under heavy machine-gun and artillery fire. While carrying a stretcher, which bore a wounded soldier, he received a wound which put out one of his eyes; yet he continued until the wounded man had been taken to the dressing station. Home address: Louis Roberge, father, 21 Byer Street, Danielson, Conn.

Pvt. MELLEN F. TUTTLE, Company B, 193d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action on Hill No. 190, near Chateau Thierry, France, July 20, 1918. When all of the men of the automatic-rifle team of which he was a member had been wounded, Pvt. Tuttle voluntarily advanced alone, attacked a number of enemy machine-gun nests which were holding up the advance, and forced the enemy to retreat, thereby making possible the continued forward movement of his detachment. Home address, W. C. Tuttle, Intervale, Me.

Pvt. WILLIAM H. GARRISON, Signal Corps, platoon, 101st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France, July 20-23, 1918. Pvt. Garrison displayed great personal bravery and skill in maintaining telephone lines between the regimental commander and the leading battalion for more than two days. He patrolled the line continuously and repaired it when it was cut during bombardment. Knocked down frequently by exploding shells and once buried beneath dirt and debris, he nevertheless stuck courageously to his task, thereby making communication possible. Home address, Mrs. In Garrison, mother, Pieche, Nev.

Pvt. BURTRICE ENDICOTT, Company C, 102d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Trugny, France, July 22, 1918. After five runners had been shot down trying to get through a heavy artillery barrage with a message to the battalion commander, Pvt. Endicott volunteered to carry the same message over the same route and succeeded. Home address, Samuel J. Endicott, father, Ridgeway, Ill.

Pvt. HENRY J. LAVIOLETTE, Company K, 104th Infantry, deceased. For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France, July 20-23, 1918. Pvt. Laviolette, acting as a runner, carried messages through heavy artillery fire with absolute fearlessness until killed. Next of kin, Mrs. Rose Pavalles, sister, 190 Broad Street, Marlboro, Mass.

Pvt. JESSE M. BAILEY, Sanitary Detachment, 103d Machine Gun Battalion. For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France, July 18-24, 1918. Pvt. Bailey gave an inspiring example of courage and coolness in treating wounded for two days without rest or food and under intense artillery and machine-gun fire. While maintaining a dressing station in a crater, an enemy shell struck in the center of the hole, wounding nearly all in the crater and severely injuring one man, who was buried in the earth and debris. Upon regaining consciousness Pvt. Bailey treated all of the wounded men, helped them to the first-aid station, returned and dug out the man who had been buried and left for dead, and succeeded in resuscitating him. At one time after three other runners had been killed and a fourth wounded, he passed over the same route, undaunted, to carry a message vitally necessary to the successful operation of his company. Home address, Mrs. Josephine Roy, mother, 117 Southgate Street, Worcester, Mass.

Chaplain WINFRED E. ROBB, 108th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism throughout the advance across the River Ourcq, northeast of Chateau Thierry, France, July 26, August 2, 1918. During the pursuit of the enemy by the 108th Infantry across the River Ourcq Chaplain Robb distinguished himself by his bravery under fire. During all of this time, and particularly during the operations near Sergy, he showed the greatest coolness under severe artillery fire in attending and carrying the wounded and dying, and in every way ministering to the needs of the men of his regiment. Home address, Mrs. Winifred E. Robb, wife, R. F. D. No. 1 Lebanon, Kans.

Pvt. J. H. BURCHFIELD, Medical Detachment, 16th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action throughout the operations south of Soissons, France, July 18-22, 1918. During the entire operation repeatedly exposed himself to heavy enemy fire in order to dress and evacuate the wounded. On July 22 he went through a heavy enemy barrage to render first aid to the wounded in the front line and to evacuate them to the rear, and was himself wounded while engaged in this work. Home address, Mrs. Alice Burchfield, mother, 214 East Park Street, Salem, Ohio.

Maj. HENRY W. HOBSON, 356th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Mihiel, France, September 12, 1918. Within 10 minutes after the beginning of the advance at 5 a. m., Maj. Hobson was twice wounded, once in the shoulder by a machine-gun bullet and once by shrapnel in the leg. Being in command of the assault battalion and realizing the importance of its operations, he continued to accompany and direct his command throughout the day, notwithstanding his wounds, which caused him great pain and difficulty of movement. At halts he had to be assisted to lie down and get up by his adjutant; nevertheless he remained on duty until the fighting of the day was over. Home address, Mrs. George McKenzie, care of A. D. Parker, 1706 Commercial Trust Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

Pvt. HENRY C. RICHMOND, Company M, 23d Infantry, deceased. For extraordinary heroism in action near Vaux, France, July 1-2, 1918. Pvt. CHRISTOPHER W. KRANE, medical detachment, 131st Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action at Hamel, Belgium, July 4, 1918. Throughout the engagement Pvt. Krane displayed great gallantry and devotion to duty by treating the wounded in an area swept by machine gun and artillery fire. When two stretcher bearers who were working with him were killed, he impressed German prisoners into the service of carrying wounded to the aid station. Home address, Mrs. Anna A. Keane, mother, 412 West Menard Street, Chicago, Ill.

Second Lieut. EARL W. PORTER, observer, Air Service. For extraordinary heroism in action near Lassigny, France, August 9, 1918. Lieut. Porter, with First Lieut. Charles Raymond Blake, pilot, while on a reconnaissance expedition at a low altitude and beyond the enemy lines, was attacked by five German battle planes. Although wounded at the beginning of the combat, Lieut. Porter shot down one of the enemy machines and by cool and courageous operation of his gun, while his pilot skillfully maneuvered the plane, fought off the others and made possible a safe return to friendly territory. Home address, Mrs. Amy Porter, 1008 Poplar Street, Atlantic Iowa.

First Lieut. LEO J. CRUM, Medical Corps, 122d Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Clerges, France, July 31, and August 1, 1918. During the attack against Clerges by his regiment, Lieut. Crum worked continuously and heroically under fire to treat and evacuate the wounded. When the house in which his first-aid station was located was struck by an enemy shell he safely evacuated all of his patients and promptly established another aid station near the front. His untiring efforts and personal bravery saved the lives of many wounded and suffering men and were a source of inspiration to the entire command. Home address, Mrs. Mary F. Crum, wife, 1329 Hill Crest Avenue, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Sergt. PAUL J. GASTON, sanitary detachment, 121st Machine Gun Battalion. For extraordinary heroism in action in front of Bellavue Farm, near Clerges,

SOLDIERS HONORED BY PERSHING FOR HEROISM

France, August 1, 1918. During the attack on Bellvue Farm, Sergt. Gaston worked energetically throughout the engagement, which continued from 2 to 10 p. m., to give first aid to the wounded and to carry them to the dressing station. He was under fire of snipers continuously and frequently went into shell and machine gun fire to administer to wounded soldiers. His calmness and courage was a source of inspiration to the combat troops. Home address, Howard L. Gaston, brother, Dysart, Iowa.

Pvt. JOSEPH A. MADDEN, medical detachment, 125th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Clerges and Fismes, France, July 31 to August 4, 1918. Throughout the advance by Company D, to which he was attached, Pvt. Madden's conduct, in treating the wounded under fire afforded an inspiring example of devotion to duty. He was in the front lines at all times administering relief, not only to men of his company, but to the wounded of other organizations in his vicinity. He voluntarily searched the woods and fields to give first aid to the wounded. In spite of heavy and continuous shell fire he continued working untiringly day and night, until exhausted. Home address, James Madden, father, 485 Ninth Street, Manistee, Mich.

Corpl. MARTIN J. KIAH, deceased, Company C, 1st Engineers. For extraordinary heroism in action near Soissons, France, July 20, 1918. When volunteers were called for by his company commander, Corpl. Pearce volunteered and rescued wounded comrades from a barrage. Disregarding danger to himself he continued the performance of these heroic deeds until killed. Next of kin, J. G. Pearce, father, 6932 Lockwood Street, Oakland, Cal.

Pvt. JOHN ROSKOWSKI, deceased, Company C, 1st Engineers, for extraordinary heroism in action near Soissons, France, July 20, 1918. When volunteers were called for by his company commander, Pvt. Roskowski volunteered and rescued wounded comrades from a barrage. Although wounded in the performance of these heroic deeds, he continued until killed by shell fire. Next of kin, Joe Roskowski, uncle, 1443 Augustus Street, Chicago, Ill.

Capt. CHARLES S. SHERIDAN, Company A, 128th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action on hill No. 230, near Clerges, France, July 3, and August 1, 1918. Capt. Sheridan demonstrated notable courage and leadership by taking command of the remnants of two companies and leading up the hill and into the woods against violent fire from the enemy. His grit and leadership inspired his men to force the enemy back. He personally shot and killed three of the enemy, and under his direction six machines were put out of action and the hill captured. Home address, A. D. Sheridan, father, Wilcott, Mont.

First Lieut. JOHN D. SPENCER, Company B, 127th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action at Fismes, France, August 4, 1918. While leading his company in the attack against Fismes, Lieut. Spencer was knocked down and severely wounded by machine-gun fire. Without regard to his wounds, he regained his feet and continued to lead his command until again severely wounded. Home address, Mrs. John D. Spencer, wife, Oshkosh, Wis.

Chaplain THOMAS E. SWAN, 125th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action between the Marne and Vesle Rivers, July 31-August 6, 1918. During the heavy fighting near the Ourcq River this officer was in the front lines at all times, under heavy machine-gun and artillery fire, throughout the day and night, comforting and aiding the wounded. On one occasion he crossed a field 200 yards wide, under violent shell fire, to administer to two soldiers who had been mortally wounded. In the operations near Mont St. Martin he continually went back and forth over the crest of a hill during heavy artillery fire to care for the wounded. Home address, Mrs. Thomas E. Swan, wife, Saginaw, Mich.

Sergt. RUSSELL V. SOMES, Company I, 125th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Clerges, France, July 31, 1918. Sergt. Somes advanced in front of his lines on the right of hill No. 212 under heavy machine-gun fire and rescued three wounded soldiers. Later he went out into an advanced machine-gun position where three men had already been killed and rescued the only survivor, who had been blinded by shell fire and could not help himself. Home address, Edward Somes, father, 306 Young Street, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Pvt. OLAF OLSEN, Company I, 127th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Juvigny, France, August 31, 1918. Pvt. Olsen was a squad leader in the second platoon. After reaching his objective he displayed extraordinary qualities of leadership in organizing scattering squads of Company I and placing them in advantageous position in spite of severe machine-gun fire and artillery bombardment. His disregard of danger and fine leadership were an inspiration to his comrades. Home address, Mrs. Mahaz Duhrer, mother, 1102 Banks Avenue, Superior, Wis.

Pvt. FRANCISZAK DUNZINSKI, Company I, 120th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Clerges, France, July 31, 1918, under heavy machine-gun fire, Pvt. Dunzinski went out in front of the position of his unit and administered first aid to three wounded men, being himself wounded while engaged in this courageous service. Home address, Miss Mary Duzinski, sister, 8815 Twenty-third Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Pvt. BERNARD SCHULTHEIS, machine gun company, 125th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Terry Holny, north of Soissons, France, September 1, 1918. When the infantry was advancing in a position exposed to cross-fire, Pvt. Schultheis volunteered and carried a message to the advancing troops, informing them that a machine-gun barrage laid down on the enemy emplacements was friendly fire from a unit not in their support and acting without orders to cover their advance. He delivered the message, returned across an open field swept by enemy machine guns, and thereby made it possible for the infantry unit to advance 400 meters and gain its objective. Home address, Andrew Schultheis, father, 1015 Smith Street, Flint, Mich.

Pvt. (first class) EVERETT C. DRESSSELL, Machine Gun Company, 125th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Juvigny, France, August 31, 1918. After his company had captured two enemy field pieces and a large quantity of ammunition, enemy artillery attempted to blow up the ammunition with incendiary shells. Pvt. Dressell, at great risk to his life from the explosion of shells and grenades, extinguished the fires, thereby insuring the safety of his comrades and the retention, by his company, of its advanced position. Home address, Fred Dressell, father, South Haven, Mich.

Second Lieut. DAVID C. BEEBE, pilot, 50th Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Mihiel, France, September 13, 1918. Lieut. Beebe, with Second Lieut. Franklin B. Bellows, observer, executed a reconnaissance mission early in the morning of the second day of the St. Mihiel offensive, in spite of clouds, high wind and mist, flying at an altitude of only 300 meters and without protection of accompanying battle planes. Although subjected to severe fire from ground batteries they penetrated 8 kilometers behind the German lines. Lieut. Beebe's motor was badly damaged and his observer, Lieut. Bellows, was mortally wounded. Despite these conditions he succeeded in bringing the disabled machine safely to his lines. Home address, C. D. Beebe, father, 622 James Street, Syracuse, N. Y.

Lieut. FRANKLIN D. BELLOWES, deceased, observer, 50th Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Mihiel, France, September 13, 1918. Lieut. Bellowes, with Second Lieut. David C. Beebe, pilot, executed a reconnaissance mission early in the morning of the second day of the St. Mihiel offensive, in spite of low clouds, high wind and mist, flying at an altitude of only 300 meters and without protection of accompanying battle planes. Although subjected to severe fire from ground batteries, they penetrated 8 kilometers beyond the German lines. Lieut. Beebe's motor was badly damaged and Lieut. Bellowes was mortally wounded and died just after the disabled machine landed safely in friendly territory. Next of kin, John A. Bellowes, father, 1109 Greenwood Avenue, Wilmette, Ill.

First Lieut. JOSEPH W. SMITH, 166th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Baussay, northeast of St. Mihiel, France, September 12, 1918. Finding that his platoon would be under heavy fire of enemy machine guns while crossing the Rupt de Mad, Lieut. Smith, rather than permit the advance to be delayed, unhesitatingly plunged into the stream, crossed it under heavy fire, ascertained the exact location of the enemy, brought his platoon through the river by a protected route, and with it flanked and captured 6 machine guns and 19 prisoners. Home address, Mrs. Ritta L. Smith, mother, 1704 Congress Avenue, Austin, Tex.

First Lieut. CHARLES O'BRIEN, deceased, 306th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Le Cendriere woods, near the Aisne Canal, September 6, 1918. Lieut. O'Brien led his platoon forward toward the Le Cendriere woods under heavy shell fire. When wounded in the left leg, one of his men urged him to stop and have the wound dressed. He answered, "Never mind that; they can't stop us," and led his platoon through the woods to the bank of the Aisne Canal, where, while placing his men in position, he was struck again and killed. His dauntless courage presented an inspiring example to the men of his platoon. Next of kin, Mrs. M. O'Brien, mother, 44 North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

First Lieut. LEON MARCHAND, 262d Infantry, French Army, attached to 30th United States Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action during the battle of the Marne, July 15, 1918. Lieut. Marchand repeatedly displayed superb courage by voluntarily proceeding from the regimental command post dugout to an observation post on the edge of the woods through intense shell fire, in order to observe the progress of the action and obtain information necessary for the commanding officer. The superb courage of Lieut. Marchand was an inspiration to the men of the regiment to which he was attached.

SOLDIERS HONORED BY PERSHING FOR HEROISM

Interpreter ALFRED DU BOIS, French mission, attached to headquarters 6th Field Artillery. For extraordinary heroism in action near Missy au Bois, France, July 18, 1918. He voluntarily exposed himself to heavy shell fire while carrying wounded men to a place of safety.

First Sergt. HERMAN M. SELL, Company A, 306th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action in La Cendriere woods, near Vauxere, between the Vesie and the Aisne, France, September 6, 1918. First Sergt. Sell volunteered to deliver a message of great importance to his battalion commander after six runners, who had been sent with the same message, failed to return. He voluntarily crossed 600 yards of open field swept by shell and machine-gun fire, reached his destination, accomplished his mission and returned to his company with information of vital importance. Home address, F. Sell, 1862 Decatur Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Cook WILLIAM SHEFRIN, deceased, Company C, 306th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action in the Ravine de L'Homme Mort, near Vauxere, between the Vesie and the Aisne Rivers, September 5, 1918. After both of his feet had been blown off by a bursting shell, Cook Shefrin, although mortally wounded, coolly directed the work of rescuing and caring for other wounded men of the kitchen detachment who had been wounded when his transport was struck. Next of kin, Nathan Shefrin, father, 210 Seventeenth Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Pvt. GEORGE MUNROE, deceased, Company K, 104th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau-Thierry, France, July 20-23, 1918. Pvt. Munroe acting as a runner, carried messages through heavy artillery fire with absolute fearlessness until killed. Next of kin, G. Searles, friend, 93 West Street, East Hampton, Mass.

Second Lieut. R. E. DECASTRO, Air Service, First Aero Squadron, pilot. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Mihiel, France, September 12, 1918. Because of intense aerial activity on the opening day of the St. Mihiel offensive, Lieut. Decastro, pilot, and First Lieut. A. E. Esterbrook, observer, volunteered to fly over the enemy's lines on a photographic mission, without the usual protection of accompanying battle planes. Notwithstanding the low hanging clouds, which necessitated operation at an altitude of only 400 meters, they penetrated 4 kilometers beyond the German lines. Attacked by four enemy machines they fought their foes, completed their photographic mission, and returned safely. Home address, Mrs. M. G. Decastro, mother, 601 East Seventeenth Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

First Lieut. A. E. EASTERBROOK, Air Service, observer, First Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Mihiel, France, September 12, 1918. Because of intense aerial activity on the opening day of the St. Mihiel offensive, Lieut. Esterbrook, observer, and Second Lieut. R. E. Decastro, pilot, volunteered to fly over the enemy's lines on a photographic mission, without the usual protection of accompanying battle planes. Notwithstanding the low hanging clouds, which necessitated operation at an altitude of only 400 meters, they penetrated 4 kilometers beyond the German lines. Attacked by four enemy machines they fought off their foes, completed their photographic mission, and returned safely. Home address, Maj. E. P. Esterbrook, father, Fort Flagler, Wash.

First Lieut. WILLIAM P. ERWIN, Air Service, 1st Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action in the Chateau-Thierry and St. Mihiel salients, France. Lieut. Erwin, with Second Lieut. Byrne E. Bancom, observer, by a long period of faithful and heroic operations set an inspiring example of courage and devotion to duty to his entire squadron. Throughout the Chateau-Thierry actions in June and July, 1918, he flew under the worst weather conditions and successfully carried out his missions in the face of heavy odds. In the St. Mihiel sector, September 12-15, 1918, he repeated his previous courageous work. He flew as low as 50 feet from the ground behind the enemy's lines harassing German troops with machine-gun fire and subjecting himself to attack from ground batteries, machine guns, and rifles. He twice drove off enemy planes which were attempting to destroy an American observation balloon. On September 12-13 he flew at extremely low altitudes and carried out Infantry contact patrols successfully. Again on September 12 he attacked a German battery, forced the crew to abandon it, shot off of his horse a German officer who was trying to escape, drove the cannoneers to their dugouts, and kept them there until the Infantry could come up and capture them. Home address, William A. Erwin, father, 814 Fine Arts Building, Chicago, Ill.

Corpl. ALDEN BUSH, deceased, Company C, 125th Infantry. During the attack on and capture of the village of Clerges, northeast of Chateau-Thierry, France, August 1, 1918, Corpl. Bush was fatally wounded. In spite of his wound he struggled forward, urging on and inspiring his men, and keeping up with the attacking wave until he fell. Next of kin, R. E. Bush, father, Rockford, Mich.

Sergt. MATTHEW SPAUTZ, deceased, Company A, 163th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near the River Ourcq, northeast of Chateau-Thierry, France. During the advance of July 30, 1918, while in command of his platoon, Sergt. Spautz showed extraordinary heroism, leading his men on in the advance having three times been knocked down by enemy shells. After having been wounded by machine-gun fire, he still continued to advance. He was finally killed while doing his utmost to advance. Next of kin, Michael Spautz, Davis Avenue, Dubuque, Iowa.

Corpl. HARRY B. HORGAN, deceased, Company C, 165th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action at Ferme De Meurky, near Villers-Sur-Fere, France, July 31, 1918. After his platoon had moved from an open field to the cover of the woods, Corpl. Horgan returned to the field under heavy machine-gun fire to rescue a wounded comrade lying in an exposed position and was killed by the side of the man he tried to save. Next of kin, Mr. J. C. Watson, Congress Junction, Ariz.

Pvt. FRANK FLEISCHMAN, deceased, Company K, 116th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Baischwiller, Alsace, August 31, 1918. After a raid against enemy trenches, he volunteered to accompany his platoon leader into No Man's Land to rescue a missing member of the platoon who had been wounded. While engaged in this courageous duty he was mortally wounded. Next of kin, Charles Fleischman, father, Chesaco Park, Back River, Md.

Sergt. FRANK ANDREA, deceased, Company G, 11th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Crezaney, France, July 16, 1918. Sergt. Andrea was told by a runner that an enemy patrol had captured two ambulances containing American wounded on the road east of his position. He organized a relief party, personally commanded it, drove the enemy to route, recovered the ambulance and the wounded men and brought them back to our lines. Next of kin, Mrs. Chris Stoen, sister, Berisford, S. Dak.

First Lieut PHIL A. HENDERSON, Unit of States Aviation Section 12th Aero Squadron, (observer). For extraordinary heroism in the Toul sector France August 28 1918. While on an unopposed reconnaissance mission with Lieut Edward Orr pilot he encountered a patrol of eight enemy pursuit planes near the American balloon lines. When Lieut Orr attacked the planes which had divided at the American balloon Lieut Henderson engaged the other eight enemy machines which were attacking from the rear. In the violent battle which followed all nine of the enemy were driven off. Home address: A. G. Henderson, father care United States Fish Hatchery Kalamazoo Mich.

First Lieut EDWARD ORR, deceased, pilot United States Aviation Section 12th Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action in the Toul sector France August 28 1918. Lieut Orr flying with pilot Phil A. Henderson observer on an unopposed reconnaissance mission, encountered a patrol of eight enemy pursuit planes near the American balloon line. The patrol was sighted just as one of them dived on the balloon with the intention of destroying it. Without hesitation Lieut Orr attacked this plane and followed it to within 50 meters firing his single front gun against the double guns with which the German plane was equipped. In the meantime Lieut Henderson engaged the other eight planes, which attacked from the rear. After a violent combat all of the enemy planes were driven off. On September 14 Lieut Orr was accidentally killed. Next of kin, E. K. Orr father 5331 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago Ill.

Second Lieut BYRNE E. BAUCOM, S. C. observer 1st Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action in the Chateau Thierry and St. Mihiel salients, France. Lieut Baucum with First Lieut William P. Erwin pilot by a long period of faithful and heroic operations set an inspiring example of courage and devotion to duty by his entire squadron. Through out the Chateau Thierry actions in June and July, 1918, he flew under the worst weather conditions and successfully carried out his missions in the face of heavy odds. In the St. Mihiel sector September 12-16, 1918, he repeated his previous courageous work. He flew as low as 50 feet from the ground behind the enemy's lines harassing German troops with machine guns and rifles. He twice drove off enemy planes which were attempting to destroy an American observation balloon. On September 12-13, he flew at extremely low altitudes and carried out infantry contact patrols successfully. Again on September 12 he attacked a German battery forced the crew to abandon it, shot off his horse a German officer who was trying to escape drove the cannoneers to their dugouts and kept them there until the infantry could come up and capture them. Home address: Mrs. Lillian Elizabeth Baucum mother Milford Tex.

Lieut CHARLES A. SHAW, Company E 353d Infantry, deceased. For extraordinary heroism in action during the offensive against the St. Mihiel salient, France September 12-13 1918. Second Lieut A. F. BONNALLE, pilot, Air Service. For extraordinary heroism in action near Brois, Belgium August 13 1918. This officer led two other machines on a long photographic mission over the area north of Brois. Over throughout they were attacked by six enemy planes while heavily engaged. Lieut Bonnalle saw one of his machines in difficulty and trying to make out lines with an enemy plane close at his tail. Regardless of his own danger from the remaining planes he dived to the assistance of the crippled plane. Taking advantage of his position several enemy planes attacked him from the rear but in the face of this rear attack he drove off the enemy plane and allowed the damaged plane to land within our lines. Half of Lieut Bonnalle's tail plane was shot away but with his observer fighting off the enemy from the rear they remained our lines and with the elevator control shot through made a landing. Home address: Mrs. H. T. Bonnalle mother 2521 Mission Street San Francisco Cal.

Corpl FRANK SMITH, Company K, 166th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Bussart north east of St. Mihiel France September 12 1918. While advancing in the assault he spotted a German about to open fire with a machine gun which would have taken in enfilade his entire platoon. He killed the German with a single rifle shot. The other three of the machine gun crew fled but he pursued them alone cut them off from the rear and captured all three. Later in the same village he captured single handedly 10 of the enemy in one group. His quick vision, excellent marksmanship and absolute fearlessness were of the greatest value in overcoming the enemy's resistance. Home address: William P. Smith father Gate City, Kans.

Pvt HOWARD D. JILLSON, Company F 309th Infantry for extraordinary heroism in action in Pois de H. H. bat, northeast of Toul, France September 17 1918. Clarence C. Kahle, pilot, were directed to take photographs of the old Hindenburg line. They were accompanied by two protecting planes. After they had taken some photographs the protecting planes were driven off by hostile aircraft, but Lieut. Hill and his pilot continued on their mission alone, until in the vicinity of La Chausse they were attacked by an enemy formation of nine planes. Putting up a gallant fight against these overwhelming odds, Lieut. Hill was shot through the heart and killed; but his pilot, by his pluck, determination, skill, and courage, brought home the photographs and the plane to our lines. Home address, Mrs. Raymond C. Hill, wife, post office box 104, 1411 Tenth Street, Lewiston, Idaho.

Second Lieut. PAUL J. O'DONNELL, deceased, Infantry, 96th Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action near Dunsurmeuse, France, September 26, 1918. Lieut. O'Donnell's formation was attacked, while flying to bomb Dunsurmeuse, by seven enemy planes. With the first spurt of enemy fire, Lieut. O'Donnell was fatally wounded. With his last strength he opened a deliberate and destructive fire on one of the enemy planes, driving it down out of control. Home address, Mrs. Adie O'Donnell, mother, 614 Fourteenth Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

Second Lieut. HOWARD G. RATH, observer, 96th Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action between Chambley and Xannes, France, September 13, 1918. Lieut. Rath, while acting as leading observer of a flight of three planes, was attacked by 15 enemy planes. In spite of the fact that his formation was surrounded by an enemy five times as large, he carried out successfully his mission and bombed his objective. In the return running fight, Lieut. Rath and his pilot continued the unequal fight and succeeded in returning to their airdrome with valuable information. Home address, Walter F. Rath, brother, Pasadena, Cal.

Second Lieut. ARTHUR R. BROOKS, Air Service. For extraordinary heroism in action over Marslatour, France, September 14, 1918. Lieut. Brooks, when his patrol was attacked by 12 enemy Fokkers over Marslatour, 8 miles within the enemy lines, alone fought bravely and relentlessly with eight of them, pursuing the fight from 5,000 meters to within a few meters of the ground, and though his right rudder control was out and his plane riddled with bullets, he destroyed two Fokkers, one falling out of control, and the other bursting into flames. Home address, Frank E. Brooks, father, New Kendall Hotel, Framingham, Mass.

First Lieut. EDWARD V. RICKENBACKER, Air Service, 94th Aero Squadron. For the following act of extraordinary heroism. The bronze oak leaf is awarded to be worn on the distinguished service cross awarded October 16, 1918: On September 14, 1918, in the region of Villecy, he attacked four Fokker enemy planes at an altitude of 3,000 meters. After a sharp and hot action, he succeeded in shooting one down in flames and dispersing the other three. For the following act of extraordinary heroism, a bronze oak leaf is awarded to be worn on the distinguished service cross awarded October 16, 1918: On September 15, 1918, in the region of Boisdeuville, he encountered six enemy planes, which were in the act of attacking four Spads, which were below them. Undeterred by their superior numbers, he unhesitatingly attacked them and succeeded in shooting one down in flames and completely breaking the formation of the others. Home address, Mrs. William Rickenbacker, 1834 East Livingston Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

Pvt. HAROLD BATLEY, Company C, 308th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Dadonvillers, France, June 24, 1918. Batley, father, Orchard Street, Rochester, N. Y.

Maj. CARL SPATZ, pilot, Air Service. For extraordinary heroism in action during the St. Mihiel offensive, September 26, 1918. Maj. Spatz, although he had received orders to go to the United States, begged for and received permission to serve with a pursuit squadron at the front. Subordinating himself to men of lower rank, he was attached to a squadron as a pilot and saw conditions and arduous service through the offensive. As a result of his efficient work he was promoted to the position of flight commander. Knowing that another attack was to take place in the vicinity of Verdun, he remained on duty in order to take part. On the day of the attack west of the Meuse, while with his patrol over enemy lines, a number of enemy aircraft were encountered. In the combat that followed, he succeeded in bringing down two enemy planes. In his ardor and enthusiasm he became separated from his patrol while following another enemy far beyond the lines. His gas giving out, he was forced to land and managed to land within friendly territory. Through these acts he became an inspiration and example to all men with whom he was associated.

First Lieut. KARL G. PAYNE, Air Service, 20th Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action near Longuyon, France, September 16, 1918. Starting on a very important daylight bombing mission with five other planes, Lieut. Payne, observer, went on alone when the other five planes were forced to turn back. On crossing the German lines he was attacked by three enemy planes. Using his guns to keep the enemy at bay, he went on, reached his objective and dropped his bombs on the railroad junction, cutting the line. On the way back four more planes joined in the attack, but keeping them at bay with his guns, he reached the allied lines. Home address, Edward Payne, father, 10 Myrtle Street, Belmont, Mass.

First Lieut. CECIL G. SELLERS, Air Service, 20th Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action near Longuyon, France, September 16, 1918. Starting on a very important bombing mission with five other planes, Lieut. Sellers, pilot, went on alone when the other five machines were forced to turn back. On crossing the enemy lines, he was attacked by three enemy planes, but continued toward his objectives while his observer kept them at bay. In the face of this hostile opposition the objective was reached and their bombs dropped. On the way back four more planes joined in the attack, but fighting them off they reached our lines with valuable information, after a fight lasting 38 minutes. Home address, Hamilton Sellers, brother, 350 Stonewall Place, Memphis, Tenn.

First Lieut. BRADLEY J. GAYLORD, pilot, first day bombardment group, Air Service. For extraordinary heroism in action between Chambley and Xannes, France, September 13, 1918. Lieut. Gaylord, while leading an important mission with two other planes, was attacked by 15 enemy planes. Nevertheless, he and his observer carried out the mission, bombed the objective in a running fight, and shot down at least one enemy plane. Home address, Mrs. Harvey R. Gaylord, mother, 113 High Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

First Lieut. CHARLES R. DOLIVE, pilot, Air Service, 93rd Aero Squadron. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Benoit, France, September 12, 1918. Lieut. Dolive, in conjunction with another American pilot, engaged and fought five enemy planes. Outnumbered and fighting against tremendous odds, Lieut. Dolive shot down three enemy planes and outfought the entire enemy formation. Home address, Mrs. E. Parson Dolive, 4040 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

First Lieut. J. DICKINSON ESTE, 13th Aero Squadron, Air Service. For extraordinary heroism in action near Chambley, France, September 13, 1918. Lieut. Este was leading an offensive patrol of five machines when a formation of seven enemy single seaters approached the patrol from above. Although outnumbered and in a very disadvantageous position, he did not hesitate to lead his patrol to the attack. Through the combat which followed, Lieut. Este fought with the greatest bravery, in spite of the fact that he was himself attacked by two enemy planes which fired at him at point-blank range from the rear and above. By his skill and courage, he was able to keep his formation together, and they succeeded in shooting down three of the enemy planes, of which Lieut. Este himself destroyed one and drove down another out of control.

Keep Bulletin Posted In All U. S. Post Offices

Reports having been made that at some post offices THE OFFICIAL U. S. BULLETIN is not being posted regularly for public reading in accordance with Postmaster General Burleson's orders, postmasters are again reminded of this important duty. It should be remembered that THE BULLETIN is the only publication available to all sections of the country that prints daily the complete and correct casualty lists from our armies overseas exactly as they are issued by the War Department. Many newspapers print only the lists having local interest in their own territory. THE BULLETIN prints every name and address, thus making it a certain means of informing friends and relatives, wherever they may be, of the fate of a soldier or sailor, no matter where his home town or city.

Postmasters are urged, aside from their duty as officials, to make it their patriotic and personal duty to see that the public has the fullest benefit of this privilege.

The Postmaster General's order follows:

All postmasters are directed to post THE OFFICIAL U. S. BULLETIN daily in a conspicuous place in the lobby or other portion of their respective post-office buildings where the public can read it; and, without expense to the Government, each and every postmaster is earnestly urged to see that this BULLETIN is made available to as many people as possible in the manner suggested.

A. S. BURLESON,
Postmaster General.
