

DRAFTS ON DIRECTOR HINES DISCOUNTED BY THE BANKS ON NINETY-DAY ACCEPTANCE PLAN TO HELP RAILROADS

MONEY TO BE USED TO PAY FOR EQUIPMENT

*About $183,681,965 Needed by Administration Up to June 30 to Meet Amounts
Due Builders—Federal Reserve Board Opinion Indorsing the Rediscount of Drafts for Member Banks.*

The United States Railroad Administration issues the following:

Walker D. Hines, Director General of Railroads, on March 13 conferred with a group of representatives of equipment companies, to which the Railroad Administration owes moneys for locomotives and cars already delivered, and will owe additional moneys for locomotives and cars to be delivered during the current year on orders already placed.

Total of $183,681,965 Needed.

Announcement has already been made of the fact that the Railroad Administration will need up to June 30, 1919, to meet amounts due equipment companies by the Railroad Administration a total of $183,681,965.

After discussing with representatives of the War Finance Corporation, the Federal Reserve Board, the Advisory Finance Committee of the Railroad Administration, and with representatives of the equipment companies as to how these obligations should be met, the Director General is considering giving permission to the equipment companies to draw drafts upon the Director General for amounts due, the drafts to be accepted by the Director General of Railroads. The acceptances probably will run for 90 days. Such acceptances would bear interest, but the rate has not been determined upon.

Reserve Board's Opinion.

The Director General has submitted to the Federal Reserve Board the question of whether Federal reserve banks may properly rediscount for member banks such drafts accepted by the Director General. In response to this inquiry the

NEW ADVISORY TAX BOARD FOR BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

Five Memberships Announced,
Sixth to Be Held as Roving Commission for Experts.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Daniel C. Roper announced to-day his appointments to the new Advisory Tax Board of the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Five memberships are announced. The sixth membership has been reserved as a roving commission for experts who will be called in from time to time from various industries. The men named to-day are:

Dr. T. S. Adams, professor of political economy of Yale University, and formerly of the Wisconsin Tax Commission.

J. E. Sterrett, of New York, certified public accountant, and formerly president of the American Institute of Accountants.

Stuart W. Cramer, of Charlotte, N. C., engineer, contractor, and cotton manufacturer; former president of the National Association of American Cotton Manufacturers.

L. F. Speer, former deputy commissioner, Bureau of Internal Revenue, Income Tax Division.

Fred T. Field, of Boston, Mass., expert tax lawyer and formerly assistant attorney general of Massachusetts.

The chairman of the new board of advisers will be Dr. Adams, who has been active in the bureau's affairs for some time.

Particular attention will be given to problems arising where differences of opinion exist between the taxpayers and the bureau. Such differences occur not only with individuals but also with groups and even with classes of industry.

Hearings for Tax Payers.

Formal hearings will be given to taxpayers in every case where the facts warrant, and it was stated to-day at the Revenue Bureau that the smallest individual or the most eminent legal counsel for the largest corporation shall find a hearing equally accessible. Commissioner Roper has already announced his policy "to employ every means available so that the scales of justice may be held evenly in deciding each case."

The board will be called upon to decide questions involving the general aspects of taxation and differentiation of economic activities, accounting, forms of organization, trade customs, industrial management, legal procedure, and administration. Special studies will be made of such matters as they affect Federal taxation.

TRANSFER OF CONSULATE IN JAPAN.

The State Department has decided to transfer the American consulate at Yokkaichi, Japan, to Nagoya, Japan.

U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE REDUCED EIGHTY PER CENT AFTER MARCH 22 OWING TO LACK OF NECESSARY FUNDS

WILL KEEP SKELETON ORGANIZATION ONLY

Secretary Wilson Makes Public a Radiogram from the President Expressing Regret That the Practical Exhaustion of His Special Fund Made It Impossible to Provide Money.

The Department of Labor issues the following:

Owing to the failure of passage of the urgent deficiency bill and the unavailability of funds from other sources, the United States Employment Service, the national machinery for placing soldiers, sailors, and war workers in suitable employment, will be reduced to 20 per cent of its present size on March 22.

The cut has been so made as to preserve a skeleton organization which will enable the United States Employment Service to continue to direct the national efforts to place soldiers and civilian workers in employment, and to centralize the activities of other Government agencies, welfare organizations, and other bodies interested in employment.

Orders to Cut Sent Out.

Telegraphic orders to cut the employment service 80 per cent were sent to the Federal directors for the States yesterday by John B. Densmore, director general.

Secretary of Labor Wilson last night issued a statement making public a radiogram from President Wilson, in which the President expressed regret that the practical exhaustion of his special fund made it impossible for him to provide the money necessary to carry the employment service at its present scale until the end of the fiscal year, June 30.

Will Continue Emergency Bureaus.

While the regular branch offices of the United States Employment Service, now numbering about 750, will be reduced to 56, the 2,000 emergency bureaus for returning soldiers and sailors and the representatives of the United States Employment Service in the demobilization camps will be continued. The 56 remaining employment offices will be located in strategic industrial centers in which the employment problem is most complicated, while the special soldiers' bureaus already for the most part are financed by local funds. Because of the necessity, it is anticipated that many of the 700 regular employment offices which can no longer be financed by the Employment Service will be continued by the communities in which they are located.

Increase in Unemployment.

This week's report of employment conditions, which also reached the Employment Service here yesterday, show there has been a heavy increase in unemployment during the past five days. Week before last 66 per cent of the reporting cities showed heavy unemployment; last week there apparently was a slight improvement, the percentage being 63. But the reports show that 69 per cent of the reporting industrial centers have large labor surpluses and that the unemployment area is increasing.

Eighty per cent of the personnel of the United States Employment Service in the administrative offices at Washington and in the States, which amounts to approximately 4,000 persons, will be affected by the reduction. During the day the service was busy placing its own employees who would of necessity be dropped on March 23.

The United States Employment Service has been placing returning soldiers and war workers since the signing of the armistice at a rate of approximately 100,000 a week. About 75 per cent of the discharged soldiers who have needed assistance in finding new employment have been placed by the service up to the present.

Secretary's Statement.

Following is the Secretary's statement: "The filibuster in the Senate which prevented the passage of the deficiency bill carrying an item for the continuation of the United States Employment Service of the Department of Labor until June 30, has left the department without sufficient funds to continue the employment service on its present scale. In response to a request for funds from the President the following radiogram was received:

'Hon. William B. Wilson,
Secretary of Labor,
Washington, D. C.

'Regret nothing so much as the discontinuance of the work of the Employment Service Bureau, but the fact is, that, including pledges made, my fund is practically exhausted. What remains would not suffice to maintain the bureau, and, to my great grief, I see no escape from disbandment. I hope that it will be possible to keep a skeleton organization.

'Woodrow Wilson.'

"It has therefore become necessary to discontinue nearly 700 employment offices, effective March 22, and to reorganize the administrative forces on a basis that will enable the department to utilize the voluntary services of individuals and organizations to continue the work which is being done to find places for returning soldiers and civilian workers. Fortunately, the Employment Service, in carrying out the work entrusted to its charge, had organized 1,575 community boards, nearly 2,000 bureaus for returning soldiers without expense to the Government, and had secured the cooperation of the

DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS ACID STOCKS HELD BY GOVERNMENT

Plan Agreed Upon at Conference Intended to Prevent Disturbance to the Market.

The War Department authorizes the following statement from the Office of the Director of Sales:

Surplus stocks of acids owned by the War Department are to be disposed of in cooperation with the acid committee and in such a way as not to affect the market. This policy was agreed upon at a meeting held in the Office of the Director of Sales by representatives of the War and Navy Departments and the Chemical Alliance.

Figures presented by the sales office showed that the approximate quantities of surplus acids held by the War Department are as follows:

Sulphuric acid, 4,400 tons; oleum, 300 tons; nitric acid, 1,000 tons; mixed acid, 2,600 tons; spent acid, 700 tons.

The Navy Department reported that it had no surplus acids for sale other than those contained in its recent advertisement on which bids have already been received. The entire amounts in the hands of the Government are very small, compared with the total production and consumption of the country.

Those present at the meeting were: E. C. Morse, Assistant Director of Sales; Capt. A. L. Mercer, Chief, Raw Materials Section, Office of Director of Sales; Capt. M. J. Connolly, Office of Director of Sales; Lieut. Col. B. C. Goss, Chemical Warfare Service; Lieut. E. R. Moody, Ordnance Department; Lieut. C. C. Peterson, Navy Department; Lieut. Ray P. Dunning, Navy Department; Charles Barban, New York district, Ordnance Salvage Board, representing the Government, and Horace Bowker, president of the Chemical Alliance (Inc.); W. D. Huntington, chairman, Committee on Acids, Chemical Alliance (Inc.), and the full membership of the Committee on Acids, Chemical Alliance (Inc.).

Council of National Defense, the State and municipal employment agencies, the five great welfare associations engaged in war work, and many other church and welfare organizations in locating work for demobilized soldiers and war workers. The hearty cooperation of these agencies has been assured in tiding over the interim until the reconvening of Congress.

"We shall maintain our representatives in the demobilization camps and shall keep right on getting the records of soldiers returning on the transports and forwarding them to the bureaus for returning soldiers, and will maintain an administrative organization in Washington, D. C., and each of the States to direct the work, and about 50 employment offices in the principal industrial centers.

"Inasmuch as the deficiency item passed the House unanimously, and was unanimously reported by the Appropriations Committee in the Senate, we are confident that as soon as Congress meets sufficient funds will be made available to continue the work which is being done in finding positions for returning soldiers and civilian workers."

NEW GENERAL IMPORT LICENSE FOR COMMODITIES IN TRANSIT

Shipments Through the United States to Be in Bond as Required by Customs Rules.

The War Trade Board announces, in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 643), that a new general import license, to be known as PBF No. 35, has been issued covering the importation into the United States of all commodities which are merely being shipped in transit through the United States, provided shipment through the United States under this general license be made in bond as prescribed by the customs authorities.

This general import license does not in any way relieve importers and shippers from complying in all respects with the rules and regulations of the War Trade Board governing the exportation of in-transit shipments of such commodities nor from complying with the regulations of the United States Customs Service concerning transportation and exportation entries.

Attention is also called to the fact that no entries into the United States for consumption will be allowed under this general import license.

General Import License PBF No. 35 supersedes PBF No. 12, as described in W. T. B. R. 571, issued February 6, 1919; PFB No. 25, as described in W. T. B. R. 365, issued December 5, 1918; PBF No. 31, as described in W. T. B. R. 540, issued January 23, 1919, and PBF No. 32, as described in W. T. B. R. 562, issued January 30, 1919, as shipments formerly covered by these general licenses, as described above, are now covered by PBF No. 35.

REPORT FROM GENERAL TREAT ON U. S. TROOPS IN ITALY

The War Department authorizes publication of the following cabled communication from the commander in chief of the American Expeditionary Forces:

Following report from Gen. Treat just received: "Preliminary inspection two battalions Genoa and other battalion at Cattaro personally made by me has just been completed. Does not support sensational charges made in newspaper clippings on conditions in 332d Infantry. There are instances during the campaign when regular receipt of supplies was interrupted, as often happens under similar conditions. There were inconveniences to be put up with, but never any distress or suffering. No record of drinking among the officers. Allied commanders and the general public without exception voluntarily gave highest praise to this regiment. Never fed horse meat; never compelled to steal food. Clothing and shoes of battalion in Dalmatia, though in a few individual cases worn out, was promptly replaced, and the regiment today in equipment, physical condition, and health records is as good as any organization I know of in Europe."

ARTICLES WORTH $12,334,309
SALVAGED DURING NOVEMBER
BY SERVICE CORPS OVERSEAS

REPORT TO DIRECTOR OF PURCHASE

Output of Shops and Depots Valued at Over Eight Millions—Value of Recoveries in the Field Placed at Four Millions.

The War Department authorizes the following statement from the Office of the Director of Purchase and Storage:

A report of the performances of the salvage service of the American Expeditionary Forces for the month of November, 1918, has been received by the salvage division in the Office of the Director of Purchase and Storage. The salvage service, American Expeditionary Forces, has in active operation 4 depots, 20 shops, 66 laundries (of which 35 are mobile), and 27 disinfectors, of which 54 are mobile. Following is a recapitulation of the report received:

Recapitulation of Report.

Value of output shops and depots..... $8,072,042.08

This item includes the laundering of 6,040,983 articles and the repairing, packing, and making ready for reissue of 3,374,170 articles at a value of $8,072,042. On all items received for renovation and repair, the aggregate percentage of recovery was 91 per cent, the remaining 9 per cent being largely utilized as raw material for the repair work.

An added impetus has been given to the output of repaired shoes, the number turned out being 270,536 pairs, an increase of 34,080 pairs over the October figures.

Value of recoveries in the field..... 4,000,000.00

United States property sent to the rear or reissued for the Quartermaster Corps amounted to $1,500,000; that of the ordnance property, $1,500,000. These items do not include captured enemy materials among which were 70 machine guns, 12,000 rifles, and 40 cannon of various caliber.

Incidental Articles Manufactured.

Manufacturing of incidental articles, such as metal markers for graves, effects, bags to contain personal belongings of deceased soldiers, production of sheet tin from discarded containers for lining stables in the remount division of the Quartermaster Corps, and numerous other out-of-the-ordinary requirements have been promptly met by the salvage service manufacturing facilities.

Among interesting articles of salvage recovery during the period covered by this report may be mentioned 240,900 board feet of lumber from carting and 3,600 pounds of bolts.

Estimated value of 666,000 pounds rubber routed to United States at 10 cents per pound..... $66,660.00

Shipments of this material were commenced on November 20.

List of Transport and Army Units Sailing From France for United States

The War Department authorizes publication of the following information:

The transport Susquehanna sailed from St. Nazaire March 11 and is due to arrive at New York March 24 with the following troops:

Casual companies as follows: No. 188, New Jersey, 2 officers, 84 men. No. 189, Iowa, 1 officer, 85 men. Twenty-seventh Regiment Railway Engineers, complete, 28 officers, 1,435 men, divided as follows: Camp Gordon, 12 officers, 254 men; Camp McClellan, 1 officer, 79 men; Camp Grant, 4 officers, 236 men; Camp Pike, 1 officer, 44 men; Camp Hancock, 1 officer, 37 men; Camp Greenleaf, 1 officer, 75 men; Camp

Sherman, 1 officer, 134 men; Camp Custer, 1 officer, 63 men; Camp Devens, 1 officer, 64 men; Camp Lee, 1 officer, 58 men; Camp Upton, 1 officer, 200 men; Camp Dix, 1 officer, 150 men; Camp Sheridan, 2 officers, 40 men. Nine casual officers, classified as follows: Medical, 3; Air Service, 3; Field Artillery, 2; Quartermaster, 1.

Other casuals: Civilians, 14. St. Nazaire Convalescent Detachment No. 58, Nos. 111-114, inclusive, 11 officers, 699 men.

Medical detachment for duty, 5 officers, 20 men.

Included in the above are sick and wounded classified as follows: Bedridden, 99 men; requiring no special attention, 11 officers, 600 men.

DRAFTS ON DIRECTOR GENERAL

Director General received the following letter from the Federal Reserve Board:

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD,
WASHINGTON, March 13, 1919.

Director General of Railroads,
Washington, D. C.

SIR: The Federal Reserve Board has received and considered your letter of March 13 in which you ask to be advised whether or not Federal reserve banks may properly rediscount drafts drawn by manufacturers, equipment, material, and supply men, individuals, or corporations, upon the Director General of Railroads to cover the cost of equipment, material, or supplies sold to the Director General of Railroads, when such drafts have been accepted by the Director General of Railroads and offered for rediscount by a member bank.

Under the provisions of section 13 of the Federal reserve act, and the regulations of the Federal Reserve Board issued in pursuance thereof, Federal reserve banks may properly rediscount for their member banks drafts, commonly referred to as trade acceptances, drawn by the seller upon the purchaser of goods sold and accepted by such purchaser, provided such drafts have a maturity at the time of discount by the Federal reserve banks of not more than 90 days, exclusive of days of grace, and, provided, that they otherwise conform to the provisions of law and the regulations of the Federal Reserve Board.

"It is the opinion of the Federal Reserve Board, therefore, that subject to the limitations of the Federal reserve act, drafts drawn and accepted under the circumstances set forth in your letter are eligible for rediscount by Federal reserve banks at the prevailing rates of discount for trade acceptances.

"Respectfully,

"W. P. G. HAWDING,
"Governor."

Regards Way as Opened.

In view of this ruling of the Federal Reserve Board, making this paper eligible for rediscount, the Director General assured the representatives of the equipment companies of his belief that the way appears open to care for the situation in such a way as to protect the equipment companies and thus avoid any industrial disturbance.

The question of meeting obligations due by the Railroad Administration to railroad corporations for rental due has not yet been finally determined, but a conclusion is expected to be reached within a few days.

IMPORTATION OF LEMONS IS NOW PERMITTED TO AUSTRALIA

The War Trade Board announces in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 646), for the information of exporters in the United States, that they have been informed that the importation of lemons is now permitted by the customs authorities of Australia to the extent of 10 per cent of the average quantity imported yearly by each importer during the three years ending June 30, 1918, or, at the option of the importer, to the extent of 10 per cent of the quantity imported by the importer during the year ending June 30, 1918. Under this ruling importations must be made prior to June 1, 1919.

PORT CONDITIONS AT HABANA.

Despatches from the American minister to Cuba suggest that the ships carrying cargoes of food postpone sailing to Habana until the present serious congestion at that port is substantially relieved.

Value of kitchen economics, products and sales..... $148,067.82

The Salvage Service succeeded in reclaiming and reissuing out of condemned subsistence and supplies products valued at $134,562. Cash received during the period covered by this report for waste products sold amounted to another $13,505.82.

Estimated value of 193,465 pounds wool rags to British at 20 cents per pound... 38,693.00

Data statistically compiled for the first time indicates that up to November 30, 1918, there has been shipped to the British authorities at Le Havre for transshipment to Britain, pursuant to an agreement entered into with the British, waste wool shreds of clothing amounting to 193,465 pounds.

Miscellaneous sales of junk... 8,846.33

Sale of odds and ends such as broken up films, old shredded rope, cotton rags, and miscellaneous debris is included in this item.

Grand total..... 12,334,309.33

REAR ADMIRAL COWIE NAMED NAVY LIBERTY LOAN OFFICER

Secretary Daniels yesterday approved the appointment of Rear Admiral Thomas Cowie as the Navy Fifth Liberty Loan Officer.

In making this announcement the Secretary said:

"This loan must be raised by popular subscription, and I have every confidence that the Navy will, as in the Fourth Loan (when over $48,000,000 was subscribed) do itself proud and again lead the country over the top."

"I bespeak for Rear Admiral Cowie hearty cooperation and trust that everyone in the service will give him every possible assistance in making this the greatest financial victory the world has ever known."

Embarkation and Inland Traffic Services United

The War Department authorizes publication of the following supply circular, issued by the Director of Purchase, Storage and Traffic:

The Embarkation Service and the Inland Traffic Service are hereby consolidated in one operating service which is designated as the Transportation Service. Duties: Responsibilities for and authority over the transportation of the supplies and personnel of the Army by rail and water.

Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, General Staff, is hereby appointed chief of Transportation Service.

LACK OF FOOD STRIKE CAUSE.

Reports to the State Department of Conditions in Berlin.

The Department of State has advices from Copenhagen, Denmark, reporting conditions in Germany as witnessed by an official. The strike outbursts have been due, primarily, to lack of food and not to communistic or Bolshevik propaganda, and published reports as to the bloodshed in Berlin are said to have been greatly exaggerated.

Message and Summons to Red Cross Members By the Chairman of the Central Committee

To the members of the American Red Cross:

Speaking as the new chairman of the central committee of the American Red Cross, to which the war council has now returned the responsibility of direction, I wish my first message to be one of congratulation, but to be, at the same time, a summons.

The accomplishments of the last two years have been vast and inspiring. Wherever the call has been heard, the Red Cross was ready. While the more dramatic undertakings may have been upon the European fronts, it must always be remembered that those splendid and achieving groups of workers on the other side would have been helpless without the spirit, will and effort of the millions of men and women who make up the Red Cross in America.

Commissioned by the People.

Accepting its commission from the American people, the Red Cross built up a war program of service not only to our own soldiers and sailors and their families, but to the war-stricken peoples of our allies, particularly where the distress of the refugees and helpless children made an appeal which could not be disregarded. This war program is not ended with the armistice. Our Army is still in Europe, and while France, Italy, and Belgium are rapidly assuming the responsibilities within their own borders, our work there can not be ended suddenly. And now the calls from Poland, the Balkans, Russia, and Palestine have forced the sending of new commissions to those countries to bring, in the name of the American people, that emergency relief in sickness and suffering which only the Red Cross is organized to carry. These urgent problems of rehabilitation have emerged within the last three months.

Task Not Yet Finished.

It was expected last November that the effort already made and the funds in hand would be sufficient completely to meet the obligations which the Red Cross had been forced to undertake. It is now apparent that this is not the case. In spite of the strictest oversight of commitments and the most rigid economy, the appropriations by the War Council for relief in Europe for the months of January and February have been the largest in the history of the organization. In other words, the war task of the Red Cross is not yet finished, and our divisions and chapters must hold themselves ordered and ready for instant service. A further appeal for funds will be postponed until the last possible moment, but we must face the high probability that before the year is ended such a call will come.

Program of Peace.

While the chief energies of the Red Cross must still, for a short time, be devoted to the program of war, the program of peace, broader and more fundamentally important, is opening before our eyes. In reality, it is already taking shape; and the activities of the great organization in public health, in nursing, in home service, in junior membership, etc., are pointing the way to the new field which the Red Cross shall fill. The details of this peace program are being worked out with the utmost care and caution, and will be presented as rapidly as they can safely be formulated or as the termination of the demands of war will allow new obligations to be assumed.

Immediate Obligation Clear.

In the meantime, the immediate obligation is clear—to carry through to an effective end, at home and abroad, the war program undertaken in the name of the American people. There remains the inspiring future, where the new spirit of service, born of the war and symbolized by the American Red Cross, shall be turned to the prevention of disease, the relief of suffering, and the improvement of the conditions under which we live.

LIVINGSTON FARRAND,

Chairman of the Central Committee.

Deaths in Navy From Disease and Accident

The Navy Department reports the following deaths:

Emerson William Murray, lieutenant, U. S. N. R. F., which occurred at the Naval Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., on March 12, 1919, as the result of lobar pneumonia. Mother, Mamie E. Murray, Selbyville, Del.

Carl Leighton Furstenberg, machinist's mate (first class) (A), U. S. N., lost his life as the result of an automobile accident March 7, 1919, while attached to the United States Naval Air Station at Miami, Fla. Father, George J. Furstenberg, 80 Roth Street, Rochester, N. Y.

Albert Calvin Woodard, electrician (third class) (T), U. S. N., was drowned March 7, 1919, while attached to the U. S. S. Texas. Mother, Mrs. Mamie Davis Woodard, R. F. D. No. 3, Springfield, Tenn.

John Jacob Keabler, seaman, U. S. N. R. F., died March 4, 1919, as a result of fractured skull caused by being struck by a railroad train at North Chicago, Ill. Mother, Mrs. Anna Coburn, 633 Erie Street, Toledo, Ohio.

CHANGES IN BRITISH IMPORT RESTRICTIONS ANNOUNCED

The War Trade Board has been informed of the following changes in British import restrictions:

1. General licenses have been issued, to take effect March 10, 1919, permitting the importation of bacon, ham, and lard.

2. A general license has been issued, effective at the present time and to remain in effect until July 1, 1919, permitting the importation of hardwoods.

3. The general licenses which have heretofore permitted the importation of brooms, brushes, buttons, leather and fabric gloves, gas mantles, vegetables, tape, and cotton piece goods, dyed, printed, or colored, including tapestries, trimmings, and galloons, have been revoked, and such articles will now require individual import licenses.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL POSTHUMOUSLY CONFERRED ON GEN. DOYEN, MARINE CORPS

Secretary Daniels authorizes the following:

The first distinguished-service medal to be awarded by the Navy Department was to-day posthumously conferred upon Brig. Gen. Charles A. Doyen, of the United States Marine Corps, the man credited with having "built" the Fourth Brigade of Marines, which acquitted itself so valorously in the Chateau-Thierry sector and in all the subsequent battles of the war in which Americans took part.

Brig. Gen. Doyen organized the Fifth Regiment of Marines in the United States and early in 1917 went to France in command of that unit. Upon the arrival of the Sixth Regiment of Marines and the Sixth Machine-Gun Battalion overseas a brigade was formed which Gen. Doyen commanded during its entire training period in the Verdun sector. Unfortunately, he was never to go into action with the 8,000 men he had trained so well. Only a few days before the famous battle of Belleau Wood, when the marines stood like a stone wall between the Huns and Paris, Gen. Doyen's health broke down completely. Much to his chagrin, he was compelled to return to the United States, where, when he had recuperated somewhat, he was placed in command of the marine camp at Quantico, Va., the overseas embarkation station of the Marine Corps during the war. Here he contracted Spanish influenza, and died October 6, 1918.

Gen. Doyen was born in New Hampshire September 3, 1859. During his 35 years of service in the marines following his graduation from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, he had been stationed at practically every marine post here and abroad.

The distinguished-service medal will be given to Gen. Doyen's widow, Mrs. Claude Fay Doyen, of Annapolis, Md. In an expressive letter of condolence Secretary of the Navy Daniels requests that she designate the time and place for its presentation.

Text of Secretary's Letter.

Following is the text of Secretary Daniels's letter to Mrs. Doyen:

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF NAVIGATION,
Washington, D. C., March 7, 1919.

MY DEAR MRS. DOYEN: The Navy Department takes great pleasure in informing you that a distinguished-service medal will be posthumously bestowed upon your late husband, Brig. Gen. Charles A. Doyen, for the distinguished services rendered by him as commander of the 5th Regiment, Marine Corps, from the time of its organization in the United States and throughout its period of training in France until the arrival there of the 6th Regiment of Marines, and the 6th Machine Gun Battalion until only a few days before the battle of Belleau Wood.

The department quotes below for your information:

"By reason of his abilities and personal efforts, he brought this brigade to the very high state of efficiency which enabled it to successfully resist the Ger-

RAILROAD POLICE WAGE SCALE FOR LINES UNDER U. S. CONTROL.

The United States Railroad Administration issues the following:

The Director General has approved the recommendation of the Board of Railroad Wages and Working Conditions pertaining to patrolmen and others of the police department, effective January 1, 1919.

A variety of police organizations on the railroads under Federal control having been in effect, the first problem confronting the administration was to work out a uniform organization, in order that adjustments in pay might be arrived at for corresponding positions; and also in order that the employees in this department might have their pay adjusted to conform with the rates of pay in other departments.

Minimum Hourly Rate.

The order provides a minimum hourly rate of 45 cents per hour and a maximum of 55 cents per hour for patrolmen who are assigned to a restricted-territory, with a minimum of eight hours per day and overtime at the pro rata rate for the ninth and tenth hours and time and one-half thereafter. These men formerly received monthly wages ranging from $60 to $110. Under the new rate these men receive pay ranging from $85 to $112 a month on an eight-hour-day basis. Proportionate increases, but on a monthly basis, are provided for lieutenants and for sergeants whose duties require traveling and whose hours can not be regulated. The regional directors will have authority to apply the monthly wages according to the responsibility of the individual positions.

The order will apply to approximately 7,000 patrolmen and 1,000 lieutenants and sergeants.

man Army in the Chateau-Thierry sector and Belleau Wood. The strong efforts on his part for nearly a year undermined his health and necessitated his being invalided to the United States before having the opportunity to command the brigade in action, but his work was shown by the excellent service rendered by the brigade, not only at Belleau Wood, but during the entire campaign when they fought in many battles."

Although knowing that no eulogy on your husband for his incomparable work can in any measure assuage your grief at his loss, the department offers the above facts to you in the hope that you may find some consolation in the realization that as the result of his steadfast, untiring, and patriotic efforts, your husband thereby displayed the qualities most admired in one who subsequently died in the service of his country in time of war.

It is requested that instructions be received from you relative to the delivery of the medal, so that when the same is ready you will receive it promptly.

Area of Boise Project Extended by Mr. Lane

The Secretary of the Interior has issued public notice extending the area under public notice on the Boise project to include that small portion of the project which lies in the State of Oregon and a small section in Idaho near the lower end of the project. The lands in question are held in private ownership, are well improved, and appear upon the farm unit plats approved by the department January 26, 1917.

Upon proper water-right application being made therefor, water will be furnished these lands during the season 1919 and thereafter. The lands lie in townships 4 and 5 north, R. 5 W., Boise Meridian, Idaho, and in townships 21 and 22 S., R. 46 and 47 E., Willamette Meridian, Oregon.

TEXT OF THE ACT AMENDING THE SECOND LIBERTY BOND ACT TO ENABLE THE ISSUE OF CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS

[PUBLIC—No. 328—65TH CONGRESS.]

[H. R. 16136.]

AN ACT To amend the Liberty Bond Act and the War Finance Corporation Act, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Second Liberty Bond Act is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

"SEC. 18. (a) That in addition to the bonds and certificates of indebtedness and war-savings certificates authorized by this Act and amendments thereto, the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is authorized to borrow from time to time on the credit of the United States for the purposes of this Act, and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, not exceeding in the aggregate $7,000,000,000, and to issue therefor notes of the United States at not less than par in such form or forms and denomination or denominations, containing such terms and conditions, and at such rate or rates of interest, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and each series of notes so issued shall be payable at such time not less than one year nor more than five years from the date of its issue as he may prescribe, and may be redeemable before maturity (at the option of the United States) in whole or in part, upon not more than one year's nor less than four months' notice, and under such rules and regulations and during such period as he may prescribe.

"(b) The notes herein authorized may be issued in any one or more of the following series as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe in connection with the issue thereof:

"(1) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority;

"(2) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations;

"(3) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, as provided in paragraph (2); and with an additional exemption from the taxes referred to in clause (b) of such paragraph, of the interest on an amount of such notes the principal of which does not exceed $30,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation; or

"(4) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) all income, excess-profits, and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations.

"(c) If the notes authorized under this section are offered in more than one series bearing the same date of issue, the holder of notes of any such series shall (under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury) have the option of having such notes held by him converted at par into notes of any other such series offered bearing the same date of issue.

"(d) None of the notes authorized by this section shall bear the circulation privilege. The principal and interest thereof shall be payable in United States gold coin of the present standard of value. The word 'bond' or 'bonds' where it appears in sections 8, 9, 10, 14, and 15 of this Act as amended, and sections 3702, 3703, 3704, and 3705 of the Revised Statutes, and section 5200 of the Revised Statutes as amended, but in such sections only, shall be deemed to include notes issued under this section."

SEC. 2. (a) That until the expiration of five years after the date of the termination of the war between the United States and the German Government, as fixed by proclamation of the President, in addition to the exemptions provided in section 7 of the Second Liberty Bond Act in respect to the interest on an amount of bonds and certificates, authorized by such Act and amendments thereto, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, and in addition to all other exemptions provided in the Second Liberty Bond Act or the Supplement to Second Liberty Bond Act, the interest received on and after January 1, 1919, on an amount of bonds of the First Liberty Loan Converted, dated November 15, 1917, May 9, 1918, or October 24, 1918, the Second Liberty Loan converted and unconverted, the Third Liberty Loan, and the Fourth Liberty Loan, the principal of which does not exceed $30,000 in the aggregate, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations.

"(b) In addition to the exemption provided in subdivision (a), and in addition to the other exemptions therein referred to, the interest received on and after January 1, 1919, on an amount of the bonds therein specified the principal of which does not exceed $20,000 in the aggregate, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes therein specified: Provided, That no owner of such bonds shall be entitled to such exemption in respect to the interest on an aggregate principal amount of such bonds exceeding three times the principal amount of notes of the Victory Liberty Loan originally subscribed for by such owner and still owned by him at the date of his tax return.

SEC. 3. That section 5 of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended by section 4 of the Third Liberty Bond Act, is hereby further amended by striking out the figures "$8,000,000,000" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "$10,000,000,000."

SEC. 4. That section 3 of the Fourth Liberty Bond Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 3. That, notwithstanding the provisions of the Second Liberty Bond Act or of the War Finance Corporation Act or of any other Act, bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States and bonds of the War Finance Corporation shall, while beneficially owned by a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign corporation, partnership, or association, not engaged in business in the United States, be exempt both as to principal and interest from any and all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States or by any local taxing authority."

SEC. 5. That the privilege of converting 4 per centum bonds of the First Liberty Loan converted and 4 per centum bonds of the Second Liberty Loan into 4½ per centum bonds, which privilege arose on May 9, 1918, and expired on November 9, 1918, may be extended by the Secretary of the Treasury for such period, upon such terms and conditions and subject to such rules and regulations, as he may prescribe. For the purpose of computing the amount of interest payable, bonds presented for conversion under any such extension shall be deemed to be converted on the dates for the payment of the semiannual interest on the respective bonds so presented for conversion next succeeding the date of such presentation.

SEC. 6. (a) That there is hereby created in the Treasury a cumulative sinking fund for the retirement of bonds and notes issued under the First Liberty Bond Act, the Second Liberty Bond Act, the Third Liberty Bond Act, the Fourth Liberty Bond Act, or under this Act, and outstanding on July 1, 1920. The sinking fund and all additions thereto are hereby appropriated for the payment of such bonds and notes at maturity, or for the redemption or purchase thereof before maturity by the Secretary of the Treasury at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as he shall prescribe, and shall be available until all such bonds and notes are retired. The average cost of the bonds and notes purchased shall not exceed par and accrued interest. Bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund shall be canceled and retired and shall not be reissued. For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1920, and for each fiscal year thereafter, until all such bonds and notes are retired there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes of such sinking fund, an amount equal to the sum of (1) 2½ per centum of the aggregate amount of such bonds and notes outstanding on July 1, 1920, less an amount equal to the par amount of any obligations of foreign Governments held by the United States on July 1, 1920, and (2) the interest which would have been payable during the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made on the bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund during such year or in previous years.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall submit to Congress at the beginning of each regular session a separate annual report of the action taken under the authority contained in this section.

(b) Sections 3688, 3694, 3695, and 3696 of the Revised Statutes, and so much of section 3689 of the Revised Statutes as provides a permanent annual appropriation of 1 per centum of the entire debt of the United States to be set apart as a sinking fund, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 7. (a) That until the expiration of eighteen months after the termination of the war between the United States and the German Government, as fixed by proclamation of the President, the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is hereby authorized on behalf of the United States to establish, in addition to the credits authorized by section 2 of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, credits with the United States for any foreign government now engaged in war with the enemies of the United States, for the purpose only of providing for purchases of any property owned directly or indirectly by the United States, not needed by the United States, or of any wheat the price of which has been or may be guaranteed by the United States. To the extent of the credits so established from time to time the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to make advances to or for the account of any such foreign government and to receive at par from such foreign government for the amount of any such advances its obligations hereafter issued bearing such rate or rates of interest, not less than 5 per centum per annum, maturing at such date or dates, not later than October 15, 1938, and containing such terms and conditions, as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe. The Secretary, with the approval of the President, is hereby authorized to enter into such arrangements from time to time with any such foreign government as may be necessary or desirable for establishing such credits and for the payment of such obligations before maturity.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized from time to time to convert any short-time obligations of foreign governments which may be received under the authority of this section into long-time obligations of such foreign governments, respectively, maturing not later than October 15, 1938, and in such form and terms as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; but the rate or rates of interest borne by any such long-time obligations at the time of their acquisition shall not be less than the rate borne by the short-time obligations so converted into such long-time obligations; and, under such terms and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe, to receive payment, on or before maturity, of any obligations of such foreign governments acquired on behalf of the United States under authority of this section, and, with the approval of the President, to sell any of such obligations (but not at less than par with accrued interest unless otherwise hereafter provided by law), and to apply the proceeds thereof, and any payments so received from foreign governments on account of the principal of such obligations, to the redemption or purchase, at not more than par and accrued interest, of any bonds of the United States issued under the authority of the First Liberty Bond Act or Second Liberty Bond Act as amended and supplemented, and if such bonds can not be so redeemed or purchased, the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem or purchase any other outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States which may at such time be subject to redemption or which can be purchased at not more than par and accrued interest.

(c) For the purposes of this section there is appropriated the unexpended balance of the appropriations made by section 2 of the First Liberty Bond Act and by section 2 of the Second Liberty Bond Act as amended by the Third Liberty Bond Act and the Fourth Liberty Bond Act, but nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit the use of such unexpended balance or any part thereof for the purposes of section 2 of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as so amended, subject to the limitations therein contained.

Sec. 8. That the obligations of foreign governments acquired by the Secretary of the Treasury by virtue of the provisions of the First Liberty Bond Act and the Second Liberty Bond Act, and amendments and supplements thereto, shall mature at such dates as shall be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That such obligations acquired by virtue of the provisions of the First Liberty Bond Act, or through the conversion of short-time obligations acquired under such Act, shall mature not later than June 15, 1947, and all other such obligations of foreign governments shall mature not later than October 15, 1938.

Sec. 9. That the War Finance Corporation Act is hereby amended by adding to Title I thereof a new section, to read as follows:

"SEC. 21. (a) That the Corporation shall be empowered and authorized, in order to promote commerce with foreign nations through the extension of credits, to make advances upon such terms, not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, as it may prescribe, for periods not exceeding five years from the respective dates of such advances:

"(1) To any person, firm, corporation, or association engaged in the business in the United States of exporting therefrom domestic products to foreign countries, if such person, firm, corporation, or association is, in the opinion of the board of directors of the Corporation, unable to obtain funds upon reasonable terms through banking channels. Any such advance shall be made only for the purpose of assisting in the exportation of such products, and shall be limited in amount to not more than the contract price therefor, including insurance and carrying or transportation charges to the foreign point of destination if and to the extent that such insurance and carrying or transportation charges are payable in the United States by such exporter to domestic insurers and carriers. The rate of interest charged on any such advance shall not be less than 1 per centum per annum in excess of the rate of discount for ninety-day commercial paper prevailing at the time of such advance at the Federal reserve bank of the district in which the borrower is located; and

"(2) To any bank, banker, or trust company in the United States which after this section takes effect makes an advance to any such person, firm, corporation, or association for the purpose of assisting in the exportation of such products. Any such advance shall not exceed the amount remaining unpaid of the advances made by such bank, banker, or trust company to such person, firm, corporation, or association for such purpose.

"(b) The aggregate of the advances made by the Corporation under this section remaining unpaid shall never at any time exceed the sum of $1,000,000,000.

"(c) Notwithstanding the limitation of section 1 the advances provided for by this section may be made until the expiration of one year after the termination of the war between the United States and the German Government as fixed by proclamation of the President. Any such advance made by the Corporation shall be made upon the promissory note or notes of the borrower, with full and adequate security in each instance by indorsement, guaranty, or otherwise. The Corporation shall retain power to require additional security at any time. The Corporation in its discretion may upon like security extend the time of payment of any such advance through renewals, the substitution of new obligations, or otherwise, but the time for the payment of any such advance shall not be extended beyond five years from the date on which it was originally made."

Sec. 10. That section 15 of the War Finance Corporation Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 15. That all net earnings of the Corporation not required for its operations shall be accumulated as a reserve fund until such time as the Corporation liquidates under the terms of this title. Such reserve fund shall, upon the direction of the board of directors, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be invested in bonds and obligations of the United States, issued or converted after September 24, 1917, or upon like direction and approval may be deposited in member banks of the Federal Reserve System, or in any of the Federal reserve banks, or be used from time to time, as well as any other funds of the Corporation, in the purchase or redemption of any bonds issued by the Corporation. The Federal reserve banks are hereby authorized to act as depositories for and as fiscal agents of the Corporation in the general performance of the powers conferred by this title. Beginning twelve months after the termination of the war, the date of such termination to be fixed by a proclamation of the President of the United States, the directors of the Corporation shall proceed to liquidate its assets and to wind up its affairs, but the directors of the Corporation, in their discretion, may, from time to time, prior to such date, sell and dispose of any securities or other property acquired by the Corporation. Any balance remaining after the payment of all its debts shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts, and thereupon the Corporation shall be dissolved."

Sec. 11. That the short title of this Act shall be "Victory Liberty Loan Act."

Approved March 3, 1919.

General Order on the Relationship Between Railroad Administration And State Public Service Agencies

The United States Railroad Administration issues the following:

GENERAL ORDER No. 58.

WASHINGTON, February 20, 1919.

In order to clarify the relationship between the United States Railroad Administration and the State railroad and public-service commissions, all officers and employees of the United States Railroad Administration shall be governed by the policies and regulations herein set forth.

1. Transportation systems under Federal control continue subject to the lawful police regulations of the several States which were and are applicable to privately operated transportation systems, in such matters as spur tracks, railroad crossings, safety appliances, track connections, train service, the establishment, maintenance, and sanitation of station facilities, the investigation of accidents, and all other matters of local service, safety, and equipment. It will be the policy of the director general to cause the orders of the State commissions in these matters to be carried out.

2. In all proceedings of the character specified in paragraph 1 hereof, formal or informal, officers and employees of the United States Railroad Administration shall recognize the jurisdiction of the State commissions and shall assist them in developing the facts and in applying such remedy as may be necessary, and shall fully cooperate with them.

3. In all formal proceedings of the character specified in paragraph 1 hereof, to which the Director General may be a party, he will consider service as having been made on him if made on the Federal manager or general manager, as the case may be, of the transportation system affected, or on such official as the Federal manager or general manager, respectively, shall designate and whose name he shall file with the State commission for that purpose. The Federal manager or, if none, the general manager, shall designate to each State commission an officer conveniently located on whom such service may be made. The legal officers of the United States Railroad Administration are directed to appear in such proceedings and to present fully the facts.

4. The Federal control act empowers the President to inflate rates, fares, charges, classifications, regulations, and practices by filing the same with the Interstate Commerce Commission, and empowers said commission to review the justness and reasonableness thereof. The State commissions take the position that the intrastate rates are nevertheless subject to their jurisdiction and it will be the policy of the director general to expedite in every way a final decision by the appropriate tribunal of the question thus raised.

5. The directors of traffic and public service of the United States Railroad Administration are directed, before authorizing advances of any importance in rates, fares or charges either interstate or State, to submit the same to the State commissions in the States affected for their advice and suggestions.

6. It is important that the records of the State commissions be continued intact. Transportation systems under Federal control shall file with the State commissions, for information, all their rate schedules heretofore or hereafter issued during the period of Federal control, and annual and other reports and information as to matters within the scope of Federal control requested by State commissions according to the provisions of State statutes.

7. All officers, agents, and employees of the United States Railroad Administration are directed to supply information and render assistance as requested by State commissions, in accordance with the provisions of this order.

8. This order shall be effective on and after its date.

WALKER D. HINES,
Director General of Railroads.

APPROVES PERMANENT CAMP.

Acting Secretary of War Accepts Offer of City of Jacksonville.

The Acting Secretary of War has approved the recommendation that Camp Joseph E. Johnston, at Jacksonville, Fla., be retained as a permanent military camp and that the offer of the city of Jacksonville, of 732 acres—comprising part of this camp—to be donated free to the War Department, as long as it is used for military purposes, be accepted.

PROGRESS DURING FEBRUARY IN PUBLIC LAND CLASSIFICATION

Secretary Lane announces further progress during the month of February in the classification of public lands by the Geological Survey. The classifications during the month were confined almost wholly to those under the enlarged-homestead and the stock-raising homestead laws. Under the stock-raising homestead law, permitting entries of lands chiefly valuable for grazing and the raising of stock in tracts of 640 acres or less, lands were designated during February as follows:

	Acres.
Colorado.....	87,540
Idaho.....	46,215
Montana.....	390,791
Oregon.....	92,686
Wyoming.....	525,662

The total areal designated for the month was 1,142,894 acres, bringing the total area designated up to the end of February to 14,644,681 acres. Action is being expedited in order to dispose of as many of the pending applications before spring as possible.

During the month of February over a half million acres of land were designated under the enlarged-homestead act, permitting entry in areas of 320 acres or less. These areas lie in Colorado and North Dakota. By this action the total area classified as nonirrigable and designated for entry under this act was increased to more than 285,000,000 acres.

More than 2,500 acres were withdrawn during the month as valuable for power purposes, while 1,000 acres were restored to the public domain as not being valuable for such purposes.

The area of public-water reserves was increased by 8,640 acres during February, making a total of 217,709 acres now withdrawn under the law.

Importation of Peanuts Will Now Be Permitted

The War Trade Board announces, in a new ruling (W. T. B. R. 638), that applications for licenses to import peanuts will now be considered favorably when the applications are otherwise in order. This ruling of the War Trade Board lifts the existing restriction on peanuts when shipped from the country of origin or the primary overseas market, but does not apply to shipments of peanuts now stored in Canada, unless such shipments of peanuts were bought and paid for prior to the date of the original restriction, namely, April 14, 1918.

It is expressly to be noted that peanuts are not to be included within the terms of general import license P. B. F. 34.
