PRESIDENT WILSON GUEST OF THE BRITISH NATION; MET AT RAILWAY STATION BY THE KING AND QUEEN

LONDON CROWDS CHEER AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE

*Escorted by Warships Across
The Channel and by Guard
Of Honor Through London Streets—Appears on Palace Balcony With Mrs.
Wilson and King and Queen and Thanks People
For Welcome.*

President and Mrs. Wilson arrived in London, England, yesterday from France, to be the guests of the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace for a few days. The President's party was met at the Charing Cross station by the King and Queen, the Princess Mary, the prime minister, several members of the war cabinet, and a number of the principal military and naval officers of the empire. After the introductions had been made and greetings exchanged the King and the President inspected the guard of honor. The party then entered state carriages and was driven to Buckingham Palace, the King, President Wilson, and the Duke of Connaught, who had met the President's party at Dover, riding in the first carriage and the Queen, Mrs. Wilson, and Princess Mary in the second.

Party Appears on Balcony.

After the arrival at Buckingham Palace, in response to the cheers from the crowd without, the President and Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by the King, Queen, Princess Mary, and the Duke of Connaught, appeared on the balcony, and the President thanked the citizens of London for their welcome.

The President's party crossed the Straits of Dover on a steamer, four French cruisers accompanying the ship to the middle of the straits, where six British warships relieved them and escorted the President to Dover, where the mayor of the city, the Duke of Connaught, and American ambassador were waiting to receive him. The mayor of Dover read an address of welcome, to which the President replied as follows:

"Mr. Mayor: You have certainly extended to me and to those who are ac-

ATTEMPT TO KILL SEMENOFF IS REPORTED FROM OMSK

Acting Secretary of State Phillips announced to-day that an indirect report from Omsk, dated December 24, says an attempt was made to kill Semenoff in Chita, the would-be assassin throwing a hand grenade. Semenoff was not seriously wounded. A small Bolshevik uprising occurred in a town near Omsk. There have been small disturbances at Krasnoyarsk and other points, but there is no other news of general interest regarding the Bolshevik activities in Siberia.

The main guards of the Bolshevik army in Russia, according to information reaching the department from Bucharest, consist of Austrian and Hungarian war prisoners, 50,000 men from the Baltic provinces, and about 40,000 Chinese workmen, the rest comprising more than 500,000 Russians forced to join the Bolsheviks through fear of their lives and lack of food. Food is very scarce in Moscow, and even the Bolshevik army is feeling this scarcity of supplies. There are fears that the Bolsheviks will capture Odessa and Kiev.

Chinese Envoy to Paris Wires Christmas Greeting To Secretary of State

A Christmas greeting has been received by the State Department from the minister for foreign affairs of China, now on his way across the United States to the Paris Peace Conference. Addressing the Secretary of State, the Chinese foreign minister telegraphed from Montana: "Spending the Christmas holidays on the very hospitable soil of the United States of America, I am delighted to avail myself of that happy coincidence to offer to your excellency my warmest felicitations and also the most sincere wishes for your personal happiness and the prosperity of the American Nation."

He added that he took this opportunity to address to the American Republic "the fraternal greetings of her younger sister, the Chinese Republic."

ON TELEPHONE COMMITTEE.

Postmaster General Burleson has appointed Prof. A. N. Holcombe, of Harvard University and the United States Bureau of Efficiency, to serve on the committee, of which David J. Lewis is chairman, to consider standardizing the rate schedules of telephone service. The other members of the committee are Harry B. Thayer, vice president American Telephone & Telegraph Co.; Charles Y. McVey, president Ohio State Telephone Co.; and Noah W. Simpson, Missouri Public Service Commission.

EXPLAINS DIFFERENCE BETWEEN WAR-RISK "INSURANCE" AND "COMPENSATION" AS BENEFITS

STATEMENT BY SECRETARY GLASS

*Not Necessary to Prove Dependency
To Collect Insurance, as Some Have Erroneously Supposed, but Is Required in Compensation Cases.*

Statement by Secretary Glass:

Considerable confusion and much misunderstanding seems to prevail among the relatives and beneficiaries of men in the military and naval service as to their rights under the war risk insurance act. Many mothers and fathers named as beneficiaries of the Government insurance applied for by their sons have gained the impression that they must prove dependency in order to receive payments of insurance. This is an entirely erroneous impression, probably due to a confusion of the insurance and compensation provisions of the act of Congress of October 6, 1917, and to a mistaken assumption that the terms "insurance" and "compensation" are used interchangeably, whereas they represent two entirely separate and distinct benefits.

The Difference Explained.

Insurance is payable regardless of any dependency and a beneficiary designated in an application for Government insurance, if within the permitted class of spouse, child, grandchild, parent, brother, or sister, is entitled to receive the insurance in monthly installments without proving any dependency upon the insured.

"Compensation", however, which is separate and apart from insurance and takes the place of the pensions provided under the old pension system is payable only to a wife, child, dependent mother or dependent father of a man who is disabled or dies as a result of injury suffered or disease contracted in the line of duty while employed in the active service. Compensation may be payable in addition to insurance, but a mother or father must prove actual dependency in order to receive monthly payments of compensation, although they will receive the insurance in monthly installments if named as the beneficiary thereof whether they are dependent or not.

Payment of Compensation.

No dependency need be shown by any beneficiary in order to receive the Government insurance, but a mother or father must prove actual dependency upon their deceased son for the necessities of life in order to receive the additional payment of compensation.

BLANKET LICENSE FOR EXPORT TO ALSACE AND LORRAINE

War Trade Board Also Announces Broadening Trade Program With Many European Nations.

Signal consideration to Alsace and Lorraine, the lost Provinces which France has wrested again from Germany, and a rapidly broadening trade program with many nations are announced by Vance McCormick, Chairman of the War Trade Board. It was ordered by the board that goods may be shipped to these two Provinces under a blanket export license already granted to France. Attention was called to the fact that the French Government is requiring import certificates on all shipments to this territory.

Wide Range of New Order.

The general resumption of trade relations, as now in prospect, reaches countries from the Arctic Ocean to the Tropics. Resumption of private trade with Finland, under adequate control, is under immediate consideration it was stated. The precise form of this control with the purpose of preventing exportations from falling into improper hands has not been determined. It was learned that a possible procedure under consideration was that consuls of the associated governments at Helsingfors form themselves into inter-allied trade councils, working in connection with the Inter-Allied Trade Council at Stockholm, and obtain proper guarantees from importers.

Exports to Russia.

Export licenses to approved consignees and approved destinations in Russia have been authorized by the board, and import licenses also from approved consignors in approved territories have been authorized. Trade relations with the Bolshevik sections of Russia are not being considered.

Trade to Serbia and Roumania is being resumed, and it was announced that notice will be given in the near future of the opening of trade facilities with Syria, Palestine, and Mesopotamia.

A cablegram transmitted to the board announced that the Government of India had opened the door to the importation of motor cars, motorcycles, and their parts and accessories.

All of these relaxations, it was announced, are made after interallied conference and are put into effect simultaneously by all the countries involved.

2,000 YOUNG MEN ARE WANTED TO TRAIN FOR MERCHANT SHIPS

Two thousand young Americans are needed at once to train for service in the United States merchant marine, it is announced by the Shipping Board. Because of the rapid delivery of cargo vessels, which are now to be manned exclusively by merchant crews, there is an unusual demand for men to be trained, which must be met within a few weeks.

Of the 2,000 men now wanted, 1,500 are to take the places of apprentices just sent to sea from the ships of the board's Atlantic training squadron, based at Boston, and 500 for its Pacific training ship Iris, based at San Francisco.

Volunteers are requested to apply for enrollment to any of the board's drug-store recruiting officers or to write Henry Howard, its director of recruiting service, Boston, Mass.

Rapid Grain Movement For Overseas Shipment

According to the report of the Exports Control Committee for the week ended December 19, made public by Director General McAdoo, the movement of grain and grain products intended for consumption overseas continued to a marked degree. At the North Atlantic ports elevators are in position to handle all the grain available and there is ample vessel tonnage on hand for the removal of flour and other foodstuffs. Arrangements have been made to unload on the piers a large number of cars which it is the intention to keep as a reserve supply, the ships to be fed with current arrivals. Sufficient Belgian relief steamers arrived to clear approximately 1,000,000 bushels of grain, and it is expected that enough vessels will be available to clear about 1,500,000 bushels of grain during the coming week.

3343, instead of by requisition on the department. This is for the purpose of securing more prompt deliveries in the few remaining days of the year.

PRESIDENT WILSON THE GUEST OF BRITISH KING AND QUEEN

companied me a very cordial and gracious hand of welcome. Even the sea was kind to us this morning and gave us a very pleasant passage so that it tallied perfectly with our expectations of the pleasure we should have in landing in England.

"We have gone through many serious times together and therefore we can regard each other in a new light as comrades and associates, because nothing brings men together like a common understanding and a common purpose. I think that in spite of all the terrible sufferings and sacrifices of this war we shall some day, in looking back upon them, realize that they were worth while not only because of the security they gave the world against unjust aggression, but also because of the understanding they established between great nations which ought to act with each other in the permanent maintenance of justice and of right. It is, therefore, with emotions of peculiar gratification that I find myself here. It affords the opportunity to match my mind with the minds of those who, with a like intention, are purposing to do the best that can be done in the great settlements of the struggle. I thank you very warmly, gentlemen, for your greeting, and beg to extend to you, in the name of my own countrymen, the most cordial greeting."

The President's party then entered a royal train and proceeded to Charing Cross station at London.

MAY IMPORT WALNUTS AND FILBERTS.

The War Trade Board announces that List of Restricted Imports No. 1, item 35, has been amended by the removal of walnuts and filberts therefrom. Licenses may now be issued, when the applications therefor are otherwise in order, to import walnuts and filberts from any primary or overseas market for shipment on and after December 27, 1918.

President Wilson Addressing American Troops in France, Voices Nation's Pride in Their Valorous Achievements

On Christmas day President Wilson reviewed a detachment of American troops at Chaumont, France, and made an address. Addressing the President and the troops, Gen. Pershing said:

"Mr. President and fellow soldiers—We are gathered here to-day to do honor to the commander of our armies and navies. For the first time an American President will review an American Army on foreign soil, the soil of a sister Republic, beside whose gallant troops we have fought to restore peace to the world. Speaking for you and your comrades, I am proud to declare to the President that no Army has ever more loyally or more effectively served its country and none has ever fought in a nobler cause. You, Mr. President, by your confidence and by your support have made the success of our Army, and to you, as our Commander in Chief, may I now present the Nation's victorious Army."

Mr. Wilson then spoke as follows:

"Gen. Pershing and fellow comrades: I wish that I could give to each one of you the message that I know you are longing to receive from those at home who love you. I can not do that, but I can tell you how everyone has put his heart into it. So you have done your duty and something more. You have done your duty and done it with a spirit which gave it distinction and glory.

"And now we are to hail the fruits of everything. You conquered when you came over what you came over for and you have done what it was appointed you to do. I know what you expected of me. Some time ago a gentleman from one of the countries with which we are associated was discussing with me the moral aspects of this war and I said that if we did not insist upon the high purpose which we have accomplished the end would not be justified. Everybody at home is proud of you and has followed every movement of this great army with confidence and affection.

The whole people of the United States are now waiting to welcome you home with an acclaim which probably has never greeted any other army—because our country is like this country and we have been so proud of the stand taken, of the purpose for which this war was entered by the United States. You knew what we expected of you and you did it. I know what you and the people at home expected of me; and I am happy to say, my fellow countrymen, that I do not find in the hearts of great leaders with whom it is my privilege now to cooperate any difference of principle or of fundamental purpose. It happened that it was the privilege of America to present the chart for peace and now the process of settlement has been rendered comparatively simple by the fact that all the nations concerned have accepted that chart and the application of these principles laid down there will be their application. The world will now know that the nations that fought this war as well as the soldiers who represented them are ready to make good, make good not only in the assertion of their own interests but make good in the establishment of peace upon the permanent foundation of right and of justice. Because this is not a war in which the soldiers of the free nations have obeyed masters. You have commanders, but you have no masters. Your very commanders represent you in representing the Nation of which you constitute so distinguished a part. And the kings of people and everybody concerned in the settlement know that it must be a peoples peace and that nothing must be done in the settlement of the issues of the war which is not as handsome as the great achievements of the armies of the United States and the allies.

"It is difficult, very difficult, men, in any formal speech like this to show you my real heart. You men probably do not realize with what anxious attention and care we have followed every step you have advanced and how proud we are that every step was in advance and not in retreat; that every time you set your face in any direction you kept your faces in that direction. A thrill has gone through my heart, as it has gone through the heart of every American, with almost every gun that was fired and every stroke that was struck in the gallant fighting that you have done and there has been only one regret in America and that was the regret that every man there felt that he was not there in France too. It has been a hard thing to perform tasks in the United States. It has been a hard thing to take part in directing what you did without coming over and helping you do it. It has taken a lot of moral courage to stay at home, but we are proud to back you up everywhere that was possible to back you up and now I am happy to find what splendid names you have made for yourselves among the civilian population of France, as well as among your comrades in the armies of the French, and it is a fine testimony to you men that these people like you, and love you, and trust you, and the finest part of it all is that you deserve their trust.

"I feel a comradeship with you to-day which is delightful as I look down upon these undisturbed fields and think of the terrible scenes through which you have gone and realize how the quiet of peace and tranquility of settled hopes has descended upon us and while it is hard far away from home confidently to bid you a merry Christmas, I can, I think, confidently promise you a happy New Year, and I can, from the bottom of my heart, say God bless you."

Change in Foreign Exchange Situation Since Midsummer of the Present Year

The Federal Reserve Board issues the following:

Since midsummer of the present year the discount on the American dollar, as measured by the premiums on neutral currencies prevailing in the New York market, has shown a continuous decline. On the basis of maximum quotations for each month since July, the premium on the Dutch florin has declined to the end of November by 26 per cent, the high quotation for November being about 5 per cent above par. Swedish crowns show a decline for the same period of over 27 per cent, the high quotation for November being 29 cents, or 8.2 per cent above par. Danish crowns, which had never during the war period reached the same high premium as the Swedish currency, declined about 18 per cent, the highest rate for sight drafts on Copenhagen during November being 27 cents, or less than 1 per cent above mint par.

Swiss francs, on which a maximum premium in excess of 32 per cent was quoted in the New York market during August, show a maximum premium of 5.3 per cent for November, a decline of over 27 per cent. An even larger decline is indicated for the Spanish peseta, the maximum premium for November being 7.25 per cent, as against 37.31 per cent for August. Chilean exchange followed a similar course, the high November valuation of the Chilean peso being 25.51 cents, compared with 33.07 cents for August. On the other hand, the November premium on the Argentine peso, which had been stabilized before, went up from about 5 to 7.2 per cent. Rates on Bombay and Shanghai, owing to the stabilized price of silver, show but little change, these quotations moving more or less in sympathy with the average monthly price of silver, as may be seen by reference to the accompanying tables and diagrams:

Approach of Peace Reflected.

As regards rates on financial markets in belligerent countries the effect of the successful termination of the war and the approach of peace is reflected primarily through an improvement in the exchange position of the French currency, the discount on the franc declining from 9.3 per cent for July to 3.9 per cent for November, and closely approaching the discount on British currency. Quotations of the pound sterling fluctuated within the very narrow limits of about one-third of 1 per cent, the high quotation for demand bills in November being 2.24 per cent below par. A similar course is followed by the Italian lira, quotations of which for the four months show but little variation from the officially "pegged" rate of 635 lire per $100, equivalent to 15.75 cents per lira. Exchange on Yokohama likewise shows but little change, yen bills selling in New York at a premium of slightly less than 10 per cent. Until November but little change is shown in the exchange position of the Brazilian milreis. For the last month a distinct improvement is seen, the high rate for November—27 cents—being about 17 per cent below par, as against 24-25 per cent below par during the preceding months.

Erratic Course of German Mark.

Advices from neutral European points indicate a rather erratic course of the German mark. Thus October quotations of the mark in the leading neutral markets were invariably higher than during September. During November a downward course sets in, the most recently available quotation of the mark in the principal European neutral places being as follows:

	Par of exchange.	Date of quotation.	Quotation.	Per cent of depreciation.
Amsterdam...	59.26	Nov. 26	30.60	48.36
Switzerland...	123.45	Nov. 27	53.00	52.21

WORK OF CONGRESS BRIEFLY TOLD

SENATE.

During the general discussion that arose in the brief session of the Senate yesterday afternoon the desirability of the formulation of a definite policy relative to further ship construction and the cost of such construction was urged in brief speeches by Senators Weeks, Republican, of Massachusetts, and Vandaman, Democrat, of Mississippi. There was some criticism of the shipping board and Chairman Fletcher, of the Commerce Committee, replied to it declaring that that board has done and is doing everything possible to meet the emergency caused by the war. Because of the tremendous demand for tonnage, speed had been put ahead of everything else in all the plans of the shipping board.

Senator Chamberlain announced that on next Monday he would address the Senate on the disposition and treatment of soldiers abroad and in cantonments in this country. Senator Thomas announced that on January 3 he would speak on the general peace question. The address of President Wilson to the American troops in France and an editorial by Col. Roosevelt urging the return of American forces as speedily as possible were ordered printed in the Congressional Record. Senator Phelan, Democrat, of California, introduced a resolution identical with that now pending in the House, proposing that the American peace commissioners assist in obtaining the independence of Ireland. Senator Trammell introduced, for Chairman Williams of the Library Committee, a joint resolution directing the Fine Arts Commission to report to the Joint Committee on the Library suggestions for monuments and other memorials to commemorate the heroes and events of the war against Germany, and the best methods of obtaining artists to execute such memorials.

HOUSE.

Chairman Lever of the Agricultural Committee received a memorandum from the Department of Agriculture and the Food Administration asking legislation to make effective the wheat price guaranty for the 1919 crop and at the same time safeguard the Government against loss. The recommendations made were as follows: Extension by Congress beyond June 1, 1920, of the date for the Government purchase of the 1920 crop; continuance of the Food Administration's grain corporation, or creation of a new agency to buy, store, and sell 1919 wheat that may be offered to the Government; possible legislative provisions to protect the Government against wheat or flour brought in from other countries during the period of the effectiveness of the guaranteed price, and also to protect buyers of such wheat as long as the wheat in this country is not consumed.

No Deportation of Mexican Laborers Says Secretary, Correcting Reports

The United States Department of Labor, Information and Education Service, issues the following:

The Department of Labor has ordered no deportations of Mexican laborers as a result of its recent vacating of orders providing for temporary admission of such labor for war emergency work. This announcement is made in a letter sent by the Secretary of Labor to the Secretary of State in reply to an inquiry based on Mexican newspaper reports.

The Department of Labor ordered that after December 18 no further permits for admittance of temporary labor be granted, but provided that permits issued on or before that date will be recognized provided the immigrants arrive at a port of entry on or before January 15 next. Mexicans, of course, may still enter the United States under the ordinary provisions of the law.

Text of Secretary's Letter.

Secretary Wilson's letter says:

"The department is in receipt of your memorandum of December 23, signed by Mr. Boaz Long, relative to Mexican agricultural and industrial laborers. In reply thereto I am pleased to state that evidently there is a misunderstanding regarding the terms as well as the intent of this department's order, which was put in force on the 18th of this month.

"Questions arising as a result of the end of hostilities, concerning not only Mexican laborers but also those from other countries, brought the matter up for consideration. Laborers from these various countries had been admitted as a war necessity, and as demobilization is taking place not only of the forces of the Army and Navy but also of laborers engaged in war industries, it was considered an absolute necessity, as notice to all interested, that the department should without delay state its policy concerning temporary laborers from beyond our confines.

"In respect to all classes of laborers who came from Mexico (i. e., laborers for agricultural, railroad, Government construction, and mining work), the department ordered that from and after December 18 no new permits for the admission of additional laborers would be approved, and that all permits issued or approved on or before December 18 should be permitted to be filled, provided the laborers should arrive at a port of entry on or before January 15, 1919.

Hasty Action Avoided.

"As the department had knowledge that the cotton and sugar beet growers, the railroads, and other employers of labor had caused notice to be sent broadcast in this country and in Mexico in order to secure a supply of labor, it did not desire to act hastily in the matter, and for that reason it provided that upon all permits made prior to December 18 the laborers contracted for could enter the United States provided they did so on or before January 15, 1919. It also permitted all Mexican laborers now in the United States by virtue of departmental orders, either as agricultural laborers or as workers on the railroads, to remain; in the former case 'throughout the coming agricultural season, and in the border States (Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, and California) until such time as may hereafter be fixed by the department;' and concerning the latter, that all such laborers already within the United States 'should be permitted to remain until further order;' and that as regards laborers brought here to do Government contract work, as long as they continue at such contract work, sponsored by the Government, they can continue to remain here, and when such work is completed they shall be repatriated, 'no time being fixed in either event.' As regards miners, it is provided that 'those already here be permitted to remain only for such further period as investigation and consideration in each instance may seem to justify.'

Questions Carefully Weighed.

"It will be seen that the department has considered the questions involved from all standpoints, and has endeavored to proceed in such a way as to give no just cause for complaint, either for lack of notice to the laborers at the border awaiting entry, or to those on the way there, or to those already in the country.

"It is proper to state in this connection that the admission of laborers referred to was effected under and by virtue of departmental orders, general and special, made with especial reference to such laborers and owing to the war emergency in which this country found itself at the time; the intent of such orders being temporarily to relieve the applicants of the illiteracy test, the contract labor law, and the payment of the head tax. All such departmental orders, since the 18th day of December, have been vacated, and no further admissions thereunder from and after January 15, 1919, will be permissible. It should be further remembered that laborers from Mexico, admissible under existing law, are in no way deterred or prevented from applying at the United States immigration stations for entry in the usual way.

"The fear expressed in your memorandum that Mexican agricultural and industrial laborers who came to our country while the war was being waged are soon to be ordered deported, is not borne out by the facts. As a result of the vacation of the departmental orders providing for the admission of laborers as above set forth, no deportations have been ordered. Of course, any alien admitted to the country while the same were in force, and violating any of the conditions of said orders, or the laws of the United States, would, after due hearing, be subject to deportation in due course of administration."

LOSES FOOD LICENSE.

Flagrant disregard of the fair-price schedule, overcharges in 246 retail sales amounting to $477 and 106 wholesale transactions with overcharges to the amount of $970, has cost the Farmers' Cooperative Mercantile Co., of Scribner, Dodge Count, Nebr., its Food Administration license.

EXPORTATION OF FOODSTUFFS TO WESTERN HEMISPHERE PORTS

War Trade Board Ready to Consider Applications for License with Certain Exceptions.

The War Trade Board announces in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 459), after consultation with the United States Food Administration, that it will now consider applications for licenses to export to Canada, Central and South America, Mexico, Cuba, and the West Indies all foodstuffs, fodders, and feeds with the exception of the following commodities, with respect to which all existing rules and regulations remain in full force and effect, viz: Wheat and wheat flour, corn, coffee, sugar, butter, cheese, eggs, linseed meal and cake, cottonseed meal and cake.

Advice to Exporters.

Exporters should acquaint themselves thoroughly with the import requirements of the country of destination before shipping, as in some of these countries regulations which were in force prior to the signing of the armistice are still in effect.

All necessary transportation arrangements should be made before moving exports to seaboard. The shortage of shipping space will still prevent prompt exportation and the fact that an export license has been granted should not be considered by exporters as assurance that shipping space can be obtained.

Attention is called to W. T. B. R. 412, issued December 13, 1918, regarding special export license No. RAC-63, which provides for the exportation to certain destinations, without individual licenses, of commodities which do not appear on the export conservation list.

GOLD IMPORTS AND EXPORTS IN MONTH ENDED NOV. 10

The Federal Reserve Board authorizes the following:

During the month ending November 10 the net outward movement of gold was $2,517,000, as compared with a net inward movement of $284,000 for the month ending October 10. Gold imports for the month, amounting to $1,479,000, came largely from Canada, Mexico, and Salvador, while gold exports, totaling $3,996,000 were consigned chiefly to Chile and Mexico.

The gain in the country's stock of gold since August 1, 1914, was $1,070,389,000, as may be seen from the following exhibit:

Heavy Drain on Nation's Railroads In Handling of Troops in Past Year Shown in Report by Director General

As demonstrating the enormous drain upon the passenger and freight railroad equipment of the Nation during the war, Director General McAadoo makes public figures showing the movement of troops from the time the Government took control of the railroads on January 1, 1918, to November 10 of the same year. Of course equipment while in use for this essential war purpose was not available for civilian service.

The report shows that during this period there were transported over the various Government-controlled roads 6,496,150 troops, and that a total of 193,002 cars were used for such movement.

Regular and Special Trains.

Of the 6,496,150 men moved over the railroads from January 1 to November 10, 1918, 1,785,342 were drafted men carried from their homes, 671,890 traveled on regular trains, while 4,038,918 journeyed on special trains provided for the purpose.

From May, 1917, to November 10, 1918, there was a total of 8,714,582 troops moved over the railroads, divided as follows:

Drafted men from their homes, 2,287,926; on regular trains, 1,380,564; on special troop trains, 5,046,092.

It is estimated that approximately 400,000 men will be moved during the month of December, 1918, consisting of discharged soldiers and sailors, and miscellaneous movements between various points in the country of troops remaining in the service.

According to the figures made public by the Director General, the maximum number of men handled in one month was 1,147,013, in July, 1918.

Division of Equipment.

The equipment furnished in 1918 was divided as follows:

Standard and tourist sleeping cars and coaches, 167,232; baggage and express cars, 12,201; freight cars for special troop trains, 13,569.

From May, 1917, to November 10, 1918, the total equipment amounted to 245,523 cars, consisting of 206,169 standard and tourist sleeping cars, 16,285 baggage and express cars, and 23,075 freight cars for special troop trains.

The total number of troop trains operated from May, 1917, to November 10, 1918, was 16,535, while the number of trains of the same class operated for the year 1918 amounted to 12,897.

The Railroad Administration is acting in cooperation with the General Staff of the Army in shaping plans for moving troops from the seaboard returning from abroad. Present arrivals are being taken care of from day to day as the necessities demand under the existing machinery and plans of the troop movement section of the Railroad Administration.

The figures show that each troop train carried an average of 12.2 cars, the distance handled being 854.6 miles, the number of miles per hour being 20, while the number of men carried per train amounted to 443.4.

The number of men handled in Pullman cars from January 1 to November 10, 1918, was 1,868,210, while those traveling on coaches totaled 4,627,940.

The number of men transferred from New York to the various ports for the same period amounted to 1,904,014.

A survey made as of November 1, 1918, showed that 26,073 cars had been assigned to camp and industrial service, to regular train service, to protect regular trains, and to shops.

Estimates for Demobilization.

The Director General calls attention to the fact that the creation of the Army and the sending of approximately 2,000,000 men to ports of embarkation involved the transportation of upward of 8,700,000 men. It is estimated that to demobilize these troops will involve the transportation of not less than 7,250,000. Methods for handling this number of troops to the best advantage are being worked out by the Railroad Administration in cooperation with the General Staff. While the problems are new and can not be dealt with upon any precedent, it is not anticipated that any insurmountable difficulty will be encountered.

At the peak of the activities incident to the prosecution of the war, it was necessary to provide for the daily movement to and from industrial plants and camps of 205,587 persons in each direction. To perform this service 2,319 passenger equipment cars were in use daily.

Registration of Claims Against Railway Bills

The United States Railroad Administration, Division of Law, issues the following:

CIRCULAR No. 4.

WASHINGTON, December 4, 1918.

To All Freight Claim Agents:

Inquiry develops that many of the railroads under Federal control do not register claims against the billing, while others employ forces at considerable expense for this purpose.

General Order 41 provides that loss and damage freight claims must be supported by the original bill of lading and the original paid freight receipt, and this should serve as a check against duplicate payment of claims.

Therefore, effective at once, loss and damage freight claims need not be registered against the waybills solely for protection against duplicate payment.

Manager, Claims and Property

METHOD FOR THE PAYMENT OF LATIN-AMERICAN ADVERTISING

Through the efforts of Trade Commissioner J. W. Sanger, who has just completed an investigation of advertising methods in Latin America for the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, it is now possible for American advertisers and advertising agencies to obtain local rates for advertising space by arrangement with banks in various cities of Latin America.

Complaints of Injustice.

For many years American advertisers have complained about the injustice of paying the South American publisher from 25 to 75 per cent more than was exacted from the local advertiser. There is much to be said on the side of the South American publisher. Not infrequently he has received orders for space which the unscrupulous advertiser never intended to pay for. In other instances, where no question of dishonesty was involved, the time that elapsed in sending an order from the United States, receiving a voucher copy, and then sending a remittance averaged three months. If a controversy arose necessitating correspondence, another three to six months would pass and all the time the South American publisher would be awaiting payment.

Bank Cooperation a Feature.

Without entering into the question of placing the blame where it belongs, the fact remains that the publisher felt justified in adding a sufficient rate to his local one to cover losses and delays. Some have avoided this difficulty by authorizing their local representative in each South American city to place and pay for the advertising.

For such advertisers as have not found this compromise an effective one, Mr. Sanger suggests that the method outlined below be used until such time as a more direct connection between the South American publisher and the American advertiser is brought about. The method suggested is only a "stop gap" and is open to the objection that in the event of a disagreement over position or any other detail of the proper carrying out of the order the banks listed below will not undertake to adjust the differences. They will pay the bill only when they are convinced that the basic instructions of the advertiser have been fulfilled. Nor does this arrangement provide the advertiser with a list of advertising rates, a need which it is hoped Mr. Sanger's forthcoming reports will help to meet.

Details of the Arrangement.

The advertiser or advertising agent will send the original order accompanied by matrices, engravings, etc., direct to the publisher, at the same time sending a duplicate of the order or a memorandum of it to the bank. Upon the 10th of the month following date of insertion the publisher will present his bill to the bank, accompanied by voucher copy of publication carrying advertisement. The bank will satisfy itself that the basic conditions of the order have been met, and in that event will pay the bill at the rate

List of the Transports Sailing For United States with Troops

The Chief of Staff authorizes publication of the following information:

Transport Maurtania sailed from France December 24 for New York and will probably dock December 30 with the following troops: 347th Infantry, less Company H, 66 officers, 3,076 men (64 per cent Camp Dix, 8 per cent Camp Upton, 8 per cent Camp Pike, 20 per cent following camps: Dodge, Funston, Sherman, Custer, Grant, and Taylor); detachment bureau of war risk, 5 officers, 24 men; casual detachment, class D, 1 officer, 73 men. Thirty-eight casual officers classified as follows: General officer, 1; General Staff, 7; Infantry, 11; Artillery, 4; Coast Artillery, 1; Engineers, 2; Cavalry, 1; Medical, 2; Quartermaster, 4; Ordnance, 3; transportation, 1; chaplain, 1; other casuels, 2 enlisted men, 1 Army field clerk, 8 civilians, 3 naval officers. Sick and wounded classified as follows: Bedridden, 56 officers, 100 men; others requiring no special attention, 32 officers, 136 men, 3 nurses; casual medical detachment for duty, 6 officers, 25 men, 11 nurses.

Transport Henderson sailed from France December 22 for New York and will dock probably January 5 with the following troops: Casuals, officers classified as follows: Infantry, 3; Field Artillery, 1; Air Service, 6; Quartermaster Corps, 1; chaplains, 2; other casuels, 1 ex-officer, 2 Army field clerks, 5 civilians. Sick and wounded, as follows: Bedridden, 2 men; tubercular and others requiring isolation, 3 men; others requiring no special attention, 803 enlisted men.

The transport Espagne sailed from France December 22 for New York and will dock probably January 2 with the following troops: Ten casual officers classified as follows: Transportation Corps, 3; Engineers, 2; Ordnance, 2; Air Service, 1; unclassified, 2; 1 civilian.

The transport Virginian sailed from France December 22 for Newport News and will dock probably January 5 with the following troops: Nine casual officers classified as follows: Air Service, 7; Field Artillery, 1; Infantry, 1.

The transport Antigone sailed from France December 22 for Newport News, and will dock probably January 4 with the following troops: 76th Division Cadre, 11 officers, 85 men (composed of detachments from the following organizations: 301st, 302d, 303d, and 304th Infantry, 301st, 302d, and 303d Machine Gun Battalions, and 301st Ammunition Train, 100 per cent Camp Devens); Casual Company No. 402, 3 officers, 150 men; 52d Regiment Coast Artillery Corps, 48 officers, 1,410 men (brigaded at Fort Adams). Casuals, officers classified as follows: Chemical Warfare Service, 2; Ordnance, 3; Medical, 4; Air Service, 31; Motor Transport Corps, 4; Engineers, 2; Infantry, 4; Coast Artillery Corps, 2; Sanitary Corps, 1; Railroad Transportation Corps, 1; Veterinary Corps, 1; Field Artillery, 5; Quartermaster, 5; 1 Army field clerk, 1 Y. M. C. A. civilian, 4 civilians. Sick and wounded as follows: Bedridden, 97; mental, 4; tubercular, 9; others not requiring special attention, 749. Attendants, 1 officer, 30 enlisted men, 1 nurse.

Candles Enough for Army To Last for 5,250 Years If Burned One at a Time

The War Department authorizes the following from the office of the Director of Purchase and Storage:

The signing of the armistice left the American Expeditionary Forces with a quantity of candles aggregating 7,600,000 pounds, or 46,000,000 individual candles. Each candle made under Army specifications burns 10 hours, and on this basis a statistical expert from the Subsistence Division has figured that the quantity of candles on hand is sufficient to burn one candle continuously and without interruption for 5,250 years.

The primary use of the candles was to furnish light in the trenches and dugouts, but there is also a very extensive use for them in billets and camps. The supply of candles on hand, while large, is probably no greater than the amount necessary to meet the requirements of the Army for the immediate future.

specified, less the cash discount specified in the order. The payment will be made in the currency of the publisher's country and a record of the rate of exchange at which the payment is made will be sent the advertiser by the bank.

It will be necessary for the advertiser to arrange with each branch of these banks or with their New York office for a deposit of funds to meet likely emergencies such as would be covered by their orders for space and variations in exchange. The banks that are cooperating in the scheme are:

City and country.	Name of American bank.	Terms.
Lima, Peru.....	Banco Mercantil Americano del Peru.	One-fourth of 1 per cent; $0.50 (U. S.) minimum bank fee each payment.
Valparaiso, Chile.....	National City Bank of New York.	Do.
Buenos Aires, Argentina.....	do. First National Bank of Boston.	Do.
La Paz, Bolivia.....	Denniston & Co.....	Do.
Montevideo, Uruguay.....	National City Bank of New York.	Do.
Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo, and Bahia, Brazil.....	do.....	1 per cent; minimum as above.

HOLIDAY TRAVEL THIS YEAR FAR ABOVE RECORD FOR 1917

Heavy Ticket Sales Made at New York and Washington Rail- road Terminals.

The United States Railroad Administration issues the following:

The holiday travel for 1918 is much ahead of 1917, being greatly increased by the soldier and sailor business on furlough and discharged from the service. Special efforts were made this year to handle it promptly and without congestion. The sleeping and coach equipment was distributed to the best advantage. More of it was supplied than last year, and more trains are being operated. Weather conditions have made it possible to keep trains generally on time. No unusual congestion or complaints are reported in any territory. Reports from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, and Washington indicate the soldier business was very generally ticketed at camps where ample ticket forces were provided and so did not add to the crowds of travelers at large centers.

Record Sales at New York.

As typical of the business and steps taken to care for it, the sales at the Grand Central Station in New York on Saturday were $73,000. The next largest sales reported on any one day were before Labor Day, when they were $65,000. The number of extra sleeping cars put in service out of the Grand Central Station December 21 to 24 this year were 280; in 1917, 67; in 1916, 172. On Saturday, December 21, there were 82 extra sleepers in service, which is more than the number of extra sleepers in service for four days in 1917, including December 21. The conditions in the Pennsylvania terminals in New York and Philadelphia were the same as at the Grand Central. The amount of ticket sales from December 20 to 22 were 70 per cent above a year ago, namely, $175,000, as against $104,000. At Philadelphia the increase was but 20 per cent; at Pittsburgh there was a slight decrease.

Heavy Business at Washington.

The conditions at Washington were probably more extreme this year than at any other city. For the six days ending December 21 the total sales at the Union Station were $328,000, compared with $180,000 in 1917. The number of passengers was 49,000 as against 34,000 in 1917. The sales at the consolidated ticket office for the same period this year were $237,000, and the number of passengers 27,000.

In the matter of coaches, there were 2,517 used this year as against 1,953 a year ago, or an increase of 564. In the matter of sleepers and parlor cars there were 1,334 used this year as against 923 a year ago. The advantage of advanced buying was freely advertised and responded to, and there were comparatively few cases where the accommodations desired could not be secured. One consolidated ticket office in New York was kept open Sunday and others kept open until a reasonable hour in the evening. This practice was followed

The Cost of Repairs to Freight Cars On Railroads Under Federal Control

The United States Railroad Administration, Division of Operation, issues the following:

Circular No. 20 (Revised).

LIMIT OF COST FOR REPAIRS TO FREIGHT CARS BELONGING TO RAILROADS UNDER FEDERAL CONTROL.

1. Freight cars in need of general repairs will be thoroughly inspected, all defective parts noted, and estimate made showing cost of repairs to place car in general good condition for two years' service barring accident and running repairs. Cars referred to in this circular are cars which are eligible for interchange under the M. C. B. rules.

2. Limit of cost for making repairs:

Wooden freight cars which have not been rebuilt and improved by application of metal draft arms extending beyond body bolster, continuous steel draft arms, steel center sills, or steel underframe.

(A) IN SERVICE 20 YEARS OR MORE—
ALL FREIGHT CARS.

Limit of cost of repairs in kind, labor, and material:

If equipped with 40,000-pound capacity trucks or less.....	$25
Over 40,000-pound but less than 60,000-pound capacity.....	75
60,000-pound capacity trucks and over.....	100

(B) CARS IN SERVICE 10 YEARS AND LESS THAN 20 YEARS.

	Limit cost of repairs.
	In kind.		With betterments.
	All cars except refrigerator.	Refrigerator.	All cars except refrigerator.	Refrigerator.
Equipped with 40,000-pound capacity trucks or less.	$25	$100	(1)	(1)
Over 40,000-pound but less than 60,000-pound capacity.	100	150	(1)	(1)
60,000-pound capacity and over.	200	500	$1,000	$1,200

3. Cars in service over five years and less than 10 years and cars found equipped with metal draft arms extending beyond body bolster, continuous steel draft arms, transom draft gear or steel center sills, or all steel underframe.

All cars having trucks 60,000-pound capacity and over will be repaired unless total cost of repairs, including cost of betterments, plus scrap value, exceeds 75 per cent of value of new car.

generally and there was none of the crowd and rush before ticket windows in the last few days before Christmas, the public accepting the conditions cheerfully and helping the railroad employees to avoid confusion and preserve order.

Extra precautions were taken in the matter of handling mail, express, and baggage, and the results are generally reported better than last year and in some territories for several years past, there being practically no congestion or delays in the large centers.

If cost of repairs exceed 75 per cent of new car, it will be dismantled and good parts reclaimed for use in repairing cars of similar types. This will apply to existing equipment only.

4. Cars in service five years and less. All cars having trucks 60,000-pound capacity and over will be thoroughly repaired at cost necessary.

5. Cost of application of safety appliances, wheels, journal bearings, and couplers will not be considered in estimate cost of repairs.

6. All wooden freight cars with trucks 60,000-pound capacity and over, receiving general repairs, not equipped with metal draft arms extending beyond body bolsters, steel draft arms extending full length of car, steel center sills, steel underframe or transom draft gear, will be equipped with either steel draft arms extending beyond body bolsters, steel draft arms extending full length of car, steel center sills or steel underframe. Cars equipped with steel underframes or steel center sills will have continuous cover plates riveted to the top or bottom of sills.

7. When the cost of repairs in kind exceeds the amount which may be expended and betterments are not to be applied, repairs will not be made. The Federal manager, or general manager or roads having no Federal manager, will endeavor to secure an agreement with the owning corporation that such cars may be dismantled upon the basis of settlement established in the current Master Car Builders' Association rules. When such agreements have been secured, he may authorize in writing that the car will be dismantled. If such an agreement has not been secured the car will not be dismantled, but will be held for disposition and the regional director advised.

8. When cars are dismantled or sent home to owners for rebuilding a detailed statement will be made, showing the estimated cost of repairs in kind, by items, and forwarded to owners, showing disposition, and copy retained by handling road.

9. To estimate detailed cost of repairs, add 35 per cent to the sum of applied labor and material.

C. R. GRAY,

Director, Division of Operation.

Director General of Railroads.

CHANGES IN BUNKER RULES.

The War Trade Board announces in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 445) that subparagraph (J) of Article V of "General Rules No. 1, Governing Granting Licenses for Bunker Fuel, Port, Sea, and Ship's Stores and Supplies," has been amended to apply only to vessels operating in or entering Atlantic waters east of the fortieth meridian west longitude.

It will be noted that this amendment has the effect of suspending the restrictions heretofore enforced against the use of radiotelegraphy by vessels operating in the Atlantic Ocean west of the fortieth meridian and in the Pacific Ocean.

SOLDIERS HONORED BY PERSHING FOR HEROISM

The Commander in Chief of the American Expeditionary Forces, in the name of the President, has awarded the distinguished service cross to the following-named officers and soldiers for the acts of extraordinary heroism described after their names:

Capt. THOMAS H. FALLAW, 167th Infantry. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-et-St. George, France, October 16, 1918. In the attack on the Cote de Chatillon, seeing that the entire advance was being held up in an open field by heavy machine gun fire from the edge of the woods. Capt. Fallaw personally organized a detachment and led it in a rush on the woods under heavy fire, making a daring and vigorous attack on the enemy machine gun nests, clearing the edge of the woods, capturing prisoners, and inflicting severe losses on the enemy. Through this gallant act Capt. Fallaw gained the final objective with a minimum loss to his command, and set an inspiring example of disregard for personal safety and devotion to duty." Home address, Mrs. R. H. Fallaw, mother, Opelika, Ala.

Serjt. RALPH ATKINSON, Headquarters Company, 167th Infantry (as No. 98,612). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, October 16, 1918. During the attack on Cote-de-Chatillon, Serjt. Atkinson, in command of the Stokes mortar platoon, with three other soldiers, was advancing with the first wave of the assault, when, on nearing the objective, he discovered about 250 of the enemy forming for a counter attack. At this juncture Serjt. Atkinson and his party advanced with a Stokes mortar under heavy fire to a position where he could get a fair field of fire, set up the mortar, and opened a murderous fire on the approaching enemy dispersing him in every direction. His quick action, good judgment, and leadership undoubtedly not only broke up the enemy counter attack, but inflicted severe losses on him, he himself showing extraordinary heroism and courage at a critical time. Home address Mrs. O. R. Atkinson, mother, 314 California Street, Montgomery, Ala.

Second Lieut. CLAIR C. ROBERTS, 167th Infantry. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, October 16, 1918. Lieut. Robert's platoon suffered heavy casualties, and he himself was gassed in the advance on Hill 260. Being the first to reach this hill, he observed that the enemy was forming for a counter-attack. Displaying coolness and quick judgment he organized all the available men in his vicinity and launched a vigorous attack upon the enemy, who was around. The daring and leadership of this officer enabled the support to reach Hill 260 without further fighting." Home address, Mrs. Clara Roberts, mother, 209 East Walnut Avenue, Altoona, Pa.

Serjt. SHANKLIN EBENEZER GILKERSON, 167th Ambulance Co. (as No. 711). "For extraordinary heroism in action at St. Benoit, France, September 16, 1918. While the regimental dressing station was under heavy shell fire, Serjt. Gilkerson volunteered to lead a squad of litter bearers to rescue several wounded men of another regiment, who had been caught in a heavy barrage. Although he was wounded himself, he succeeded in leading the squad for a distance of three kilometers through a constant severe bombardment under direct observation of the enemy artillery and snipers to an outpost outside of his own regimental sector. He brought in one wounded officer and seven severely wounded soldiers without losing any of his men." Home address, Mrs. M. M. Gilkerson, mother, Locust Avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

Serjt. BALL BROWN, Company G, 167th Infantry, (as No. 97125). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-St. Georges, France, October 16, 1918. During the attack on Cote-de-Chatillon, after having been severely wounded and gassed, Serjt. Brown refused to go to the hospital, realizing that his presence with his platoon, which had suffered heavy casualties, would greatly assist in the attack. He reorganized his platoon and personally led it in the attack, later consolidating his positions, thereby setting an example of utter disregard for danger and inspiring his men by his remarkable courage and devotion to duty. Home address, Mrs. Ada Brown, mother, Ozark, Ala.

Serjt. LEE A. WADSWORTH, Company S, 167th Infantry (as No. 97451). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, October 15, 1918. Serjt. Wadsworth was severely wounded in the attack on Cote-de-Chatillon, but he refused to be evacuated, and remained with his platoon under heavy fire, reorganizing it for the counterattack, for which the enemy was forming, thereby setting to his men an inspiring example of utter disregard for danger and of heroism in the face of the enemy. Home address, T. M. Wadsworth, father, Mulberry, Ala.

Corpl. MOSES E. BALDWIN, Company G, 167th Infantry (as No. 97121). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, October 15, 1918. In the attack on Cote de-Chatillon, disregarding all personal danger, Corpl. Baldwin repeatedly went over shell-swept areas under heavy machine-gun fire to give first-aid treatment to the wounded and carry them to shelter. Home address: Mrs. Minnie J. Baldwin, Midland City, Ala.

Corpl. SAMSON RICHARDS, Company II, 167th Infantry (as No. 97564). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, October 14, 1918. When his platoon had become scattered during an attack and his platoon commander had been killed, Corpl. Richards, although himself seriously wounded, reorganized the platoon under heavy shell and machine-gun fire and turned the platoon over to the next in command ready for the assault before he permitted himself to be evacuated, thereby setting to his associates an example of utter disregard for danger and of remarkable coolness and courage in the face of the enemy. Home address: William Richards, father, Taft, Cal.

Pvt. FRANK R. STOCKTON (deceased), Company E, 167th Infantry (as No. 96634). "For extraordinary heroism in action at Lamusard Farm near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, October 14, 1918. This soldier, while acting as litter bearer, went through deadly artillery and machine-gun fire to the aid of some wounded soldiers, disregarding warnings as to the danger in so doing. After administering first aid to one of the wounded, he carried him toward our lines and had almost reached a place of safety when he was killed by machine-gun fire, having given proof of the highest devotion to duty, and of courage and self-sacrifice. Next of kin, Rev. J. A. A. Stockton, father, New Decatur, Ala.

Pvt. (first class) ASHAD HAWIE, Company F, 167th Infantry (as No. 97069). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, October 16, 1918. Pvt. Hawie, as company runner, without hesitation or fear of fire from heavy artillery and machine guns, made repeated trips with messages between company and battalion headquarters. On one trip he was attacked by two Germans, one of whom he killed. Taking the other prisoner, he continued on his mission and turned his prisoner over to the battalion commander after delivering his message. Home address, Mrs. Mattie H. Hawie, mother, Jackson, Miss.

Serjt. JACK W. MILLNER, Company H, 167th Infantry (as No. 97365). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, October 15, 1918. After his company had sustained heavy losses in a severe engagement with the enemy and he himself had been seriously wounded, Serjt. Millner, realizing that he was the only sergeant left in the company, refused to be evacuated and remained on duty for 12 hours, reorganizing his company under heavy enemy artillery and machine-gun fire showing entire disregard for danger and setting an excellent example of courage and heroism under fire to his men. Home address, Henry Millner, father, Alexander City, Ala.

First Lieut. PHILIP MINDALL, 126th Infantry. "For extraordinary heroism near Gesnes, northwest of Verdun, France, October 2, 1918. Lieut. Mindall was severely wounded on the shoulder by a shell fragment at the beginning of the advance on Gesnes, but in spite of his wound he continued to lead his company throughout the advance. He helped to organize the ground against counterattack and remained on duty with his command until the next morning, when he went to the rear only under vigorous protest. Throughout the entire engagement this officer displayed the utmost coolness and devotion to duty under the heaviest fire.

Serjt. ROBERT J. KLINE (deceased), Company D, 126th Infantry (as No. 279469). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Gesnes, northwest of Verdun, France, October 3, 1918. Picking up a light maxim gun and ammunition left by the retreating enemy, Serjt. Kline advanced in front of his company's line and supported it with enfilading fire so effectively that he was soon made the target for many German guns. With the utmost coolness and entire disregard for his own safety he continued to give appreciable support with his captured gun until he was killed by the hostile machine-gun fire. His example of bravery and audacity was an inspiration to the whole command. Next of kin, Jane Hunter, aunt, Saranac, Mich.

Corpl. RAYMOND HENRY, Company E, 125th Infantry (as No. 202192). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Clerges, south of Pismes, France, July 31, 1918. In the advance up the hill of Les Jumbles woods in the face of heavy machine-gun and artillery barrage Corpl. Henry was wounded in the shoulder, but he nevertheless continued to advance. Being unable to use his rifle, he threw it down, drew his pistol, and led his platoon forward until he received six more bullet wounds. Home address, Mrs. Jessie Henry, mother, 408 East Fifth Street, Flint, Mich.

Serjt. GRADY PARRISH, Company G, 167th Infantry (as No. 97137). "For extraordinary heroism in action near Cote de Chatillon, France, October 16, 1918. After his platoon commander had been severely wounded and his platoon had suffered heavy casualties, Serjt. Parrish quickly reorganized the remainder of the platoon and personally led it in the attack on Cote de Chatillon. By his daring acts, coolness and good judgment, he broke up a heavy enemy counter-attack on his front, thereby setting his men an example of exceptional heroism and devotion to duty. Home address, Mrs. Oscar C. Parrish, mother, Enterprise, Ala.

Serjt. JAM D. GUMM, 117th Train Headquarters and Military Police, Forty-second Division. "For extraordinary heroism in action at Vadenay, north of Chalons-sur-Marne, France, July 15, 1918. SOLDIERS HONORED BY PERSHING FOR HEROISM

Chaplain JOHN C. WARD, 108th Infantry, For extraordinary heroism in action east of Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. During the operations against the Hindenburg line Chaplain Ward, voluntarily and at a great risk to himself, went forward under heavy shell and machine-gun fire to care for the wounded and to search for the dead. Twice he was ordered off the field of battle by officers, being told each time that it was sure death to remain. During the entire time his regiment was engaged he remained on the field under fire, displaying a fine example of bravery and courage which was an inspiration to all. Home address, Colton Hamilton B. Ward, brother, Erie County Bank, Buffalo, N. Y.

First Sergt. WILLIAM H. KRAUSE, Company C, 108th Infantry (as No. 1213849). For extraordinary heroism in action near Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. Sergt. Krause displayed great gallantry during the operations against the Hindenburg line. A smoke barrage was put down by the enemy between his company and the company on the left. The company commander having been wounded, Sergt. Krause sent a soldier to establish liaison with the company on the left. When this soldier was severely wounded and unable to accomplish his mission, Sergt. Krause went himself and succeeded in reaching the company. While returning to his own company Sergt. Krause met a party of Germans attempting to break through the gap between the two companies. In a personal encounter he killed a German officer and forced the rest of the party to withdraw. Home address, Mrs. Clara L. Krause, wife, 314 Marguerite Avenue, Syracuse, N. Y.

First Sergt. EDWARD A. DUNCAN, Company A, 108th Infantry (as No. 1213403). For extraordinary heroism in action east of Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. During the operations against the Hindenburg line, Sergt. Duncan displayed great gallantry and courage by going forward under heavy shell and machine-gun fire and bandaging the wounded and bringing them back to our lines. Throughout the engagement he exhibited a fearless disregard of the enemy's fire, and performed valuable service by organizing new squads when his company was suffering heavy casualties as a result of shell and machine-gun fire. Home address, Mrs. Ellen Duncan, mother, 681 McKinley Parkway, Buffalo, N. Y.

With the assistance of another soldier, he succeeded in dragging and carrying them back to the shelter of a trench. Home address, Mrs. C. B. Mudge, friend, Halsey Valley, N. Y.

Pvt. WASYL KOLONOCZYK, Company C, 107th Infantry (as No. 1210213). For extraordinary heroism in action near Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. Pvt. Kolonoczky, under heavy shell and machine-gun fire, left shelter of his trench and, going forward under a thick smoke screen, single-handedly captured between 30 and 40 German prisoners. His conspicuous gallantry and bravery upon this occasion showed a heroic disregard for his own safety, which was a splendid example for all. Home address, Michael Mazor, friend, 72 Canas Street, Cohoes, N. Y.

Pvt. GEORGE I. CARGIN, Company D, 170th Infantry (as No. 1210383). For extraordinary heroism in action near Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. During the operations against the Hindenburg line, Pvt. Cargin, with four other soldiers, left shelter and went forward into an open field, under heavy shell and machine gun fire, and succeeded in bandaging and carrying back to our lines two wounded comrades. Home address, Charles Cargin, father, Stalker, Pa.

Corpl. VINCENT V. ZIELINSKI, Company B, 306th Infantry (as No. 1702716). For extraordinary heroism in action at St. Juvin, France, October 15, 1918. Corpl. Zielinski volunteered and carried a message of vital importance in connection with the capture of St. Juvin through an intense artillery barrage, displaying courage and persistent devotion to duty. Home address, Mrs. Eva Zielinski, mother, 112 Gorski Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pvt. JOSEPH VERCRUYRVESSE, Cotta Company H, 306th Infantry (as No. 1646636). For extraordinary heroism in action at St. Juvin, France, October 15, 1918. Pvt. Vercruyrvessi volunteered and carried a message to supporting troops through an intense artillery barrage, displaying courage and persistent devotion to duty. This message was of vital importance in connection with the capture of St. Juvin. Home address, Joseph DeBishop, friend, 1723 Forty-first Street, Oakland, Cal.

Second Lieut. JOHN D. COSGROVE (deceased), 139th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Charpeny, France, September 26-27, 1918. As battalion intelligence officer, Lieut. Cosgrove repeatedly went in front of his own and adjoining battalions to secure information which he conveyed to regimental headquarters over fields swept by artillery and machine gun fire. When the advance of his battalion was checked by destructive hostile fire, this officer, disregarding personal danger, conducted a personal reconnaissance, locating many machine guns and strongholds. He was killed while voluntarily leading and placing troops in advantageous positions to reduce these machine-gun nests.

Sergt. FRANK A. HEUSEISEN, Company A, 157th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Montrebeau Woods, France, September 29, 1918. When his company was checked and forced to withdraw into the woods Sergt. Heuseisen voluntarily went into an open field under heavy machine-gun fire and carried wounded soldiers a hundred yards to shelter, preventing their capture by the enemy. Home address, John Heuseisen, Rural Route No. 5, Great Bend, Kans.

Sergt. WILLIE A. OLDFIELD, Company I, 139th Infantry (as number 1457428). For extraordinary heroism in action near Charpeny, France, September 26-27, 1918. Sergt. Oldfield was in charge of his platoon when it was subjected to heavy enemy machine-gun fire, causing numerous casualties. By his word and example Sergt. Oldfield held his men in line as a unit until nightfall, when they entrenched. Next day when the tanks appeared he led the charge upon the machine guns which were holding up the advance. Inspired by his gallantry his men went forward and cleared out the guns and assisted in the capture of Charpeny, with many prisoners. Home address, Mrs. Anna M. Oldfield.

Second Lieut. STEPHEN D. ELKINS, 105th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. During the operations against the Hindenburg line Lieut. Elkins, with three sergeants, occupied an outpost position in advance of the line, which was attacked by a superior force of the enemy. Lieut. Elkins so directed his small detachment that he succeeded in repulsing the attack, killing 10 Germans, capturing 5, and putting the rest of the enemy to flight. The bravery and determination displayed by this group was an inspiration to all who witnessed it. Home address, M. A. Elkins, father, Europa, Miss.

First Sergt. E. T. RUANE, Company B, 105th Infantry (as No. 1203458). For extraordinary heroism in action east of Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. During the operations against the Hindenburg line Sergt. Ruane, with an officer and two other sergeants, occupied an outpost position in advance of the line, which was attacked by a superior force of the enemy. Sergt. Ruane assisted in repulsing this attack and in killing 10 Germans, capturing 5, and driving off the others. The bravery and determination displayed by this group was an inspiration to all who witnessed it. Home address, John Ruane, father, 74 Lancaster Street, Cohoes, N. Y.

Sergt. HENRY S. KIRK, Company B, 105th Infantry (as No. 1203467). For extraordinary heroism in action east of Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. During the operations against the Hindenburg line Sergt. Kirk, with an officer and two other sergeants, occupied an outpost position in advance of the line, which was attacked by a superior force of the enemy. Sergt. Kirk assisted in repulsing this attack and in killing 10 Germans, capturing 5, and driving off the others. The bravery and determination displayed by this group was an inspiration to all who witnessed it. Home address, Mrs. Ellen Kirk, 138 West Ninety-first Street, New York City, N. Y.

JAIL SENTENCES GIVEN TWO ON SUGAR HOARDING CHARGES

The Food Administration issues the following:

Jail sentences have been meted out to two sugar hoarders by the United States district court at Martinsburg, W. Va. Julius, alias Tony, Persece and Louie Zidor, both from Tucker County, W. Va., after indictment in the district court, were found guilty of hoarding more than 150 pounds of sugar.

One of them was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $50; the other was given 15 months in jail and fined a like amount. Miss A. Korenchan, a merchant of Thomas, W. Va., was fined $250 for knowingly selling sugar to Persece and Zidor in excessive quantities.

Atlanta Firm Loses License.

R. G. Lundy & Co., Augusta, Ga., have lost their Food Administration license because of fraudulent business practices.

An investigation by the Food Administration showed that the American Rice Milling Co. made a sale through R. G. Lundy & Co., acting as brokers, and that the consignee failed to accept the shipment. The American Rice Milling Co. requested R. G. Lundy & Co. to store the rice in its name. Instead of doing this, Mr. Lundy stored the rice in his own name, began to sell it, and has not made full settlements.

Oklahoma Baker Penalized.

The Old Scotty Bake Shop at Cyril, Okla., has lost its Food Administration license because its proprietor refused to use more than half the amount of wheat substitutes required by Food Administration regulations.

At a hearing before the Federal food administrator for Oklahoma, Scotty Groves, who owns the shop, admitted that he had been using less than half the substitutes required, and stated emphatically that he would not change his formula. The Old Scotty Bake Shop consequently goes out of business November 7, and the revocation of its license remains in force for an unlimited period.
